Visit To Valley Forge.

Westminster, February 18th, 1909.

Editor American Sentinel,

Westminster, Maryland.

Dear Sir:—

I had the pleasure of visiting Valley Forge on Wednesday, the tenth instant, and drove all over the Camp Ground where Washington and the many thousands of soldiers under him camped on the frozen ground. I was able to see some of the old entrenchments, and a great many holes in the ground that were at one time covered by log huts which protected the soldiers from cold. The Valley with the hills surrounding where Washington made his camp was certainly a strong position. He had the river on one side; the hills on the other, with the additional security of redoubts and entrenchments. No American with good rich American blood in his veins can help but be fired and filled with patriotism and love for his country when he visits the camp ground at Valley Forge, which was the place of so much suffering and where the frozen ground was marked with the bloody footprints of the men who made our country possible today. It was one of the great pleasures of my life to visit this camp ground, and I shall always remember it. I will mention in particular the house in which Washington made his head-quarters, which is in as good condition now as it was the day it was built. In an upper room is the bed he slept in with all furniture in use at the time of the encampment. Most people are under the impression that Valley Forge is a great distance from this section of the country. It is located about six miles from Norristown, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, and Norristown is about seventeen miles from Philadelphia. The proper way to reach it would be to go by train, either Pennsylvania or Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, to Norristown, then either go by livery team or automobile to Valley Forge. The trip can be made in from three to five hours from Norristown.

Very truly yours,

Westminster.

A Birthday Social.

A birthday social was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Shipley on Friday evening, 5th inst., in honor of Mr. S's. nephew, Mr. Larry Shipley, it having been his twentieth anniversary. The house was illuminated on all floors, the rooms heated comfortably and much courtesy shown the guests by Mr. and Mrs. Shipley.

The evening was spent very pleasantly with games by the young folks while the old folks chatted. "Uncle Tiv" entertained the company with a few of his select graphophone selections. Refreshments were served in various styles.

Among the many handsome and valuable gifts received by Larry was a gold watch and chain given by his aunt, Mrs. Shipley, which was highly appreciated.

Those present were: Messrs. Larry Shipley, Samuel Smith, Arthur and Dennis Buckingham, Vollie Nulte, Beard Arnold, Ruby Poole, Berry Buckingham, Jesse Shipley, Brice Poole, Herbert Shipley, Arthur Griffith, Roy Snyder, LeRoy Townsend, Alfred Linton, Owen Penny, Harry Gibson, Roby Gibson, Messrs. and Mesdames Robert L. A Pleasant Party.

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Snyder, near Gist, was the scene of a very enjoyable party on the 4th inst., given in honor of their daughter, Miss Rena. The guests began to arrive about seven o'clock and played games for four hours without an intermission, when refreshments were served in abundance, and the young folks then returned to the play room until the wee small hours. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Black, Mrs. James Buckingham, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shipley, Mrs. R. C. NEVER SUCH A SIGHT BEFORE

Scenes at Old Point When Epoch-Making Cruise Ended.

[From the Baltimore Sun Staff Correspondent.]

Fort Monroe, Va., Feb. 22.—The great cruise of the big white fleet now is history.

The monster battleships came proudly home today amid a nation's official and civilian welcome of patriotism; returned in immaculate whiteness on a sombre day to be converted into a gray command. Having gone out in their regulation white, ready for "either a fight or frolic" as Admiral Evans, then the commander-in-chief, said in his characteristic way, they returned peacefully as though having come home from one great, tiresome frolic to take on the new regulation paint of war color. It was fitting that the white fleet should be ushered home by the Maine, which gave up her flag to the Connecticut and came home ahead to lead the new gray squadron on the Atlantic. From a naval point of view, from an American point of view, and from a foreign point of view as expressed by foreign naval attaches themselves, the cruise was in every respect a thoroughly demonstrated success. This was realized before the fleet came in today, and this knowledge inspired to greater zeal and enthusiasm President Roosevelt and Secretary of the Navy Newberry in welcoming the command safely home. Secretary Newberry in his statement made to The Sun last Saturday struck the keynote when he said the cruise would go down in history as the greatest naval achievement of President Roosevelt—that no such fleet would make such another cruise within a generation. This idea was taken up by the President when, in proposing a toast to Admiral Sperry and the officers with him on the Mayflower, he said:

"Not until some American fleet returns victorious from a great sea fight will there ever be such another homecoming as this. We stay-at-homes drink to the men who have made us proud of our country."

This idea was later amplified when, in his address to the officers and men of the first division, aboard the Connecticut, he said: "You've done the trick. Any other nation can follow now, but they have got to go behind you in pretty good shape. But when the time comes that you think you are fit enough, then I am through with you."

SALUTES FOR TWO PRESIDENTS.

Admiral Sperry admitted that it was the proudest day of his life. The President, by his manner, admitted it without saying so. Admiral Evans had taken the fleet safely out and Admiral Sperry had brought it safely back. Nations have looked on in wonderment. When the ships dropped anchor in Hampton Roads, at noon, the President was vindicated, his faith Grant Devilbiss and daughter Grace, George Pennington and son; Walter Bower, of Taneytown; Howard Devilbiss, of New Windsor; Edward Stern, of Winfield; Oden Barnes, N. Roop, Joe Roop, Alfred Englar, Herbert Englar, John Buckey, John Sheney, Carroll Zile, Agustus Harman, Charles Harman, Walter Duvall, William Gorsuch, Arthur Albert, William Duvall, John Duvall, Howard Bower, Mrs. Samuel Haines, Mrs. Coppersmith, son and daughter; Mrs. Lizzie Barnes, Mrs Stirling Gorsuch, Mrs.

Union Mills Items.

Not more than half of the ice houses in this vicinity were filled during the January freeze up, and from present appearance the unfilled ones will remain so.

The Union Mills orchestra, at its recent meeting, elected officers as follows for the ensuing year: President and director, Thos. H. Frock; vice-president, Harvey Tagg; secretary, Harry N. Groft; assistant secretary, Weldon R. Nusbaum; treasurer, Harry Cretin. The additional members of the orchestra are: Conrad D. Rusher, W. E. Frock, Oscar Dell, Dennis Dell, Marshall Crumpacker and Murray Wisner.

The Silver Run Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, No. 186, will hold a chicken supper at Mystic Chain Hall, on Saturday evening, Feb. 27th.

Our public school observed Lincoln day exercises on Friday of last week.

Mr. Percy Houck, son of Mr. Nelson R. Houck, of Hanover, Pa., was a guest of Mr. G. W. Yeiser, last week.

HAD ALL BEEN PLANNED.

But, after all, this was just as the President had planned. Six months ago he had meant that the salutes should be precisely as they were today. So it did not require the extra salute for the President to think of Washington.

"This is great," said the President, as he slapped the Admiral on the back shortly after he had come aboard the Mayflower to be formally received. "I knew you would do it—you fellows are all right. Washington made a start, but of course, it was impossible for him to foresee what a real live navy is. Guess he'd like to have seen this today!"

REAPING BENEFITS.

From the Experience of Westminster People.

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Westminster residents on the following subject will interest and benefit thousands of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

John Stem, Main street, Westminster, Md., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and can vouch for their merit. A few months ago my brother procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Chas. W. Moore's drug store and they did him so much good that I decided to give them a trial. My trouble came from an injury I received at least ten years ago. My back was very weak and I suffered severely from pains through my loins which greatly handicapped me in doing my work. I tried many remedies but received but very little relief until at last I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They gave me relief from the first and I can therefore recommend them as a reliable remedy for kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. feb 26 2t.
