BIBLE AND FLAG

Presented to Eastview School by Washington Camp No. 68, P. O. S. of A., of Smallwood. Margie Schnabel and Evelyn Jones Raise the Flag.

An interesting occasion in the history of the Eastview public school was the presentation of a Bible and flag by Washington Camp No. 68, Patriotic Order Sons of America, of Smallwood, on Saturday last, 14th inst. A large crowd of patrons and friends of the school was present. The camp, with Mr. Chris. Schnabel acting as marshal, marched to the school house, where the pupils and friends were assembled.

Mr. George H. Caple, teacher of the school, conducted the program, which was carried out in a manner that reflected credit upon teacher and scholars. The following was the order of exercises by the school: Singing, "America;" invocation, Rev. W. L. Seabrook; address of welcome, Eurith Zentz; Speech, Lester Caple; recitation, "Moving," Hilda Mengel; recitation, "The Bluebirds" Willie Logue; recitation, "Laugh, and the World Laughs with You," Margie Schnabel; recitation, "The Pilgrim Fathers," Samuel Arnold; singing, "Our Country," by the school; reading, "The Best Decorations," Herman Green; recitation, "The Tendrils' Faith," Agnes Jones; recitation, "Rule Yourself," John Green; recitation, "The Flag at Apia," Willie Sipes; singing, "Come, Oh Come with Me;" recitation, "Mt. Vernon Bells," George Beard; recitation, "If I were a Sunbeam," Edith Harman; recitation, "Our Work," by the "Little Tots' Class;" recitation "Warblers and Perchers," Truman Beard; recitation, "Sixty Years Ago," Evelyn Jones; singing, "The Dearest Spot on Earth to Me;" recitation, "Farmer Boy's Song," Guy W. Zentz; recitation, "Catch the Sunshine," May Klee; recitation, "Be Polite," Sterling Caple; recitation, "Hurrah for Our Flag," Vernon Beard; recitation, "Lives Not Lost," Elsie Little; recitation, "Memory Gems," Jennie Harman; recitation, "A Troublesome Visitor," Ida Ward; recitation, "Dolly's Speech," Birdie Ward; recitation, "My Dog," Edith Harman and her dog; recitation, "Salute the Flag," Agnes Jones.

The flag drill by a number of the boys and the fan drill by the girls were especially attractive features of the program and called forth loud applause and many compliments to instructor and participants.

Two of the scholars, Margie Schnabel and Evelyn Jones, then came forward bearing the Bible and flag, and Mr. Seabrook as their representative, and the representative of Mr. I. H. Sayers, president of the camp, in the name of the order, made the address of presentation. Dr. S. Simpson, County Superintendent, with appropriate words, received the Bible and flag in the name of the school.

After singing "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," the school, members of the camp and friends gathered round the tall flag staff already prepared, and as all sang "Maryland, My Maryland," "Old Glory was run aloft by Margie Schnabel and Evelyn Jones.

The exercises terminated with the serving of refreshments, lemonade and delicious cake, prepared in the homes of the friends of the school.

Later in the afternoon and at night a festival was held and a social time enjoyed.

A GREAT SUCCESS.

The High School Entertainment Crowded House on Friday Night Repeated on Monday Night A Nice Sum Realized for the School Library.

The Westminster High School gave one of the most interesting and successful entertainments in its history on Friday night last, and the corps of teachers and pupils are to be congratulated. Odd Fellows' Hall was not only crowded, but overcrowded on Friday night. Possibly half as many as found room were turned away from the doors, and for their benefit and for the sake of those who desired to again witness the performance, it was necessary to repeat it on Monday night. While waiting for the raising of the curtain and between acts, the audience was kept in good humor by the delightful music of the Westminster Orchestra.

The entertainment was introduced by a pleasing chorus, "Summer Fancies," by the pupils of the High School. Clarence Stouch made the address of welcome, thanking the friends of the school for their interest and explaining that the proceeds of the entertainment would be used in further equipping the school library in the interest of the primary grades.

The cantata, "Strange Visitors or A Meeting of Nations," was an attractive prelude to other good things that followed. The chorus, Alice Wilhide, Louise Miller, Alice Clarke, Marie Stoner, Elizabeth Billingslea, Ara Stoner, Margaret Mackley, Gussie Spisler, Ora Turfle, Helen Fowble, Katie Bemiller, Edna Geiman, Nellie Royer, Helen and Gladys Hunter, as it sang of the coming of the representatives of various nations, aroused anticipations which were not disappointed, and as the strange visitors from far lands were introduced by the entertainers, Ruth Gist, Dorothy Regester, Emma Zahn, Martha Gernand, Robert Myerly, and "Billy" Worthington, they were enthusiastically greeted. With the exception of Japan and China, they came in couples, a boy and girl, clothed in the costume of the country representing and bearing that country's flag, singing their nation's glory and welcomed by the huzzas of the chorus. From England came John Everhart and Maude Eckenrode. Latimer Elderdice, in kilts, was a typical Highland laddie, and Dora Yingling, a bonnie Scotch lassie. Paul Smith and Ruth Bohn were genuine types of the byes and gurls from the land of the shamrock and shillalah. Richard Roop and Elizabeth Geiman were "too cute for anything" as they sang the Marseillaise and tripped a measure in honor of la belle France. Ralph Wellar and Derma Yeiser brought down the house as they sang of the "Vaterland," and Harold Roop and Margaret Hering from Italy, and Paul, Witmert and Elizabeth Little from Spain sang of sunny southern skies. Paul Stonesifer, sedate, and Mildred Smith, demure, even when making the old stage ring to "the clang o' the wooden shoon," representing Holland; Fred Smith and Dorthy McDaniel, brave and truehearted Swiss; Francis Keefer and Elizabeth Lewis, honest Swedes; George Bell and Helen Gehr, from the fiords of Norway; Emory Kauffman and Grace Stoner from the steppes of Russia, were welcomed with applause. When all these had left the stage John Schweigart, belated Chinaman, came and sang his song of "Washee—washee," to be followed by Anna Stoner, a sweet maid from Japan. The whole company then appeared in the closing chorus.

The young ladies and gentlemen who produced the three act comedy "Miss Fearless and Company" were very much at home before the footlights, and if any of them were afflicted with stage fright in the slightest degree, none of the spectators were aware of it. Miss Leona Burgoon, as Miss Margaret Henley, an heiress, and Misses Ruth Rover, Irene Kauffman and Elsie Gernand, as Misses Barbara Livingstone, Bettie Cameron and Marian Reynolds, her friends and guests, plotting independence of men-folks for a season, inveigling Miss Elsie Coppersmith, who as Katie O'Conner, Miss Henley's Irish maid, was inimitable, into signing the agreement to join Miss Fearless and Company and go for a sojourn on "Spook Island," not only recited their lines well, but acted them equally well. Miss Rose Miller, Miss Euphemia Addison, as Miss Margaret's aunt and chaperon, was the nervous spinster to perfection, and Miss Mildred Buckingham, as Miss Sarah Jane Lovejoy from the Lost Nation, also an old maid, awoke shouts of laughter and applause at every entrance upon the stage, as the dea ex machina, helping John Whitmore as Jack Eggleston, disguised as Miss Alibi, and James Crawford, as James Reading, disguised as Miss Alias, to carry out their plot of reaching the island and winning their way into the presence and into the hearts of the girls they loved. Mary Weagley, as "Just Lizzie," the ghost, was especially good in her conception and portrayal of the character she represented.

For the Sentinel.

West End School.

Arbor Day was celebrated in an appropriate manner at the West End School, Westminster, by the rendition of the following program:

Singing "Wee, Wees," school; exercise, The Butterflies, six girls; The Trees, six boys; The Blossoms, three girls; solo, "Where they Grow," Grace Lippy; exercise, "Trees I'll Plant," four boys; Arbor Day Acrostic; song, "Peeping through the Snow," school; exercise, The Flowers' Helpers, ten boys; motion song, "Pop Corn," by chart classes; recitation, Elgin Miller; The Tiny Trees, six boys; song, April Showers, school; Mother Goose Children in Spring Time; dialogue, Two Kinds of Fun; "The Bulb and the Seed," three girls; The Crocus Bells, motion song; recitation, "Who?" three girls; recitation, "Three Little Blossoms," three girls; exercise, with song, "Dainty Little Daisies," six girls; recitation, Albert Zentgraft; song, Ship Ahoy, school; round, "Row Your Boat;" a short talk on Arbor Day, Mrs. Belt; song, America, school.

Both teachers and pupils manifested great interest in Arbor Day, and the parents and friends also showed their interest by being present to enjoy the treat which was in store for them.

Patrons encourage your teachers and children by attending their special exercises. None but a teacher can tell how much enthusiasm is added when children know that father or mother will be with them and share their pleasures.

During the morning session, a tree was planted and named "Miss Price," in honor of the primary teacher. Mrs. Sellman and Miss Price deserve great credit for the careful training of the children. The children too deserve praise for the manner in which they acquitted themselves.

Scientific stock raisers are taking a great interest in the Fairfield's Blood Tonics because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal, each specifically compounded to meet the peculiar requirements of the animal for which intended. Sold under written Guarantee by the W. H. Davis Co., Westminster, and Geo. W. Yeiser, Union Mills.

"Hairbreadth Harry" in Africa.

Notwithstanding Mr. Roosevelt's order that no one except his party should go with him to Africa, "Hairbreadth Harry" proves to be an exception, and positively without fail enters the wildest wilds of Dark Africa, alone, unaided and single-handed, and without help, hunts the monsters of the jungle in their lairs.

The children will find great enjoyment in this new "Hairbreadth Harry" series of comics. Grown-up people will split their sides laughing and everybody will want to read these wonderful exploits told exclusively in THE PHILADELPHIA SUNDAY PRESS.

Follow the great series from Sunday to Sunday through the African jungle with "Teddy" and "Hairbreadth Harry." Order from your dealer or write "The Philadelphia Press."

The Dairyman's profits depend upon the Full Milk Pail and the amount of butter-fats the milk contains. Both these important items are assured by the regular use of Fairfield's Blood Tonic and Milk Producer for Cattle Only. It purifies the blood, increases and enriches the milk and removes all garlic taste. Sold under written Guarantee by the W. H. Davis Co., Westminster, and Geo. W. Yeiser, Union Mills.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings that no Westminster Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, illsmelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease.

Levi T. Frizzell, E. Main St., Westminster, Md., says: "I had been troubled with my kidneys for several years and could not get relief until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Chas. W. Moore's drug store. The secretions from my kidneys were too profuse, contained a sediment at times and gave me much annoyance. I was often troubled with a dull naggring ache through my kidneys and across the small of my back. I realized that all my suffering arose from disordered kidneys and reading about Doan's Kidney Pills, I began their use. They gave me speedy relief and I feel so much better now that I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. my 14 2t

A well conditioned draft horse is estimated to be worth 25 cents per pound in the market. The regular use of Fairfield's Blood Tonic for Horses Only will add many pounds of firm flesh to your horse, free him of worms and keep him in the best of health. Sold under written Guarantee by the W. H. Davis Co., Westminster, and Geo. W. Yeiser, Union Mills.

STRANGE HAPPENINGS.

Twelve hours before he was crushed to death beneath his overturned automobile the rumor spread through Salinas, Cal., that Percy Morse, young seed grower had been killed on the road between there and Watsonville. Morse was found, fatally hurt, beneath his wrecked machine, but in the meantime he had driven into town to disprove the rumor. After going about for some time to show his friends that he was really alive he departed alone in the car for Watsonville, and a few hours later he was found dying.

"I am burned badly and am blind," was the message which was ticked slowly into the office of the dispatchers on the Panhandle railroad from G. E. Frazel, operator in the tower at Evans, near Marion, Ind. The dispatcher immediately ordered freight train No. 76 to stop at Evans. The locomotive was cut off and Frazel was rushed to Marion, where he could receive care. He had been warming a bottle of coffee over the stove in the tower, and just as he was leaning over the bottle exploded, burning his face and probably destroying his eyesight. When the trainmen found him he was unable to see and had picked his way to the telegraph key by hearing the instrument's click.

FEED FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONICS

A SEPARATE PREPARATION FOR HORSE, COW, HOG AND POULTRY

GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIERS

THE working capacity of any horse can be practically doubled by feeding FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC for HORSES regularly. It exterminates worms, builds up the health and saves feed. The farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and expected to reap a crop of wheat, oats and corn from the same, would be no more foolish than the man who feeds his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of Condition Powder and expects to get results. The intelligent farmer feeds FAIRFIELD'S, because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal.
