NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President.
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT,
of Ohio.

For Vice-President.
JAMES S. SHERMAN, of New York.

For Electors of President and Vice-President:
At Large.
JOHN A. ROBINSON, of Harford county.
ALBERT G. TOWERS, of Caroline county.
District Electors.
ROBERT S. ADKINS, First District.
DR. LUTHER KEMP, Second District.
JOSEPH BROOKS, Third District.
M. T. BURGESS, Fourth District.
J. WEBB THOMAS, Fifth District.
MOSES BOMBERGER, Sixth District.

Election—Tuesday, November 3rd. 1908.

Seven Presidential Tickets.

Seven parties have placed presidential tickets in the field. The last nominated is that of the Independence party, with Thomas L. Hisgen, of Massachusetts, for President and Col. Jno. Temple Graves, of Georgia, for Vice-President.

The seven candidates for the Presidency are as follows:

Republican—William H. Taft.
Democratic—William Jennings Bryan.
People's Party—Thomas E. Watson.
Socialist—Eugene V. Debs.
Prohibition—Eugene W. Chafin.
Socialist Labor—Martin R. Preston.
Independent—Thomas L. Hisgen.

Four years ago, there were six tickets ine the field and the total votes were:

Republican, 7,623,486.
Democratic, 5,077,971.
Prohibition, 258,536.
Socialist, 402,283.
People's, 117,183.
Socialist Labor, 31,249.

What the totals will be this year is an unknown quantity, but it is safe to predict that the Independence party will poll a vote larger than has ever been cast by a small party. This vote will largely come from Democrats. It is Hearst's party: Hearst was sometime Mr. Bryan's most ardent supporter. He now as ardently desires his defeat. Hearst received 178 votes in the St. Louis Democratic Convention in 1904 for the nomination for President. Bryan turned him down. Hearst and his friends have good memories. It is significant that the second place on the ticket is given to the Georgian. Democrats of Georgia and of South Carolina could not be expected to vote for Taft, but they may hail with joy an opportunity to vote for one of their own sons and thus rebuke Mr. Bryan for his vacillation in dealing with the one question that the South deems all important. Mr. Bryan's egregious blunder in attempting to coquette with the negro vote, must meet with rebuke both at the hands of intelligent negro votes in the North and of Southern white men.

Taft's Speech.

William H. Taft has strengthened his candidacy by one of the strongest speeches of acceptance ever made by the nominee of any party. The manner in which it has been received is indicated by the comments of the press. The Washington Post says:—

Mr. Taft's speech of acceptance is big, broad, and comprehenasive, as was to be expected; placid in temper, stripped of all pretense of phrase-making, and artful in concealing its art. It does not have much spontanity; but, on the other hand, there is no evidence either of cowaardice or lack of vigor.

The Nebraska State Journal says:—

The dominant tone of the address is frankness. A virile man steps forward from the ranks of the present administration, indorses its best and most important work, and promises that he will carry it on in the spirit and with all the vigor of President Roosevelt.

The Chicago Record Herald says:

The character that shines through the speech is that of the big, sane, sober man bent upon equal justice for all, and it will probably have no little effect with those independent voters whose support is invited in the closing words.

The Philadelphia Ledger says: In form the letter is an expository commentary upon the Republican platform, with incidental discussion of the suggestions of Mr. Bryan. The manner is that of a judicial opinion, based on a broad underlying conviction of constitutional principles, the safeguard of liberty and law.

The Kansas City Star says: Throughout, the speech of acceptance constitutes a great state paper pervaded by patriotism, courage and common sense. It is outlined in principal and fundamental details of the course that the nation ought to pursue.

The Philadelphia Press says: Men of business and of large money interests will not fail to observe the qualification in Judge Taft's demand for reform which appears more than once in his address, that it shall be done "without undue interference with legitimate business." It is the element of caution that is needed in bringing the large aggregation of capital and instruments of commerce under the regulation of statute law. The progress of reform under such a president as Taft should move like the tide, with great power, but without violence, precipitancy or uproar.

The Milmaukee Sentinel says: A pervading tone of calm good sense and a marked absence of stump oratory, claptrap and stage thunder agreeably characterize Mr. Tafts speech of acceptance. It therefore affords needed relief from a style of declamation that has been much dinned in the ears of our people of late years. "Come let us reason together,' 'may be called the keynote of Republican discussion of principles at issue between the parties.

Mr. Francis B. Livesey, of Sykesville, the well known writer, stamps on the envelopes used in sending out his correspondence and in mailing his pamphlets the words:

I AM A DEMOCRAT
MY PEN IS FOR TAFT,
DEBS, HEARST, BRYAN
ARE SOCIALSITS.

Democrat for Taft.

Immediately after the announcement of the result at Denver, Eugene W. Leake, Democrat, member of Congress for the Sixth district of New Jersey, wrote to Mr. Taft the following letter:

Jersey City, July 10, 1908.

Hon. Wm. H. Taft, Hot Springs, Va.

My dear Mr. Taft:—I cannot subscribe either to the candidate or the platform of the Denver convention. The conservative citizens of this country who are neither reactionary nor the representatives of predatory wealth or special interests, but who desire a rigid enforcement of the law with equal handed justice, must look to you for protection against the radicalism and class prejudice which will follow the Denver convention. You will have my vote on election day, and if during the campaign my services will be of any value to your national committee, I will cheerfully tender them. Very respectfully yours,

Eugene W. Leake.

Pleasant Valley Wins.

On Saturday, 18th inst., the Pleasant Valley base ball club defeated the Silver Run Stars by a score of 9 to 7. This is the first game of ball ever played in Pleasant Valley with a visiting team. We might have put up a better game, if our boys had had training, but as this was the first game we have had our team together we could not expect much from them. We congratulate the Stars on their good work, they having had three years experience. We expect to play the Stars again on August 8th, at Pleasant Valley, and look for defeat. We are glad to hear that the Mayberry folks enjoyed the game and will welcome them at any time.

Mr. Wooden's Barn Burned.

The barn of Mr. C C. Wooden, near Hampstead, was burned yesterday afternoon. The fire was discovered about 2.30 o'clock, and is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. The barn, which was one of the largest in the county, modern and with all the latest improvements and conveniences, was entirely destroyed. All the stock was saved with the exception of two calves, which were burned. Mr. Wooden also lost his large crop of hay with which the barn was stored, a considerable quantity of farming implements and machinery, including a fine gasoline engine, used in fodder cutting. Fortunately his grain was stored in another building. A number of sheds and outbuildings around the barn was also destroyed. There was no insurance on the contents of the barn, and only $1100 on the building, which could not be replaced for less than $1800 or $2000, so that Mr. Wooden's loss over and above the insurance is estimated at not less than $1500.

A Crack Battery.

Much pleasant excitement was occasioned in this city on Wednesday afternoon by the unannounced arrival of a battery of United States artillery. Battery D, Second Battalion, Third U. S. Field Artillery, Capt. Horn, 110 men, 120 horses 4 3—inch guns, 1 battery wagon, 1 store wagon, 6 escort wagons and 1 ambulance. Battery D is a crack battery, ready for anything and has a fine history in both the Civil War and the Spanish-American War. It was this battery that opened the battle of Gettysburg, and at Santiago did such good work as Grim's battery. The battery is on its return march to Fort Myer, from Fort Plains, New York, where it participated in the recent military maneuvers. Capt. Horn informed us that the battery has travelled 200 miles to Westminster and said that every one in the command is well and happy. The battery camped in Snowden's woods on Wednesday night and went to Mt. Airy, yesterday, camping there last night. One other camp will probably be made at some point in Montgomery county before the arrival in Washington, as the battery was three days to the good when it reached this city.

TO-DAY IS THE LAST OF THE July Clearance Sale

People expect great bargains in Mid-Summer, and it pays in the end to please them, no matter how great the first loss. It was a mammoth task to excell our own past in this matter, but we have done it this month, and with a generous margin to spare. The fragments of prices which remain are wholy unworthy of the sightly. seasonable goods they so feebly represent. Always bear in mind one governing fact, Viz: in all our offerings, Prices are the only sufferers; qualities—colors,—styles,—service are the best. Many of the items advertised there will be just about enough for today's selling. Tell it to your neighbors, and get here early.
