MARYLAND NEWS.

Chas. A. Dubois, ex-mayor of Annapolis, is critically ill with an acute attack of kindney trouble.

Cardinal Gibbons reached Milan on Monday and after a short stay went to Switzerland.

Rev. John B. Tabb, of St. Charles College, Maryland's poet-priest, has lost his sight.

The directors of the Middletown Savings Bank have purchased a lot, and will erect a modern banking house of pressed brick, with brownstone trimmings.

Major and Venus, the two California sea lions placed in Druid Hill Park last winter, died from the effects of the excessive heat of last week.

Mrs. Lucy Carney, a charity patient, supposed to be a pauper, died on Saturday in Bayview, leaving nearly $4,000 in the Eutaw Savings Bank, which she willed to Joseph B. Cook, an undertaker.

A spark from a retort in the Baltimore Retort and Fire Brick Company, Baltimore, started a blaze on Monday afternoon and destroyed $50,000 worth of property. The insurance is $25,000.

Conductor John T. Collins, who was shot and killed by striking miners at Blockton, Alabama, last week, was buried at Frederick. He was a nephew of Mrs. Henry Lorentz, of that city.

Gen. Frank Sherwood Hambleton, a well known banker of Baltimore, died on Sunday night at Bad-Nauheim, Germany, leaving an estate of about $3,000,000.

The peach crop of Western Maryland promises to excel that of 1906, the banner year. Freight officials of the B. & O., at Cumberland, expect to handle not less than 600 car loads on that division alone.

The death, last week, of Mrs. Sarah H. Friday, at her home in Philadelphia, Pa., recalls the mysterious murder, on the night of May 31, 1877, of her husband, Rev. J. Milton Friday, a young Lutheran clergyman, of Harper's Ferry, W. Va.

It is said that Dr. Wilbur F. Sheridan, pastor of Mt. Vernon Place M. E. Church, Baltimore, is being considered for the presidency of DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana, made vacant by the election of Rev. Edwin H. Hughes as bishop, by the recent General Conference.

Arthur Kennerly, at Salisbury, was in the chair in James Ball's barber shop, on Monday. Ball stood with his back to Kennerly, stropping the razor. Turning suddenly with the open razor in his hand, the blade struck Kennerly's leg, inflicting a gash three inches long and one inch deep.

Paul Wilhide, son of Mrs. George Wilhide, of Emmitsburg, was kicked in the face by a young horse Wednesday and so badly hurt that he died about midnight. The boy was leading the horse from the stable, when it turned and kicked him in the face. He was afterward seized with convulsions. Death was from concussion of the brain.

Mr. Thomas Dukehart, of the Dukehart Manufacturing Company, declares that Gwynn's run, Baltimore, is in such unsanitary condition from Edmondson avenue to where it empties into Gwynn's falls, that it is little more than an open sewer, is a menace to thousands of lives and predicts an epidemic of typhoid fever, unless immediate steps are taken to abate the nuisance.

In an address at the Pleasant Hill Grange picnic, at Arcadia, on Saturday, Prof. Thomas B. Symons, State Entomologist, sent forth another warning against the common house fly as a factor in disseminating intestinal diseases, especially typhoid fever and dysentery. He urged a general warfare on the pest, advocated screens to all houses, and the screening of all food in kitchens and in public markets.

After many meetings and adjournments of the City Council of Salisbury, arrangement has finally been made by which the telephone poles on North Division street and Camden avenue are to be removed and underground conduits installed. According to the present arrangement all telephone wires will be placed underground on North Division street, from the office of the company to Walnut street and from that point on out to the B., C. and A.

A member of the Arundel Boat Club with two friends visited the canteloupe patch of a farmer, near Curtis Bay, on Saturday. Returning to their boat, the owner and a policeman nabbed them. The farmer offered to settle for $1.50 from each of the young men. They became indignant and refused to pay. Taken before a magistrate, they were mulcted in the sum of $20.00 as fine and costs. They were permitted to go to the boat-house and raised the money among their friends, thus being saved a night in jail.

Edward Pittman, one of the first men to introduce baseball in Baltimore, died of Bright's disease at his home, 110 North Green street, on Thursday afternoon, in his seventy-ninth year. Mr. Pittman, in 1856, was a member of the Excelsior team, the first organized baseball club in the city or state, acting as catcher until the team was consolidated with the Waverlys and became the famous Pastimes. The Excelsiors' grounds were at Flat Rock, on the site now occupied by the lake in Druid Hill Park.

GENERAL NEWS.

Rumors concerning the health of King Leopold of Belgium, are causing anxiety.

A gasoline launch exploded at Newark, N. J., Saturday night. The passengers panic-stricken, leaped into the Passaic river, and four of them were drowned.

Two Japanese poaching vessels, with total crews of fifty-nine men, were captured by the U. S. revenue cutter, Bear, near St. Paul's Island, the chief island of the seal-group in Behring Sea.

On Tuesday evening, Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, having concluded 48 years of active service in the United States Navy, was placed on the retired list, at the age of 62.

It is announced at Apeldoorn that an interesting event is expected in the Dutch royal family. Queen Wilhelmina is now staying at the royal castle, Het Loo, near Apeldoorn.

"Twelve and a half million dollars are thrown away every year in Germany by the poorer classes in the purchase of pernicious penny dreadfuls," according to a statement just issued by the Durer Union, which is engaged in a campaign against the growing tendency in Germany to read trashy literature.

The boiler of an excursion steamer on Carp Lake, Mich., exploded on Monday. Several persons were killed and a score injured. The boat was loaded with pleasure seekers on their way to Fouch to a wild west show.

Employees of the Hanover silk mill, who have been idle for several months, will return to work Wednesday, August 19. This is believed to be the end of dull times in this industry. (Hanover, Pa., Herald.)

A water famine is on at Barnum, W. Va., a small town on the Western Maryland railroad. The reservoir is nearly empty and the stream supplying it almost dry. Water is carried from the mountains.

Reports from Algeria have reached Paris that a new uprising is under way on the Moroccan frontier, where an army of 25,000 Arabs is mobilizing, and preparing to surround the French posts.

Lieutenant Frank P. Lahm and Capt. Chas. De F. Chandler, of the Army Signal Corps, and Mayor Henry B. Hersey, of the Weather Bureau, are three American entrants in the international balloon competition at Berlin, Oct. 10 and 11.

The spreading of rails on the Great Northern Railroad, near New Westminster, Washington, on Monday, wrecked four menagerie cars of the Barnum & Bailey circus. Eight men, belonging to the cooking gang were injured, two probably fatally.

Although the American fleet is not scheduled to reach Japanese waters until October 17, Japan is making great preparations for the reception of the Yankee visitors. At least half a million dollars will be expended in the formal greeting of the fleet.

The assaulting of two white women by negroes brought on a clash of the races at Springfield, Illinois, on Saturday. Several negroes were lynched, and a number of homes of colored people burned. A number of innocent people suffered.

A special committee of the American Bar Association will recommend to the national meeting in Seattle, August 25, an act to amend judicial procedure so that appeals shall be decided on their merits rather than on purely technical points.

In the test at Fort Myer, Va., Baldwin's dirigible balloon met all conditions successfully, maintaining a speed of 13.75 miles an hour, while in the air 2 hours, 1 minute and 50 seconds. The Government will buy the balloon for $5, 737.50.

On Saturday night a swarm of mosquitoes from neighboring marshes came down upon the town of Lewes, Del., like a cloud. All business houses were compelled to close and business came to a standstill. Old sailors say that it was the worst night they ever put in that section.

A private expedition under the leadership of Dr. Jean Charcot left Havre, France, on Sunday, on a voyage of discovery to the South Pole. An interesting feature of the outfit is several ice-automobiles, which have been successfully tried out amid the ice and snow of the Alps.

Mrs. Mary Costa, the mother of nine children, a resident of the thickly populated mill district of Fall River, Mass., has been found to be the victim of leprosy. She was a mill operative and came to this country from the Azores, six years ago. Specialists think that she must have suffered from the disease for at least two years.

The hearing of the charges preferred against four milk dealers for selling impure milk to the National Guardsmen in the recent encampment, at Gettysburg, Pa., was had before Justice of the Peace John L. Hill. The cases against the Hanover Produce Company were dismissed; D. G. Lott, and John and Mary Dick, of Cumberland township, Adams county, were held.

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Stewart, the noted temperance advocate and known all over the country as "Mother" Stewart, died at her home in Hicksville last week. "Mother" Stewart was 92 years old. She devoted her life to the temperance cause. Mrs. Stewart established the first W. C. T. U. in Ohio at Osborn in 1873. In 1876 she visited England and organized the first W. C. T. U. in that country. Following the civil war she lectured extensively in the Southern States on behalf of the war sufferers.

Ira D. Sankey, the singing evangelist, who was for many years coworker with the late Dwight L. Moody, died on Thursday night at his home in Brooklyn, aged 68 years. Five years ago he was stricken with blindness, and since that time he has lived in retirement in Brooklyn. Sankey, it might be said, wrote the gospel hymns of the world. Among his most familiar compositions are "The Ninety and Nine," and "When the Mists Have Rolled Away." His songs are said to have had a circulation of more than 50,000,000 copies, and to have brought him riches.

A straw vote, carefully garnered by a New York paper, gives Judge Taft a big lead, he having outnumbered all tickets in the field by three to one. Of a total of 799 votes cast, Mr. Taft got 542, Bryan got 135, Hisgen (Independent) got 27, Debs (Socialist) got 10, Chafin (Prohibition) got 17, and 48 were undecided. The canvass was comprehensive, people of all professions and vocations having been called upon to submit their favorite. Factories that were polled last year were canvassed this year and the results obtained show that many who voted for Parker in 1904, have deserted Democracy's standard and will vote for Taft this year.

STRANGE HAPPENINGS.

A keg of beer rolled from the open door of an express car on the Reading Railway near Rupert, Pa., on Saturday, and landing under the train derailed the cars. With the exception of a bursted keg and a delayed train no damage was done.

At Batavia, Illinois, Adele, Rudolph, aged 3 years, and her brother, Wesley, aged 5 years, were playing in front of their house. The little girl saw what she thought was a kite string hanging from a tree and grasped it. The supposed kite string was a live wire. The boy ran to her assistance. Adele was killed and Wesley cannot recover.

Abraham Carhart, of Yoe, York county, Pa., heard something stirring under his bed, one night last week, and thought it was a burglar. Many burglaries have occurred recently in Yoe homes, and the community is greatly aroused. Carhart had his gun at hand and fired a load of shot at the intruder. Later investigation showed that he had killed a big rat.

David Moore, a farmer near Anderson, Ind., lost a four-months-old colt by death, and as the animal appeared be to healthy and vigorous up till death a post-mortem was held. It disclosed the presence of two hearts. One heart was in correct position, but abnormally large. The extra heart was of normal size, but located back of the liver. It is supposed that one of the hearts had been inactive till shortly before death, when the extra heart began beating and the increased pressure burst a blood vessel.

Joseph Meyer, John Bedesky, Stephen Fuchs, Andrew Nodsky and John Kush were arrested at Trenton, N. J., on Saturday, on the charge of playing poker in Riverview Cemetery, where they were caught using a tombstone for a card table. To make the case more gruesome two grave diggers and the superintendent of the cemetery aided in the arrest of the men and they were conveyed to the police station in the cemetery's dead wagon. They declared that they went to the cemetery to gamble because they were afraid they would be arrested anywhere else.

Members of the Sheldon Boat Club, on Lafayette Island, in the Schuykill River, near Philadelphia, Pa., found both a prepared feast and the clubhouse missing, yesterday. The house was later found floating a half mile down the river but the feast was not recovered. The house itself, which only measured fifteen feet in length, had been torn bodily from its support and launched in the Schuylkill. It is supposed that tramps broke in during the night and finding a tempting array of good things to eat and drink made away not only with the food but with the house. When found further down the river the interior of the house was in wild disorder.

Cloud Pyle, of Mortonville, Pa., had a colt operated on a few days ago for a very peculiar growth. For several weeks the colt had been shaking its head, as though there was something in its ear. When the local veterinarian operated he found a large tooth growing in the animal's ear. The tooth was removed, and the colt is doing well.

While several boys and girls, near Caldwell, N. J., were playing in the woods, they found a blackbird's nest. Anna Dodge, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who was examining it closely, suddenly exclaimed: "Oh, look what I have found in the nest." It was a ring set with four diamonds. Later a jeweler examined it and said it was worth $350. How it got into the nest is a mystery.

Two weeks ago the prize cow of the famous alderney herd of E. H. Kauffman, on his farm near Lancaster, Pa., apparently went dry and for some unaccountable reason refused to give even the slightest quantity of milk. It was feared that the milk was being stolen while the cow was in the pasture and she was watched. The merest accident disclosed a garter snake four feet long coiled about the cow's udder and she was being deprived of her milk. As an experiment the matter was left go for nearly a week and every day the snake was seen to nourish itself at the cow's udder. It was finally killed and the cow again gives its quota to the dairy.

DEFERRED LOCALS.

Gamber Items.

Mr. Jacob A. Edmonson started to pack tomatoes on Thursday, 6th inst., and with favorable weather his pack will be large, as his crop is good.

Our village has taken on the sprit of improvement. Mr. G. E. Benson has built an addition to his house with a nice coat of paint and the grading of the lawn it adds very much to the appearance of his property. Dr. Wells has graded his lawn very nicely and will build a very fine office and addition to his house, which will add much to the appearance of the property, the situation of which is on the macadamized road now being built.

Strengthened by Gettings, L. Warner and A. Warner, the Mechanicsville easily defeated Oakland at Mechanicsville, by the score of 7 to 2. The feature of the game was the pitching of Dixon and Gettings. Dixon hurt his knee in the first inning and had to retire in favor of Gettings, who held the Oaklands to 4 hits for the rest of the game. The Mechanicsville battery was Dixon, Gettings and Gorsuch. The Oakland battery was Cofield and Townsend. The Mechanicsville would like games with Taylorsville, Westminster and Sandyville. Address R. H. Barnes, Westminster, Md.

For the Sentinel.

Taylorsville Baseball Team.

The Taylorsville baseball team gave the New Windsor team a game on their own ground. It was a very uninteresting game, with a score of 9 to 3 in New Windsor's favor, as they had five of the amateur and four of the juniors. The Taylorsville boys will play two more games and then will be ready for the whole team of the New Windsor amateurs, with one game at each place. As the Mt. Airy team shut them out we can not believe that they can us. As Barnes gave them seventeen strike outs, it looked as though that ought to win the game in itself, but it was so that we could not win, however we would play. We will be ready for them any time with a disinterested umpire and if he does not treat them all right, we will take him out. There has been three games played between New Windsor and Taylorsville and Taylorsville has two. Will still hold championship if not returned. Will play the Smallwood team on the following Saturday at Taylorsville, at one o'clock.

Smallwood Items.

Mr. Scott Lloyd lost a very valuable horse, Saturday evening. The horse was hitched to a mower and in crossing a ditch the other horse gave a sudden jump breaking the breast chain and causing the mower to run over the unfortunate horse, cutting his leg nearly off, making it necessary to kill him. This makes the second horse that Mr. Lloyd has lost since winter.

Mr. Arthur Sittig, of Uniontown, who expects to take charge of a large creamery in the future, has been making a study of the dairy business for the past two weeks, at Smallwood creamery. Mr. Sittig had a very unpleasant experience, Tuesday evening, about 9 o'clock. As he and Miss Mabel Claridge were returning from Winfield, they were commanded to halt, by two men. The command frightened the horse, and after Mr. Sittig had gotten the animal under control, he seized a cudgel and went back to the place of hold up, and searched for the miscreants, but failed to find them. No doubt it is well that they escaped, as Mr. Sittig is quite an athlete. Just imagine his feelings! Miss Claridge screamed with all her might and the horse rearing and plunging, and, to add to the confusion, about ten empty milk cans tumbling about, making a din that was unbearable. After they resumed their journey, Miss Claridge missed her jewelry. She had placed it all in her mouth during the excitement and had forgotten it.

Millers Items.

Mr. Jacob Zepp has treated his store building to a very pretty coat of paint, which adds much to the appearance of the building. Mr. Chas. Martin did the painting.

Miss Grace Bender has returned to her home at Jersey City, N. J., after spending several weeks visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Bender here.

Mrs. Laura Bull, who had been visiting at Oxford, N. C., for the past year visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rinehart.

Rev. W. J. Houck, of Washington, D. C., spent Saturday week at the home of Mr. Isaiah Miller.

Quite a number of our folks attended New Freedom and Penn Grove Camps.

Miss Mary Landes, of Baltimore, has been visiting friends and relatives here.

Mr. Clarence Bolgiano, of Blatimore, has been visiting Mr. Geo. Hoffacker.

Mr. Thomas Martin lost a valuable cow by death recently.

Mr. Nicholas Campbell, now of Indiana, is visiting friends where he spent his boyhood days. He left here about 35 years ago, for the west, where he married and located on a farm in Indiana, and this is his first visit here in 35 years. He was greatly interested in the changes of the community since he left, as there were but two houses here, and no railroad when he last saw the place.

Mr. Chas. Giller, of Jersey City, spent several days with his wife and daughter, where they are spending the summer with Mrs. G's. mother, Mrs. Bender.

Orphans' Court.

Tuesday, August 11th, 1908.—Wm. J. Franklin and Thomas N. Franklin, executors of Nathan H. Franklin, deceased, settled their first account.

Sale of real estate of William P. Mauisby, deceased, finally ratified by the court.

Nathan H. Baile, executor of Margaret Erhard, returned inventories of real estate, personal property, money and debts due and received order to sell personal property.

The last will and testament of Harriet E. Cashour, deceased, admitted to probate and letters testamentary thereon granted to Julia Cover, who received order to notify creditors.

W. H. H. Weaver and Sarah Ellis Weaver, acting executors of Harrison Weaver, deceased, settled their first and final account.

Henry Klee, administrator of Toinette B. Klee, deceased, returned inventories of personal property and money, and settled his first and final account.

Western Maryland College

WESTMINSTER Md.

42nd Year Opens September 16th, 1908.

PERFECTLY SAFE,

where your sons and daughters are surrounded by the best moral and religious influences; where pure mountain air and water keeps them healthful and where new buildings equipped in modern fashion house them in comfort.

WISELY PLANNED

for both sexes, but reciting in separate classes; making education its great business, and keeping athletic and social matters incidental; reducing the cost so as to reach the largest number, but tolerating no student who will not study.

THOROUGH,

offering three separate courses for the degree of A. B., one with Greek and two without; well equipped Scientific Building; Gymnasium and a Faculty of twenty-one specialists.

OF GOOD REPORT.

You will find our students everywhere, ask them. Without large endowment or splendid gifts from the rich we have slowly built up a College whose only claim is the good work it does, and this has kept it growing for forty years

Rev. T. H. LEWIS, D. D., LL. D., President.
