SIDE TWO

Mrs Ann C Morris
Ivy Neck
West River
Maryland

It must be obstructed as there had been a miniature Niagara pouring over the eaves in front of their window. I hope you are all well and happy at Galloways and that Ida will meet you at my house on Friday I took her with Emily on Saturday my uncle and obliged to leave shortly after. She had a visit from Martha and had informed her of her purpose of coming here so that it will now be known generally.

After breakfast
Dr. has just come in. He says the man who he proposed to pound her at Annapolis cannot accept his proposition He has no other plan in prospect

Galloway has just come in to breakfast Emily will tell Ida and love to dear Mary & thought the Clayton
