are now on their way home from Niagara — they will reach here on Saturday night. I suppose they have informed their friends in Baltimore about their movements. I am afraid they will not have derived much benefit from the trip, and think that Hannah will be annoyed by being constantly in hotels & cars and moving about without of quiet.

We are looking carefully about carriages. Let me know what your wishes are now. On that subject Brailsford has paid to the three hundred dollars on July 1st.

Love to dear Mary & Henry & Caroline

Yours with true devotion

SIDE TWO

Dear Israel came in just as I had got to this point. I repeat some conversation which I shall look at today — & which went Dear Emily to talk about herself — she is much better. Nearly well — no discharge left. Cousin Emily is better also — about just recovered from Rheumatism & going to Connecticut next week. I try to persuade her to go by Lyon instead. — I must close

With hearty love to you all and my prayers for your growth in grace

Your loving husband
