MEMORIAL DAY.

Year by year the ranks grow thinner,
year by year the steps more slow of that great army, many of whose comrades, to use the immortal words of "Stonewall" Jackson, have "crossed the river and rest beneath the shade of the trees." But with them march the men of the new generation and the children who will be the men and women of the future. Who they are and what they did will never be forgotten. With each returning new birth of the year, as springing grass and budding flowers cover the earth with beauty and speak of enduring life, their countrymen gather to plant the flag upon every mound where sleep, the soldier dead, to cover their graves with blossoms, and assure the living that they will be held in immortal remembrance.

"On fame's eternal camping ground
Their silent tents are spread,
While glory guards with solemn round
The bivouac of the dead."

Tribute of Respect.

In the death of Mrs. Fanny Pearson our town has lost a very beloved lady. Her life has been exemplary. She has always been kind to the sick and she will be missed by all. Where there was sickness it was she and her sister, Miss Mary B. Shellman, who always responded, and satisfied the desires of the unfortunate ones.

She will be missed by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, as she always had a word of cheer to those in trouble. It can be said her life was that of a Christian, and "she hath done what she could."

Respectfully,
GITHA MILLER.

PATRON.

Sunday School Convention.

The Sunday School convention of the First District of Carroll county, comprising Hampstead, Manchester, Myers and Uniontown districts, was held in the Bachman's Union Church in Bachman's Valley, Tuesday afternoon and evening, 25th inst.

The theme of the convention was "Building for the Future." In the absence of the district president, Mr. Jesse P. Garner, the county president, Mr. G. W. Yeiser presided.

Mr. Chas. Dorsey, president of the Md. S. S. Association, gave an interesting address on "Responsibilties of the Sunday School," while Mr. Thompson, the association's field worker, dwelt on the need of more efficient teachers and now to secure them. He solved the quetiosn by having those in the S. S. whose hearts are filled with the love of God study the Bible training course now recommended by the State Association Thre are a number of graduates in the county, and a class of seventeen reported in Manchester.

Mr. G. W. Yeiser, with force and earnestness, presented "Our Aim," and with the aid of a map prepared for the occasion, located all schools sending reports. Delegates from sixteen schools were represented.

An impromptu but heart to heart talk by Dr. T. S. Land, of Manchester; music and benediction closed the afternoon session.

The evening devotional was conducted by Mr. Geo. K. Mather, of Westminster, president 2nd district. A very excellent address, "What is that in thy hand," by Rev. J. W. Long. Everyone he said has in the hand some influence, opportunity, ability, the Word of God, which is the Sword of the Spirit. Use what you have and generations will in time rise up to call you blessed. Rev. S. C. Hoover, of Silver Run, gave an earnest and instructive address on graduating from he Sunday School. He said, in part, our graduating is our commencement into larger ways of living. The length of term in God's great school is three score years and ten; the text book the Word of God; the commencement day when the eyelids close in death and the spirit enters another world.

Reports of committees were made and the election of officers which resulted as follows, followed: Pres. Rev. S. C. Hoover; vice-pres., Rev. J. W. Long; secretary-treasurer, Miss S. G. Masenheimer.

Closing remarks were made and with the doxology and benediction the convention adjourned.
