pattern is lovely. I am ashamed to send this blotted letter, but as it is the first letter I have written since I have been sick, & my eyes are still quite weak, I will not write it over again. I write only to say that you will receive it. I intended that my first letter should be to sister Sally, but I wanted to acknowledge the pattern & your kind note. Mike wrote to you last week to tell you that I am sorry to hear such bad accounts of uncle Sam. I wish you could persuade him to come to & pay us a visit. I am sure the pure air of Chestnut Hill would do him good. I hope you will be able to read this scrawl for it is getting dark & I might not be able to do so. Mr Bohlen & Maine & Mike all send much love. & Mrs Vandenkark desires her kind regards
