MARYLAND NEWS.

Miss Martha Finley, author of the famous "Elsie Dinsmore" books, died at her home in Elkton on Saturday, aged 80 years.

On Saturday afternoon, Rev. Shimp, the pastor of the Bethel congregation of the Church of God, located near Highfield, immersed in Lake Royer five of his converts. On account of the severity of the weather it was necessary to break the ice before the rite of baptism could be performed.

Wm. B. Getzendanner's dairy and barn, near Beallsville, Montgomery county, was destroyed by fire about 2 o'clock Sunday morning. Thirty-eight cows, four horses, hay, corn and wheat, with nearly all the farming implements and machinery, were also burned. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin. The barn was covered by insurance. The loss is estimated at $8,000.

GENERAL NEWS.

At the sale of the Talbot Taylor collection in New York, last week, four chairs of the Louis XV period brought $7,200.

The offical records of the New York State Health Department show that there was a falling off of 20,000 marriages in that State in 1907 as compared with 1908.

The Roanoke Gas and Water Company, the only gas company in Roanoke, Va., has announced a reduction in the price of gas of 12½ cents per 1,000 eet. The old rate was $1.25 net.

The "Tribuna," Rome, Italy, proposes that Roman citizenship be conferred on President Roosevelt as a manifestation of gratitude for the help given by the United States on the occasion of the earthquake.

York will soon be connected with Gettysburg by trolley. The surveyors of the Hanover and McSherrystown Street Railway Company are rapidly completing their survey between Gettysburg and Hanover. York already is connected with Hanover by trolley.

Anti-typhoid fever vaccination is to be employed by the U. S. military authorities, according to the dispatches from Washington. Vaccination will not be compulsory, but an effort will be made by lectures to show the soldiers the advantage of availing themselves of the method to escape the dangers of this dreaded disease.

Borough Teasurer Nicholas Wagner, of Hanover, Pa., has received from the York Railways Company a check for $91.76 being the amount due the borough for the past eleven months, on the clause in the franchise granted to the company by the borough in which the company agrees to pay to the borough three per cent. of the gross earnings of its line within the borough limits. The gross earnings of the Hanover and York trolley line within the limits of Hanover borough amounted to $3,058.64.

The program for the reception of the United States warship fleet on its return to Hampton Roads has been completed. President Roosevelt, on board the Mayflower, will review the fleet as it passes in at noon on February 22nd. Rear Admiral Sperry, the other commanders and executive officers will then go aboard the Mayflower to receive the President's greetings, after which the President will visit the flagship of each division and meet the assembled officers and six representative sailors selected from the division.

Mercersburg Academy, Mercersburg, Pa., has a scarlet fever scare. A student had the disease while spending his Christmas vacation at his home, and his physician did not properly diagnose the case. He returned three weeks ago. Four cases of scarlet fever developed last Sunday and the school was thrown into a temporary panic. About 30 of the boys walked to Greencastle intending to take trains for their homes, but later returned to the institution. The cases are mild and every precaution has been taken to prevent the spread of the disease. There are between 400 and 500 students at the Academy.

STRANGE HAPPENINGS.

Miss Ava Pollard, of Elizabeth, N. J., has refused an offer of $3,500 for her Persian cat, Miss Mid, which received championship honors at the Boston Cat Show. This offer was raised from $2,500. Miss Pollard said that the cat is not for sale.

Mrs. Pennord, a wealthy woman farmer, of Louisiana, has just had her tomb built. In the lid of the coffin are several air holes, and a telephone is placed near the head-rest, and is connected with the house of the cemetery-keeper. Thus the fear of being buried alive is reduced to a minimum.

A mouse in Washington square, New York, eclipsed the one of "Dickery, Dickery Dock" fame in "Mother Goose" by descending the entire length of an electric wire which stretches from the top of the 12-story building at 100 Washington square to a fire-alarm lamppost on the corner of Washington place. As the wire is almost perpendicular, the daring little creature deserved a better fate than befell it on reaching the ground, where it fell a victim to an observant terrier. The mouse took 15 minutes to make the descent, and when it reached the lamp it ran around the groove in the top many times, as if bewildered by its long descent. Then it descended the iron post only to meet its doom at the teeth of the little dog.

Notwithstanding the wintry conditions that prevailed during the past few days, the three Walters' Public Baths, Baltimore, continue to be well patronized, 1,563 persons having used them Saturday and Sunday. It has been noticed that the number of men who make use of the laundry is larger in winter than summer. Eighty-three men went to the High street bath Saturday and spent an hour washing and drying their clothes.

A mountain lion crunching the lifeless and mangled body of her 2-year-old boy, was the sight that greeted Mrs. Chris Brown, Saturday, when she entered the family tent, four miles from the Hotel Delmar, after a short walk. The mother in despair rushed screaming at the beastly slayer of her child. The lion growled savagely and backed slowly out of the rear of the tent, its mouth dripping with the baby's blood, and disappeared. The Brown family arrived at Balboa, Cal., from Delaware two weeks ago.

A peculiar incident occurred in York Springs, Pa., last week. About two years ago Dr. C. L. Myers and his neighbor, Rev. Mr. Ruth, each placed in front of their respective residences cedar posts which were purchased from the same party. On Thursday night, a pair of mules belonging to Eli Griest broke off the post in front of the reverend gentleman's residence and Calvin Davis' mules ran off about the same time and broke the post in front of the doctor's home.

Grieving over the death of his aged mother, John Quinn of Philadelphia, Pa., returned to his home and two hours after her death died of a broken heart. Mother and son had been inseparable companions for many years. Quinn was 70 years old. His mother was just about to pass the century mark. They had lived together at 4511 Arch street so long that the oldest resident cannot remember how many years have passed since they first took up their abode in the old house. When the mother was taken ill a few weeks ago and no hope was held out for her recovery it was remarked among the neighbors that in the event of the old lady's death her son would not be long in following her. Immediately after the attending physician pronounced Mrs. Quinn dead yesterday afternoon the broken-hearted son left the death chamber and collapsed. He was being laid out beside his mother two hours later.

DO IT NOW.

Westminster People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late.

The appalling death-rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into the grasp of diabetes, dropsy, Bright's Disease, gravel or some other serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headache, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they cure where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home.

James F. Rinker, Justice of the Peace, Main St., Westminster, Md., says: "This is to certify that being a sufferer from kidney trouble, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, with excellent results. I cheerfully endorse them as a reliable remedy for kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. jan 29 2t
