BOY KIDNAPPED.

Ransom Paid for His Return.

The Kidnappers Caught.

Thursday morning of last week a strange man called at the school in Sharon, Pa., where Willie Whitla, 8-year-old son of James P. Whitla, was a pupil, and stated that the lad's father desired to see him at his office. The man was a kidnapper and took the boy away in a buggy. In the afternoon of the same day Mr. Whitla, who is one of the most prominent lawyers in Sharon and has several millionaire relatives, received a demand for $10,000 as his son's ransom. At 10 o'clock that night the buggy in which the boy was taken away was found at Warren, Ohio, 28 miles from Sharon. Detectives failed to get a reliable clue to the whereabouts of the child, but his father got into correspondence with the kidnapper and arranged to place $10,000 under a rock in a park at Ashtabula, Ohio, from which it was to have been taken and the boy then returned to his parents.

The detectives, however, got wind of the arrangement and laid their plans to capture the kidnapper. He was too wily, however, to be entrapped and the money was not taken.

Then another plan was arranged between the father and the party or parties who held his son. He was directed to confer with a woman at a confectionery store in Cleveland, Ohio, and, it is supposed, paid the money to her, but declined to tell where the store is located. The transaction was followed by the return of the boy to his father, by rail, to the Hollenden Hotel, Cleveland, the same evening.

The lad states that he was well treated and had a good time while with the kidnapper. His father seems averse to making any personal effort to discover the abductor of his son, having probably agreed not to do so as part of the stipulation upon which the boy was returned to him. But the public is interested in the case and the Legislature of Pennsylvania has authorized the Governor to offer a reward of $15,000 for the apprehension of the guilty party or parties. A bill has also been introduced in the Legislature, making kidnapping a capital crime, as it should be.

Fortunately, notwithstanding the reticence of Mr. Whitla, the kidnapper has been caught and with him a woman who states that she planned the whole affair. They were arrested near the B. and O. R. R. depot in Cleveland, and when the woman was searched by the matron at the police station $9,790 was found on her person, most of it in the original packages in which it was paid to Mr. Whitla at the bank. At this writing the parties have refused to divulge their names. Important clues leading to their capture were given by the kidnapped boy.

Early Chicks can be made extremely profitable by the regular use of Fairfield's Poultry Tonic and Egg Producer at this season. March weather is hard on little chicks, but Fairfield's Blood Tonic and Egg Producer for Poultry Only, will fortify them against disease, increase their strength and hasten their development and growth. Sold under written Guarantee by The W. H. Davis, Co., Westminster, and Geo. W. Yeiser, Union Mills.

A GOOD REASON.

Westminster People Can Tell You Why It Is So.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure the cause of disease, and that is why the cures are always lasting. This remedy strengthens and tones up the kidneys, helping them to drive out of the body the liquid poisons that cause backache, headache and distressing kidney and urinary complaints. Westminster people testify to permanent cures.

Samuel J. Knadler, George St., Westminster, Md., says: "I heartily endorse Doan's Kidney Pills as both my wife and myself have used them with excellent results. I had an attack of La Grippe some time ago which weakened my kidneys and I began to suffer a great deal from backache and kidney trouble. The secretions from my kidneys were unnatural and I had a feeling of restlessness. My back was weak and lame and I began to suffer from a dull, grinding ache through my loins, so intense as to almost prostrate me. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Chas. W. Moore's drug store, and they gave me immediate relief. I have felt a great deal better since and do not hesitate to give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. mar 26 2t.

Hundreds of tests made by prominent dairymen have proven that Fairfield's Blood Tonic for Cattle will insure healthy, robust Calves when fed Cows during pregnancy. Fed regularly and three quarters of an hour before milking, Fairfield's Blood Tonic for Cattle will remove all Garlic taste and odor from milk and cream. Sold under written Guarantee by The W. H. Davis Co., Westminster, and Geo. W. Yeiser, Union Mills.
