SIDE TWO

for Baltimore - Chester will take the boat on Thursday & make you a visit whether Harriet shall accompany him is yet undecided - They then propose to make a voyage to Boston by steamer from Baltimore and so to St Johns N.B. I think it is very well for them it will give them an entire change & the Mr Millans who are living there will give them a welcome I am sure. We will talk this over with you tomorrow.

Galloway will go to Baltimore tonight in order to aid E. Peet in bringing Annie & Harriet home. They decide to return tomorrow - I want to come & spend one week - and so on all our connections here! - I had a letter for Brother Galloway in reply having enquiring about selling the house. It did not come however till the time at which I was to give an answer had elapsed. So that nothing has been or will be done. Mrs Morris told me yesterday that she had offers for two houses at $2000 - and if she did not get them they would remain. I told her I had an offer to purchase this and did not say that I should not take it. My present feeling is one of quiet confidence in God's guidance. I do not see a day ahead and am thankful to say I do not desire to do so. My only desire is that God by his Providence may accomplish the work of his grace in us and our children & that we may be prepared to serve Him with a ready heart and a willing mind. Not only looking and working for Him next hereafter but now ready & glad to do whatever the Head appoints for us, to perform as good servants, labouring & trying cheerfully.

The weather has been very warm the last few days. This morning was cold & rainy & now it is clear and pleasant. I am very busy but will endeavour to attend to the Recorder & some other little matters for you. I suppose the London News will not hearken to you after the number for July 4th. We have spend till that number which will reach you in about 3 weeks. If you
