SIDE ONE

Philad July 1. 1860.

My Dear Wife

The quiet of the Calm Sabbath every corresponds with the tranquility with which I am filled now favored in every spirit. I have just returned from St Luke's church to which I accompanied Mr Cochrane. and feel that frame that I did so. I hope I listened to a very good sermon from Dr Howe. against a time pleasing & time indulgent & thing prejudice. and full been blessed in a teachable and quiet spirit which is ready to an instinct and not indulging in Carbon self conceited superiority. Perhaps I may quote here from Judis chastisement "notes that man highly of myself than I ought to think" Dear Chester & Hannah are strengthened to endure their afflictions with patient submission. They of course cry but bitter what is well. I do not admire the duplicity of feeling. It is better to exhibit the fruits of divine grace by conduct than to talk of the riches they possess. They now prepare to bury Ann on Sunday

I & Fm

Chester & Hannah sent from Chestnut Hill yesterday with Hannah & Mary Garrett to Chester they came in Gallery to Chester that evening. Fred Dorsey on Thursday. I like Fred Dorsey very much & I hope he will act for us in the work after their return from the work on Thursday I & do that I will go & by next train to return Saturday Monday morning

Mem Chester and Hannah sent for their greeting in the room for me when I came down from Bedfordshire. Pleasant & Bright

Bill signed Jane Mathews
Jones Mathews
Chapman Hall