TALKING IT OVER.

The Augusta (Georgia) Chronicle, of March 23, says "The American Sentinel of Westminster, Maryland, has started a most admirable department in that paper—as bright as a dollar and as full of interest as an egg is of meat................He calls it "Talking It Over."

This indicates that The Chronicle and The Sentinel believe in throwing bouquets, not bricks. The former had the opportunity of calling the latter "plagiarist," "thief." But it didn't do it. The title "Talking It Over" was borrowed from the Chronicle, but not without acknowledgement.

In its issue of December 25, 1908, the Sentinel said "One of the most interesting columns of the Augusta (Georgia) Chronicle, the oldest and one of the best Southern dailies, is that conducted by its managing editor, Mr. T. D. Murphy, "Talking It Over.'"

"It is well to talk things over occasionally and the SENTINEL proposes to borrow Mr. Murphy's idea and from time to time, if not regularly, to talk familiarly of things of public interest."

In this incident there s a principle involved. It is always better to throw bouquets than bricks. All the hammers should be buried. "Don't knock, boost!" is the temporary password of a certain organization. A good motto and rule of life. What's the good of "knocking." If you "knock" me and I "knock" you, it is simply a question of who has the heaviest hammer. The other man may fall in the end and yet his fall will hurt you as much as it hurts him. A "knock" is like a boomerang, which goes out and hurts another, but always comes back to the the thrower. Fra Elbertus, of East Aurora, the epigrammatic philospher, has truly said "He that lives by the hammer, shall die by the hammer." modernizing and putting into twentieth century phrase the words of wisdom of Him, who "went about doing good," who said to Peter "Put up again thy sword into his place; for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword."

Every "knocker" is a pessimist. The "booster" is the optimist. Some one handed my friend Murphy the following verses, which are here reproduced from his "Talking It Over" column:

DO YOU KNOW?

There's lots o' people
 Settin' 'round in every town,
[illegible] like a broody chicken,
 [illegible] every good thing down.
Don't you be that kind o' cattle,
 'Cause they are no use on earth,
You just be a booster rooster—
 Crow and boost for all you're worth.

If your town needs boostin', boost 'er,
 Dont hold back, an' wait to see
If some other feller's willin'—
 Sail right in, the country's free.
No one's got a mortgage on it,
 It's just yours as much as his;
If your town is shy on boosters.
 You get in the boostin' biz.

If things don't just seem to suit you,
 An' the world seems kinder wrong,
What's the matter with a boosting,
 Just to help the thing along?
'Cause if things should stop a-goin'
 We'd be in a sorry plight—
You just keep that horn a-blowin'
 Boost'er up with all your might.

What a lot of things there are in Westminster just now to talk about: the evangelistic meetings, the proposed Young Men's Christian Association, the magnificent work of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association for the upbuilding of the community, good roads for Carroll county, the Athletic Association and the base ball park, and "many other articles too numerous to mention." What a chance for everybody to get busy!

"Don't Knock! Boost!"

The Western Maryland Railroad contemplates extending its lines from Cumberland to Pittsburg and Wheeling, but the enterprise will only be undertaken if the Supreme Court sustains the right of railroads to haul products which they produce. The lines with which the proposed extension, if made, will be merged, own about 150,000 acres of coal lands and upwards of 1000 coke ovens.

The old building known as the Slagle Hotel, at Woodsboro, was destroyed by fire at midnight of Wednesday. It was built 120 years ago by Joseph Wood. The brick in it was brought from England. It was owned by Mr. Jas. W. LeGore, of LeGore, and occupied by Dr. C. A. Stultz, who lost his furniture and instruments, including an X-ray machine. Washington, it is said, once stopped at the old hotel on his way from Frederick to York, Pa. The loss is estimated at $2,000, with an insurance of $1400.

An election for three members of the city council of Hagerstown was held on Monday and resulted in the success of two Republican candidates and one Democrat. As of the two holdover members of the council one is a Republican and one a Democrat, the result of Monday's election gives the Rpublicans three and the Democrats two of the members for the ensuing year. The total vote polled in the three wards in which the election was held on Monday was 1319, of which the Republican candidates received 730 and the Democrats 589.

Convention of G. A. R. Veterans.

The Department of Maryland, Grand Army of the Republic, will hold its thirty-second annual encampment at Wilson Post Hall, Gay and High streets, Baltimore, April 9 and 10. An official order to this effect has been issued by Department Commander Robert C. Sunstrom.

Col. Benjamin F. Taylor, of Veteran Post, No. 46, superintendent of the National Cemetery on the Frederick road will be elected Department Commander it is said, without opposition. Colonel Taylor is one of the best known and most popular Union veterans in the state. He is an ex-County Commissioner of Baltimore county and a Loyal Legion man.

In addition to the department commander and other officers to be chosen the encampment will select one delegate-at-large and one alternate-at-large and four delegates and four alternates to represent the department at the forty-third national encampment of the Grand Army, to be held in Salt Lake City the week in which August 19 next occurs.

Gen. Henry M. Nevius, national commander-in-chief of the Grand Army, will attend the state encampment and address the local veterans.

Quilting Party.

One of the most enjoyable quilting parties of the season was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bair on Wednesday, 17th inst. The guests began to arrive about 8 A. M. and quilted until they were invited to the dining room to partake of a sumptuous dinner. This pleasing part of the function concluded they returned to the quilt and plied their needles till 4 P. M., when refreshments of ice cream and cake were served in abundance. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. George Bair, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bair, Mesdames Frank Barnes, John Snader, James Smith, Tom Moore, Beal Condon, Frank Zepp, Howard Shipley, David Sharetts, Reuben Conaway, William Pool, Harry Reinecker, Milton Penn, William Young, Charles Franklin, Bud Dudreau, Howard Price, Douglas Condon, Misses Berdie Cover, Ida Conaway, Grace Condon, Cora Franklin, Lelia Franklin, Bessie Franklin, Olga Conaway, Margie Waltz, Evelyn Condon, Oliver Price, Francis Young.

Union Mills Items.

Our village will be treated to a festival of music on Good Friday afternoon when the Pleasant Valley Band will be the guest of the Union Mills Band, and both bands, in full uniform, will give open air concerts and parade the town. In the evening, and also in the following evening, an oyster supper will be held in the I. O. M. hall.

A branch of the Enoch Pratt free Library of Baltimore has been established at the store of O. A. Haines, Silver Run. Mr. Haines now has on hand about forty volumes, all standard works, which will be added to or exchanged, in the future, as occasion may demand. Those using the Lbirary will be required to pay the small fee of two cents per week to defray the expense of transporting the books to and from Baltimore.

A white automobile, in which the occupants were two men unknown in this vicinity, going down the pike at a high rate of speed, last Saturday, when near Mt. Pleasant School house badly scared the six-horse team of Amos Houser, of Bachman's Valley. The team suddenly swerved around and got into an ugly mix-up in which the harness was considerably torn and one of the horses seriously injured by the splintered end of the wagon tongue which was broken off. Mr. Houser was naturally very much incensed and threatened the arrest of the automobilists, whereupon one of them produced a revolver which he handled very boldly and wanted to know whether Mr. Houser intended to give them any trouble. The strangers tarried but a short while when they again got into their machine and continued on their journey at top notch speed. The police of Westminster were notified of the affair by telephone, but it appears that the parties in the automobile got through town without being apprehended.

Mr. Harry N. Groft has gone to Baltimore, where he will be treated for ulcer of the eyelid by Dr. Charles L. Rumsey. He will likely remain in the city for a week or ten days.

Miss Eva Dull, who has been living with the family of Mr. Otto Harman, at Bachman's Mills, and who was severely afflicted with sciatic rheumatism, has returned to the home of her father, Mr. Peter Dull, and under the care of Dr. G. Lewis Wetzel has so far recovered her health as to be able to be up and around again.

The pupils of Wisner's school house will give an entertainment at I. O. M. hall on Saturday evening, March 27th. The Union Mills orchestra will furnish music on the occasion.

John F. and Harvey J. Maus, executors of the estate of the late John Maus, of Silver Run, have sold the farm situated a short distance east of the turnpike leading from here to Westminster, to the B. F. Shriver Co. for $13,000. The farm contains 265 acres and there is a fine lime stone quarry upon it.

During passion week, Rev S. Charles Hoover, pastor of St. Mary's Reformed Church, Silver Run, will hold services on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, at 7.30 o'clock.

IN MEMORIAM.

STONER.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Mary C. Stoner, who fell asleep in Jesus one month ago to-day, March 27th, 1909.

"Though lost to sight, to memory dear."

Just one month has passed away,
Just one month since the sad and lonely day,
The mother we so dearly loved and prized
Lay beautiful in death before our eyes.
When they ask us do we miss her;
 Yes, it fills our hearts with pain.
But her spirit sweetly whispers,
 Courage, dear ones, we will meet in Heaven again.

By her daughter, Mrs. John E. Eckenrode.

"But," writes his mother, "seven bottles of Electric Bitters completely cured him." For Eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Sores and all Blood Disorders and Rheumatism Electric Bitters is supreme. Only 50c. Guaranteed by All Druggists.
