of Baltimore County.

Election—Tuesday, November 3rd, 1908.

Hon. J. F. C. Talbott has thus far failed to reply to, or make any denial of the serious charges prefered against him by the Democratic Citizens' League, of Baltimore county, and published several weeks ago in the SENTINEL, and is not paying any attention to another publication made by the league reiterating the charges, giving proof to sustain them and challenging Mr. Talbott's denial. His silence may be fully considered tantamount to a plea of guilty. The charges did not originate and were not made public by Republicans, but by Democrats of a better stamp than Mr. Talbott. Their truth being conceded it must be apparent to the judgment and reason of every unprejudiced voter that Mr. Talbott is unworthy to longer hold a seat in the United States House of Representatives.

Next week will be the closing week of the campaign. Both parties will put forth every possible effort. The Republican party will enter upon the week's work under the inspiration born of confidence of success. On every hand are the evidences that the Democratic party, though clinging to straws, and fighting for life, has little hope. One of the signs is the bitter wail being sent up by Mr. Bryan that the Republicans are seeking to compass his defeat by buying votes. Another is the effort of the Democratic Advocate and other newspapers of the party to raise a religious issue. All signs point to a victory as overwhelming as that of 1904. There are few things more certain than the election of Taft and Sherman. Only less certain is it that Bryan will again lose the vote of Maryland. In this district it is not an absolute certainty that Mr. Garrett will be elected, but it is certain that he will not be defeated if the Republicans of the district will do their duty. Hundreds of Democrats, weary of the domination of a man like Mr. Talbott, will vote for Mr. Garrett. The loyal support of his own party will make certain the success of the latter.

Who Killed Cock Robin?

Who secured the new Federal buildings for Baltimore?

"I" said J. Fred. C. Talbott, "with my influence in a Republican Congress, I, I, I."

Who wrung from unwilling Republicans the appropriation to enlarge, improve and beautify the Naval Academy at Annapolis?"

"I" said J. F. C., "I, single handed and alone, I did it, I, I, I."

Who influenced the Pension Dpeartment to grant pensions and increased pensions to the Boys in Blue?

"I" said Mr. Talbott, who loves the old soldier about election time, "No Talbott, no pension; I did it, I, I, I."

A bear chased Barney up a tree. Betsy, his wife, struck the animal on the head with an axe, and ever afterward Barney boasted of how "Betsy and I killed the bear." Mr. Talbott should add one more initial to his name and call himself "Barney."

Talbott Desperate.

From the beginning of the campaign, it has been very evident that Mr. Talbott's friends would hesitate at nothing in their efforts to save him from defeat.

Some of them lied when they charged Robert Garrett with being hostile to the proposed Lincoln boulevard.

Some of them lied when they said that Robert Garret was opposed to the eight hour law.

Some of them lied when they sought to influence wage earners against Robert Garett by charging him with having said that no laboring man is worth more than $1.50 per day.

They have juggled the arrangement of the Baltimore county ballot so as to make it easy to vote for Talbott and difficult to vote for Garrett.

Now there is strong evidence that they are trying to trade off Bryan to save Talbott. In a speech in Baltimore, on Tuesday night, Mr. Garrett openly charges home this nefarious conduct, in these words:

"And are you aware—and I say this especially to Democrats—are you aware that Mr. Talbott is now, all through this campaign, arranging deals to 'swap' votes between Democrats and weak-kneed Republicans? He gets a Democratic friend of his to approach a half-hearted Republican and offer to vote for Taft if the Republican will vote for Talbott.

"In other words, Talbott is throwing over the head of the Democratic ticket in an effort to save himself. The question at once presents itself, Is Tablott a Democrat? If so he is a mighty selfish one, who is willing to sacrifice his party's leader in order to save himself from defeat."

A commercial traveller, a Democrat, visited a number of Carroll county country stores two weeks ago. Returning to this city, he said "I have not met with a farmer who is going to vote for Bryan."

Why should a farmer vote for the Democratic candidate for the Presidency? He is receiving more money for all kinds of farm produce, wheat, corn, hay, live-stock, than at any previous time within ten years. He knows that his personal interests as well as those of his country will be maintained by the election of Judge William H. Taft, and will cast his vote accordingly.

1892—1896
Democratic administration
Wheat 47 cents a bushel; corn $1.25 a barrel.

1908
Republican administration
Wheat NINETY-SEVEN CENTS;
CORN THREE DOLLARS.

The experiment of electing a Democratic President in 1892 brought failure. "A burnt child dreads the fire." The experiment will not be repeated in 1908.

Vice-President Fairbanks' advice is sound. "Do your thinking before the election." This is not the time to be guided by what your grandfather did in his day.

A young married lady, of this city, whose father resides elsewhere, wrote him a letter a few days ago and concluded with the words: "Hurrah for Bryan!" In his response to her letter, he wrote: "My daughter, Mr. Bryan is a good man, but he is not fit to be President of the United States."

A friend in the South writes: "Your paper is read by quite a bunch of fellows here every week, and the remark is frequently heard: 'The SENTINEL says.' They will of course vote the Democratic State ticket, but they are for Taft in the bigger game."

"Mr. Garrett stands for everything that Mr. Talbott does not stand for." This forceful and truthful statement of the chairman of the Fairbanks' meeting in Westminster should be heeded by every voter in the District. Those who know Mr. Talbott, know for what he stands. Is he the exponent of high ideals? Let those, who know him best, answer truthfully.

Taft in Maryland.

Thirty thousand Marylanders greeted the Hon. Willam H. Taft, in Baltimore, on Monday night. It was a great occasion for the city, for the State and for the Nation. Long before seven o'clock, the hour set for the opening of the Lyric Theatre, the gathering crowd became so large that it was deemed wise to throw down the bars ahead of the appointed hour, and in five minutes every seat except those reserved was filled. Those who participated in that waiting hour will carry its memory through life. National airs quickened the enthusiasm of the vast throng, and as the band played "The Star Spangled Banner," four thousand men and women rose and waved the flags with which they had been supplied. "Dixie", whose strains no man can hear without quickening heart throbs, again and again called forth cheers prolonged. Meanwhile, the multitude between Union Station and Maryland avenue filled Mt. Royal avenue from side to side, "acres upon acres of people."

The next President of the United States came into the building by the stage entrance and enthusiasm reached its climax. As William H. Taft stood facing the wonderful audience, his happy, smiling face won many a heart, and the cheering multitude refused to be silenced. For more than five minutes the greeting was continued. Mr. Charles R. Schirm, president of the Maryland League of Republican clubs, started the speechmaking, and introduced Mr. John Hays Hammond, president of the National League, who in turn introduced Gen. Charles J. Bonaparte. When the latter introduced Judge Taft, the audience went wild. The band struck up "My country, 'tis of thee," and every voice that could utter a sound joined in singing the National anthem. Though his voice was worn with much speaking and his throat husky with cold, Judge Taft spoke for an hour and a half and was heard by everyone in the building. His address was one of the strongest ever delivered in the State, a convincing argument that must be a fruit of good. Many were present from this city and county, and from all over the State.

A Misrepresentation Corrected.

BALTIMORE, OCTOBFR 14th, 1908.

To the Editors of the AMERICAN SENTINEL,
Westminster, Md.

My Dear Sirs:—

Mr. Talbott, I am told, through his agents and otherwise, has asserted that I am opposed to the project of having the proposed Lincoln Boulevard built through Carroll county. The object which my opponent has for making such assertions is apparent, although the foundation for them is lacking. Can you imagine any reason whatever that would prompt me to oppose such an admirable enterprise? After careful thought I fail to discover any argument that I can consistently bring against it were I so disposed. I have no disposition, however, to oppose the building of this highway, and on the contrary, if I am elected, as I stated briefly at the Fairbanks meeting in Westminster last Friday evening, I shall use every possible effort to have Congress pass a law providing for its construction.

Experience is teaching us that we must expect such underhand attacks as this one from our opponents. All that I ask is that when an assertion is made to my detriment, I may be informed of it, and given the opportunity to explain my position with regard to it. I know that on affairs affecting the welfare and prosperity of the county in such a way as would the construction of the Lincoln Boulevard, my approval and my cooperation in the event of my election are as certain, if not more so, than Mr. Talbott's.

Yours very truly,
ROBERT GARRETT.

CALL ON ME AT ANY TIME

you require dental work and you will not regret it. I practice all kinds of dentistry except the poor kind. I make a specialty of Bridge Work, which is probably one of the most difficult operations in the profession. But I have reduced it to an exact science and can and do guarantee my work in each instance. Let me replace it at missing tooth with a new one which will match perfectly the natural teeth in your mouth. It will hurt neither your person nor your purse. Full sets of teeth made while you wait. Painless extracting 25c. Free when plates are ordered. Teeth filled with gold, Silver and Amalgam. Broken plates repaired and made good as new. Charges always moderate.
