Election—Tuesday, November 3rd, 1908.

Gompers says the injunction plank of the Democratic party promises everything he demands for labor, including jury trials for contempts of court, the legalization of the secondary boycott &c. Senator Rayner denies this and says there is nothing of that sort in the platform. Mr. Bryan has been urged to state his interpretation of the plank referred to, but remains silent, being evidently afraid to express an opinion. What a contrast to the open and manly utterances of Mr. Taft, who has nothing to conceal and does not seek votes on false pretences.

The way the bank guaranty law of Oklahoma works is shown by the insignificant capital proposed in applications for bank charters under that law. Of sixty such applications forty-seven were for the charter of banks with only $10,000 capital stock. This means speculation of the wildest sort and no well informed banker doubts that if the law is continued on the statute books of Oklahoma the result will be a full crop of broken banks and, in the end, the collapse of the system. And it is this law the Bryan Democrats propose to engraft upon the national banking laws of the United States.

The particular attention of living veterans of the Civil War and of the widows of those who fought for the Union is called to the record of Fred. J. C. Talbott on pension bills in Congress. Mr. Talbott is seeking the favor of the old soldiers and courting their votes upon the assumption that he has gotten more pensions for applicants than any other member of Congress from Maryland. The Congressional Record shows that he never voted for a single pension measure and that he did vote against several such bills. Old soldiers should not be fooled into voting for him through gratitude for services never rendered, nor in the expectation of future favors at his hand. They will find his record on the first page of this issue of the SENTINEL.

Mr. Bryan is credited with saying, in substance, that platforms may mean what they omit as well as what they express. Upon a cursory glance this seems paradoxical, but taken in connection with what the Democratic platform omits of Mr. Bryan's expressed views on public questions it is perfectly logical. Mr. Bryan declared, two years ago, in an address delivered in London, England, that he was then more radical than ever. In his first public utterance after his return to America he repeated what he had said in 1896 in relation to the government ownership of railroads, which he declared was the only solution of the railroad problem. That opinion was omitted from the Denver platform, but, if Mr. Bryan has been correctly quoted, it is legitimate to read it into that declaration of principles and policies. The same may be said of Mr. Bryan's free silver theory and other of his vagaries which, for policy's sake, were left unexpressed in the platform which he dictated.

At the great Fairbanks meeting in this city, October 9, Mr. Garrett called attention to the fact that Mr. Talbott's methods had developed a condition in the district whereby a poor man cannot wage a successful fight without going heavily into debt to his friends; that in order to counteract his pernicious activities of this nature a candidate opposing him must spend considerable sums of money in advertising the facts to the people and in other lawful and proper ways in getting the voter to come to the polls to overthrow him.

Mr. Talbott, at Mt. Airy, Saturday night last, garbled this statement of Mr. Garrett, seeking to make it appear that Mr. Garrett uses money to influence voters. Mr. Garrett is a purist in politics. Not one cent of his money has been spent, with this knowledge or consent, in previous campaigns to purchase votes or debauch the ballot. In the present campaign he has set his face like a flint against such practices and would rather be defeated than successful through such methods. In private and on the stump he has earnestly spoken against such practices and emphatically stated that if any man in the district uses money for illegitimate purposes he does so at his personal peril.

Evidence of Prosperity.

One of the incontrovertible evidences of the prosperity of the people of Carroll county at this time is the enormous increase in the deposits of the banking institutions of the county. In 1895, for instance, the deposits subject to check in the national banks of the county aggregated $421,229.92. A few weeks ago, when the Comptroller of the Currency called for reports from these banks, their deposits subject to check amounted to $1,520,283.36. But the increase has not been alone in the national banks. Other banking institutions show large gains indicating the savings of the people. In 1895 the Westminster Deposit and Trust Company was not in existence. Now it has deposits in excess of $600,000. The Westminster Savings Bank has had an increase amounting to about a third of a million of dollars. New banking institutions at Union Bridge, Hampstead and Manchester have about three-quarters of a million of deposits. The Birnie Trust Company has nearly half a million on deposit and the savings banks at Taneytown, Uniontown and Union Mills have had a material increase in their deposits.

In short, the amount of money owed by the banking institutions of this county to the people is just about five millions of dollars and more than double the amount of similar liabilities in 1895, thirteen years ago.

Is it necessary to ask, in view of this exhibit, whether the people of the county, of all classes, have prospered under Republican administration? And is it necessary to suggest that these same people will be subject to great risk by a change of the policies which have brought about this condition of prosperity? Farmers, mechanics, unskilled laborers all have much at stake in the pending election. They cannot doubt that if Taft shall be elected the continuance of their prosperity is assured. No matter what their party leaning, are they willing to take the risk of a change? Those who see it in this light, regardless of party, should cast their ballots for Taft and Sherman for the protection of their homes and the comfort of their wives and children.

HOW TO MARK THE BALLOT.

TWO MARKS on the ballot this year are all that need be made to vote the full Republican ticket. The ticket is arranged in two columns. In the first column are four groups of names. The second group is the Republican ticket headed with the names of TAFT and SHERMAN. Make a X mark in the large square following their names.

At the bottom of the first column are the names of candidates for Congress. Mr. GARRETT'S name is the THIRD name from the bottom. Make a X mark in the square following his name. Make only these TWO MARKS and NO OTHER.

Note the fact that there is a blank line, followed by a square, above Mr. Garrett's name. Be very careful to make X mark in square FOLLOWING Mr. Garrett's name and NOT in square above it.

See that there is no mark on the ballot that you receive from the judges. If there is the slightest mark on it, return it and get another. Each voter is entitled to three tickets.

For Sample Ballots call at Republican Headquarters at the SENTINEL office.

VOTE EARLY

Significant Facts.

The Good Government Club of Mt. Washington sends out an appeal to voters to cast their ballots against Mr. Talbott and for Mr. Garrett and presents the following significant facts as the cause for such action:

"The Good Government Club of Mount Washington thinks it might be of interest to the voters of the Second Congressional District to announce the following significant facts:—That its membership of sixty-two (62) is composed of both DEMOCRATS and REPUBLICANS in about equal proportions, and that a resolution has been UNANIMOUSLY passed condemning Mr. Talbott and endorsing Mr. Garrett.

"In this connection, let this fact be borne in mind, that the Good Government Club is not trying to 'down' Mr. Talbott because he is a DEMOCRAT. Were he a REPUBLICAN with a like record, the Good Government Club would oppose him just the same.

"If the reader of the above purposes to vote for Mr. Talbott, we would respectfully ask him three questions—questions VITAL to the well-being of every man, woman and child in the Congressional Dirtict, especially in Baltimore County.

"FIRST—Have you read or heard of the charges of misgovernment, particularly as related to Baltimore County, which have been so repeatedly made against Mr. Talbott?

"Second.—Are they TRUE or FALSE?

"THIRD.—If True, should you vote for him?

"Taking all things into consideration, wouldn't it be a wise move on the part of the voters of the Second Congressional District to try a change—a change that would leave the people UNBOSSED—free to give the 'square deal' to all alike.

"The most reliable sources of information, unmistakeably indicate a VICTORY for County freedom and Mr. Garrett. To help make this anticipated VICTORY a certainty, we hope that you will consent to sink party lines for this time, and register your vote against a 'boss' so thoroughly discredited by unquestionable FACTS."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Coming--The Devil.

At the Odd Fellows' Hall, on Wednesday evening of November 4th, the citizens of Westminster and vicinity are going to have the opportunity of seeing one of New York City's famous productions. The Garden and Belasco Theatres have been producing the play of "THE DEVIL" for the last two months to crowded houses, and now comes the Manhattan Troupe, supported by Edwin Franklin in this famous play, identically the same as is being produced in the city. Some say that it is the greatest play ever written. "There is a great lesson" says Beatrice Fairfax in the New York Journal "for all women and men in this wonderful story. It is one that will impress with its power. But I am glad to say that I do not fully believe in its truth. "The "DEVIL" here wins his victory, as he has won many. But each year, as men and women get better, the victories of Satan are fewer. Good men and women fight against the evil and do not yield. The tragic and heart breaking story, by the wonderful and new writer, tells one side of the battle between good and evil that goes on in every human heart. It has its lesson for all men, and woman. It is a powerful warning against playing with fire. Its lesson taught in the downfall of a man and women is "keep away from evil and appearance of evil." It is well worth seeing and you will not be disappointed if you attend. The players are all artists of note and have been selected with the view of giving the interpretation of Molnar's famous play of "THE DEVIL" with accuracy and, as presented, it equals that produced at either of the two theatres in New York City. No one should fail to see this great production at the low price of 25, 35, and 50 cents where, if you went to New York it would cost you $2.50 and car fares. Remember the date.

Coal - - Beware

ORIGINATORS OF THE LONG TON WEIGHT OF 2240 lbs. Clean Coal for a Ton.

The best Coals are the cheapest. All Anthracite Coals are not alike and none can nor will give the satisfaction the Philadelphia and Reading Coals give. We sell no other and in dealing with us you are sure to get the best. There are cheaper grades offered for less money, but a trial will prove their inferiority. Also there is no comparison between the Lykens Valley and the so-called red ash coals.
