SIDE TWO

of the present one near the road. – Two good rooms one below & one above the building to be rather higher and wider than that at present. and having a Cellar made by raising it on brick wall two or three feet above the level of the present floor. If that will keep them I should have it done certainly they full of possible –

We do not wish to influence Harry about this nor would I do more giving the whole form to them. – I would retain my hope that Harry will secure plenty of good help for next year. He can find profitable employment for them when the crops do not require work in clearing up and sending little things what require time and labour. Mr Elliott has left here & will not know till about the time he is to be married I suppose which will be in November. Mrs Eller says she regrets it but she can not let Annie or her mother leave Philadelphia till after the wedding. – I will meet you in Baltimore any day you appoint. I have but little to do just now. My only trouble is the old one of dislike to bring you from Mary & home. Thought sometimes I could give much to have you near me —. I am a very
