10 am. Wednesday
Augt 22, 60

My Dear Wife

I have only time to say hastily that I am a desperate about getting off to night. Mrs Fallon has had a very bad night. I am so ill that I do not think I can be the person during the day that I shall be just to her or Cheston to leave her. Come the very first chance. Truly and me

Your ever lovingly
Mom.