AMERICAN SENTINEL.

WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. SEABROOK, WILLIAM L. SEABROOK, } Editors.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1909.

Mr. Murray Vandiver, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, is quoted as having said, at the meeting of the committee on Wednesday, that the suffrage "amendment is aimed against illiteracy, not against race or color." It is rather late in the day to resort to such a pretext, as there has been no concealment of the real purpose of the amendment—the disfranchisement of negroes. In fact, concealment of that purpose is impossible as the intention is clearly manifest by the provisions of the amendment. But the shadow of the U. S. Supreme Court is lying darkly in its way and Mr. Vandiver is evidently alarmed by its menace. It will not be lifted by any disavowal of the real purpose of the movement by Mr. Vandiver.

Democratic State Central Committee.

The Democratic State Central Committee met in Baltimore on Wednesday and named August 11 as the date for holding the State convention. The dates for judicial conventions were fixed as follows: First Circuit, Ocean City, August 18; Fourth Circuit, Cumberland, August 18; Fifth Circuit, Ellicott City, August 12; Sixth Circuit, Rockville, August 7; Seventh Circuit, La Plata, August 18th.

Resolutions were adopted declaring the suffrage amendment the paramount issue of the campaign.

The committee, it is said, is a unit in favor of the renomination of Dr. J. W. Hering, for Comptroller of the Treasury.

The members of the Maryland State Roads Commission have been touring in automobiles and examining the roads in Massachusetts and other New England States, New Jersey and elsewhere and have gained valuable information for the benefit of the road building about to be done in this State. The cost of constructing these roads will be considerably reduced, it is said, by freight concession on the ralroads. The Pennsylvania Railroad will give a rate of 85 cents a ton from Havre de Grace or Port Deposit, to Salisbury, instead of $1.15, the regular rate, and an equivalent concession, it is said, will be made by the B. and O. and West. Md., and other railroads.

The Maryland State Commission appointed by Governor Crothers to supervise the erection of a monument near the Mount Royal entrance to Druid Hill Park, to the Union soldiers and sailors who fell in battle, Tuesday visited the completed work of Sculptor Adolph Weinman at his studio, 441 West Twenty-first street, in New York, and expressed its approval of the design. The monument is to be unveiled September 12, Old Defenders' Day.

A revolution in Turkey has resulted in the dethronement of Sultan Abdul Hamid and the elevation of his brother as Mehmed V as Sultan of the Turkish Empire. Abdul is a prisoner and may be tried for his crimes against the rights of the Turkish people. The power of the new Sultan will be restricted by a constitution. On the first page of the Sentinel will be found an article showing the cause of the revolution.

It is reported that the Democratic organization of Howard county, which was not favorable to Judge Forsythe at the time of his appointment by Governor Warfield, is now lined up solidly for his nomination as a candidate at the election in November. Presumably this will assure his nomination.

During the last few weeks many Armenian Christians have been massacred by fanatical Musselmans and several American missionaries have been murdered. It is estimated that 30,000 persons have perished during the uprising.

Jr. O. U. A. M.

One of the most flourishing fraternal orders in this city is Western Maryland Council, No. 79, Jr. Order United American Mechanics, which meets every Friday night in Odd Fellows' Hall. Its members are constantly seeking to make its meetings attractive and frequent entertainments are given.

The latest was a mock trial, which was held on Friday nights, April 16 and 23. Mr. J. Wesley Yingling was the judge and presided with dignity. Mr. Paul Shipley was clerk and Mr. Frank Tracey, deputy clerk. The cause of action was a suit for damages for breach of promise to marry, Miss Dollie Dimples (Mr. Edgar Ruthrauff) plaintiff; S. Van Doren (Mr. C. Levine Price) defendant. Messrs. Caude Tilden Smith and C. Carroll Henry were the plaintiff's attorneys; and Messrs. Eli T. Butler and W. L. Seabrook represented the defendant. The witnesses were sworn "not to tell the truth nor anything like the truth" and all kept the promise most minutely. The plaintiff, plainly gowned and heavily veiled, while on the witness stand, frequently gave way to her emotions, and several times, Dr. Aesculapius, a noted speciaist (Mr. Wm. Weagley) was compelled to administer restoratives. Star witnesses for the plaintiff were Dr. Aesculapius, Peter Dimples, her cousin (Mr. Harry Clary); Miss Up-to-date (Robert Hesson); Charlie Lampost, frequenter of race tracks (Mr. Charlie Brown.) The defendant made a good witness in his own behalf, and was ably supported by his witnesses, John Bauernstein, wealthy brewer (Mr. John Stem); James Squires, Justice of the Peace from Pennslyvania (Mr. Edward Little); Harry Downs, all-round sport (Mr. Grant Yingling; Frank Brown, venerable dude (Mr. Cletus Little).

The case was tried before a jury and resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff for one cent damages.

A large crowd was present both nights, and another large gathering is looked for this evening, when a number of candidates will be initiated.

M. C. I. Notes.

The friends of Miss Emma Alger are sympathizing with her in her recent bereavement. A few days ago she received the sad intelligence of the death of her father. A disastrous fire consumed her home, and her father was caught by a burning portion of the house falling upon him. It was impossible to recover his body until he was almost completely cremated.

Mr F. A. Rahter returned to his home in Baltimore, Tuesday, after a week's visit at M. C. I.

The copy for the new catalog is now in the hands of the printers.

Miss Bertha Keeny spent Saturday and Sunday with her friend, Miss Anna Snader, of New Windsor.

President Wine and Professor Keltner made a business trip to Baltimore last Friday.

While at play, on the campus, Mr. Harry Holsinger had the sad misfortune to have his nose broken.

Miss Pauline Eppley has again resumed her work after an absence of two weeks on account of illness.

Professor Blair filled the appointment of the Church of the Brethren in Edge Wood, Sunday evening.

Mr. John Bowlus, a former student, will preach in the College chapel next Sunday evening.

On Friday evening, May 7, will occur the much expected Inter-Collegiate debate. The teams of M. C. I. and Bridgewater College, Bridgewater, Va., will discuss the question, Resolved that our Federal Government should establish a system of Parcel Post. There is no question, except that of the tariff, before Congress today which is of so much interest to the American people as this. All the debaters have given it a thorough investigation, and the public now has an opportunity to hear both sides. Reserved seats are being sold for 25 cents.

Mrs. Hannah Bunn.

Mrs. Hannah Bunn, wife of the late John Bunn, of Howard county, died at the home of her niece and adopted daughter, Mrs. David T. Barnes, near Woodbine, on Saturday, April 17, 1909. Mrs. Bunn was one of the oldest residents of Howard county, having almost completed her ninety-fifth year. Her death was due entirely to the infirmities of old age, and her end was calm and peaceful, a fitting climax to a long and well-spent life.

Mrs. Bunn's maiden name was Mills. She was born at Harper's Ferry, W. Va., where her father held a position in the United States Arsenal. In her 23rd year she was married to Alexander Scheffer, of Baltimore. Several years later Mr. Scheffer accepted a position with his brother-in-law, the late Tilbourne P. Kuhn, who was engaged in the ship building business in Guayaquil, Ecuador, and with his young wife embarked for South America. They went from Baltimore to Jamaica by sailing vessel, and thence by a small steamer to the Isthmus of Panama. Leaving the Isthmus by the Chagres River route, in the present Canal Zone, they reembarked on a Pacific coasting vessel and proceeded to their destination. In less than a year Mr. Scheffer suffered a stroke of paralysis, brought on by over-exertion in intense heat of that torrid climate. Rendered helpless by this affliction, Mr. Scheffer desired to be taken back to the States, and this wish his devoted wife resolved, if possible, to gratify. A return by the Panama route was, of course, out of the question. Passage was secured in a sailing vessel bound for Baltimore, round the Horn. After a tempestuous voyage of over four months, during which her husband was several times at the point of death, the plucky little woman arrived with her charge in Baltimore. Though he never recovered the use of his limbs, Mr. Scheffer lived seven years after their return. Several years after his death, the widow was married again to Mr. John Bunn. In 1864, Mr. Bunn and Mr. Kuhn, who had in the meantime returned from South America, formed a partnership and purchased a large tract of land in the upper part of Howard county. This tract, which was then "barren," is now one of the largest and finest farms in the county. About twenty years later Mr. Bunn retired from farming and purchased property in Lisbon. Since her husband's death, about twelve years ago, Mrs. Bunn has lived with Mrs. Barnes.

Mrs. Bunn was a woman of rare intelligence and up to a year or two preceding her death retained her mental powers to a remarkable degree. Her gifts as a conversationalist and her excellent memory covering such a long period of time, made her company a constant source of delight to her large circle of friends. Almost to the last she kept herself informed on current events and took a lively interest in everything which happened in the neighborhood. For a number of years she had been totally blind, but she endured her affliction with great courage and cheerfulness. Her patience and optimism made her an inspiration to those about her.

As gently and as tranquilly as a tired child falls to sleep at the close of day, she has passed from this world into the Great Beyond; unto Him, we trust, in whose presence there is fulness of joy, at whose right hand there are pleasures forevermore. In pace requiescat.

Patapsco Items.

While Mr. John Uhler, who had been at Union Bethel Church on Sunday night, 18th inst., was returning to his home he was struck by a buggy driven by Mr. Ray Taylor and fell to the ground. A wheel of the vehicle ran over his ankle, bruising it badly and he still has a sore ankle and foot.

While Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Taylor were on their way to visit Miss Jane Tanner, near Sandyville they met an auto on the turnpike and their horse became frightened. Mr. Taylor jumped out of his vehicle, but fell and the wagon ran across his breast injuring him severely.

Mr. Samuel Richards, while taking a load of hay from Mr. Ed. Sprenkle's to his place, slipped and fell under the saddle horse, injuring his right foot so badly that he is unable to put any weight upon it. He and Mr. Uhler are attended by Dr. H. M. Fitzhugh, of Westminster.

Bibb Mills, who gave an exposition of the Anti Saloon League and its work at Ebenezer, April 18th, was much pleased at the size of the congregation, the close attention given him and the collection and subscriptions given for the work of the league, which amounted to more than thirty-three dollars.

The remains of Mr. James A. Aldridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Aldridge, of Baltimore, were brought to Bethel Church of God on Saturday, 24th inst., where funeral services were held, Rev. Victor K. Betts preaching the sermon. The deceased was about 27 years of age and death was due to consumption. He was formerly of this county and leaves many friends to sympathize with the widow and family. Many handsome floral tributes were in evidence.

Mrs. Deborah Snider, who has been sick for a number of weeks is still, much complaining.

DIED.

In remembrance of my beloved husband and father, Wm. T. Lippy, who departed this life one year ago, April 28, 1908.

God gave me a husband as true as steel,
And Oh, how glad my heart did feel,
To see how noble and how grand
He would for right and justice stand.

By his Wife.

Bring back to us our father,
O would that this might be;
But father, we must wait awhile,
Before we meet with thee.

By his daughter and son-in law.
John Hyde.

Farewell, farewell, our father dear,
Life is sad without you here;
Oh may we meet in heaven above,
Where all is joy and peace and love.

By his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Barber.
