LOCAL ITEMS.

Work on the new railroad freight building in this city is progressing rapidly.

The canning factories of the B. F. Shriver Company are packng peas this week.

The tents of Sparks' circus will be pitched on John street, this city, on Tuesday next.

The teachers of the public schools of this county were paid their salaries for the last term on Monday.

Mr. Jos. L. Franklin has been awarded the contract to sprinkle the streets of this city, for the ensuing year.

Dr. M. L. Bott has had his residence on West Main street, this city, repainted by Messrs. Haifley Brothers.

Mr. Granville Lippy and his employees are repainting the wood-work of the First National Bank, this city.

Rev. Dr. Lewis will deliver the address to the graduates at the Thurmont High School commencement next week.

Monday, 21st inst., will be the longest day of the year, the sun rising at 4.34 and setting at 7.26 according to almanac time.

Some new pavements and concrete gutters are being made on West Main street, between John and Carroll streets, this city.

Mr. Robt. T. Shriver, a son of Hon. T. Herbert Shriver, of Union Mills, has taken a position with the Westminster Deposit and Trust Company.

Mr. M. W. Babylon, of Baltimore, has purchased the green grocery and provision business of Mr. Wm. Arthur, West Main street, this city.

A thunderstorm, with heavy rain, passed over this city yesterday afternoon, flooding the streets and overflowing some of the sewers.

By the quarterly distribution of the State school tax, announced by Comptroller Hering on Wednesday, Carroll county received $10,428.21.

During the summer months Westminster Lodge No. 41, I. O. M., Charity Lodge No. 58, K. of P., and Patapsco Tribe, I. O. R. M., of this city, will only meet bi-weekly.

Mr. David J. Witter, of 84 Pennsylvania avenue, this city, has sold from his pigeon loft $320.00 worth of breeders in the last three weeks and expects to raise a better flock soon.

Mr. George W. Albaugh has completed the remodeling of the old Longwell mansion, adding all modern improvements, and moved into it on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Mr. Ephraim Price, of this city, father of Mr. Abraham Price, who, with his wife, recently went to Baltimore on a visit, was taken sick and has been quite ill but is in an improved condition. He is in his 82nd year.

Capt. Weigle, of Co. H, requests that persons having saddle horses that they will hire during the military encampment in this city, will notify him, as numerous inquiries for mounts are being made by staff officers.

Mr. Chas. Sellman, an employee of Messrs. Doyle & Magee, of this city, in repairing a binder had the second finger of his left hand caught by a spring and cut severely. Dr. L. K. Woodward dressed his injuries.

The regular communications of Door to Virtue Lodge have been discontinued for the summer. At last night's communication ice cream and cake was served, followed with cigars by those who indulge in a smoke.

A carrier pigeon stopped at the home of Mr. Edward F. Huff, on Carroll street, this city, last week and was easily caught. Subsequently it was released, but remained on the premises. A band on one of its legs bears the number 19,800 and the initials S. A.

Mr. Harry Young has left at this office a bunch of alfalfa, grown on his farm, which measures 4 feet 7 inches in height. It is a strong, healthy sample of the plant and shows how large a quantity of it can be produced on soil suited to its growth.

Some cherry trees in this county are bearing an abundant crop, while others have but little. The general yield is probably below the average, but considerable quantities are being canned at the factory of Messrs. Smith, Yingling & Co., in this city.

Some apprehension has been expressed that the frequent and prolonged rains of the last few weeks might have damaged the growing wheat, but it is now said that such damage will be slight and that present conditions are favorable for a large crop.

The B. F. Shriver Co. has remodelled its building on Liberty street, recently damaged by fire. The building is equipped with all modern conveniences and on the first floor, a fine suit of offices finished in oak, with glass partitions, has been fitted up.

Misses Alice E. Houck, of Frederick, and Bessie R. Clemson, of Union Bridge, were guests of the latter's brother, Chas. O. Clemson, Esq., Wednesday and Thursday, and attended the College Commencement exercises and the College Boys' dance at night at the Armory.

The suit of Aggie M. Morelock vs. B. F. Crouse, executor of Henrietta Crouse, deceased, tried at Towson, on Wednesday, resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff for $240. Messrs. Stocksdale and T. Scott Offutt, for plaintiff; Messrs. Steele and Z. Howard Isaac for defendant.

Among the incidents of the celebration of the feast of Corpus Christi, at St. John's Catholic Church, this city, was a procession of the children, who were dressed in white and carried flowers, from the parochial school building to the church. It was a pleasant and interesting scene.

Messrs. Lockard & Son, of this city, have recently made delivery of the following automobiles: To Mr. W. Frank Myers, Cameron feather-weight flyer; Messrs. Cover & Son, L. D. Maxwell; Mr. Clarence Stoner, Maxwell, model A. Messrs. Lockard & Son have several more orders for cars.

Farmers took advantage of the clear days this week to get very busy plowing their corn, in which grass and weeds were making rapid growth. Barley harvest is also at hand and the crop is said to be excellent. One farmer informed us a few days ago that he had already harvested the best he had ever grown.

Mr. Joseph B. Boyle is having work for the new building, in which the postoffice of this city is to be located, pushed with all possible expedition. The building which occupied the site was razed by the close of last week and, while additional excavation is being made, masons are at work laying the foundation walls.

Mr. Joseph L. Mathias, who is turning out some beautiful monuments and memorial stones at his marble yards in this city, has thrown across the side walk at his place of business a very attractive sign, bearing in large aluminum letters, which can be seen by night as well as by day, his name and the words, "Marble and Granite Works."

An effort is being made by several gentlemen in this city to establish a passenger automobile line between Littlestown, Pa., and Reisterstown, and a canvass is being made to procure subscriptions to stock of a company to be incorporated for that purpose. The project, it is said, meets with favor. Such an enterprise would be a great convenience to citizens along the route, which, of course, would be through this city.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Public Utilities Company, calling on consumers to sign application for the use of water at the office of the company, prior to July 1st.

The college students "Commencement Dance" at the Armory, on Wednesday night, was a great success. There was, perhaps, a larger number present than on any similar occasion.

39th Commencement Western Maryland College.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

The Alumni Association met on Tuesday afternoon and reelected the following officers:

President, B. Frank Crouse, of Westminster; Baltimore vice-president L. I. Pollitt; Eastern Shore vice-president, Milton L. Veasey, of Pocomoke City; Western Shore vice-president, Mrs. Florence E. Stoner, of Frederick; New York vice-president, Dr. H. G. Watson; Washington vice-president, J. Dawson Williams; secretary, Miss M. L. Shriver, of Westminster; treasurer, Prof. William R. McDaniel, of Westminster; editors, T. R. Woodford, of Baltimore, and Miss I. J. Simpson, of Westminster.

The chief business transacted was in connection with the report of the committee on the alumni fund of $10,000. Mr. William Baker reported for the committee that $7,800 had been subscribed, and that a group of gentlemen were prepared to guarantee $1100 more, if those present would subscribe the balance needed to make up the sum of $10,000. The offer was promptly accepted, and in a few minutes the additional sum of $1100 was subscribed, and the full amount provided for.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

At the meeting of the board of trustees it was reported that the endowment campaign, which had been conducted by President Lewis, had been successfully completed, and the full sum of $50,000 raised. It was resolved to inaugurate a campaign for the raising of an endowment of $250,000.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 16.

COMMENCEMENT DAY.

Commencement day was exceptionally bright and pleasant and the exercises were attended by a large number of people. All the attendant circumstances made it the most successful commencement in the forty-two years of the existence of the college. The class graduates was the largest in its history; the splendid new library building had been added to the many fine structures on the college grounds; the institution has reached a period when it is on a solid foundation, with the assurance of a great and prosperous future. Its friends look forward with no doubt that it will have a great career in years to come, and the students are enthusiastic over its present standing and condition.

The following graduates received the degree of Bachelor of Arts: Graduates—Albert Buckner Coe, Oxford; James Ezra Fleagle, Baltimore; Fletcher Hanks, Violettsville; Frank Trump Herr, Westminster; Alfred Lee Jones, Brooklyn; Luther Reynolds Longfield, Oxford; Woodward Warwick Marcus, Atlantic City, N. Honorary degrees: Doctor of Divinity, Rev. John M. Holmes, Alexandria, Va.; Master of Arts, Margaret M. Robinson, preceptress Western Maryland College; Sarah E. Richmond, principal Maryland State Normal School.

Gets One Mile!

The Good Roads Commission at its meeting yesterday ordered the construction of one mile of road from Westminster toward Manchester under the supervision of Engineer Crosby.

Grace Lutheran Church.

Preaching by the pastor, 10.30 a. m. and 7.45 p. m., moring subject, "The Word of God our only Rule of Life," evening subject, "What if God were Silent?" Sunday School and Adult Bible class 9 a. m. Y. P. S. C. E. 7 p. m.

Broke the Record.

The SENTINEL last week published the result of the races at Cambridge: first for Westminster in hook and ladder, and second in both reel races. In the hook and ladder, Mr. L. Reynolds Longfield scaled the ladder in less than two seconds, so quickly that the spectators could not see him touch the rounds. Time 32½ seconds, beating the State record of 34 seconds.

In one reel race the boys would have had first place but for the fact that they were deceived by the land-marks and pulled off the hose 25 feet too soon. In the other they lost by only one fourth of a second.

Wakefield Items.

Mr. I. N. Stoner is busy at present picking his strawberries, but his crop is not as large as was expected.

Mrs. Granville G. Bixler is on the sick list.

Some of our farmers are cutting their barley and making hay, while others are plowing their corn.

A couple of our young men drove to Gettysburg on Sunday and report having had a fine time.

Mr. Raymond Richardson, who has been confined to his bed for several weeks, is able to be out again.

Mrs. R. F. Zentz, of Westminster, was the guest of Mrs. J. F. Babylon and Mrs. George Hoover, on Sunday.

Children's services at the Brick M. P. Church at this place, Sunday, June 27th, at 10.30. Everybody welcome.

Pleasant Callers.

Mr. Herman H. Flick, Jr., superintendent of the boys at the Maryland School for the Deaf, Frederick, with the following members of the team that crossed bats with the Westminster boys last Saturday, were very welcome callers at the SENTINEL office in the morning: H. G. Benson, 1st b; B. L. Zimmerman, p; M. J. Boyle, ss; Wm F. Miller, rf; James B. Foxwell, lf; and H. O. Nicol, sub. Mr. Flick, who is the manager of the team, is a son of Rev. H. H. Flick, of Manchester. Mr. Benson is foreman of the Maryland Bulletin, the journal published at the School for the Deaf, which is always interesting. These young gentlemen are worthy representatives of this splendid school, and made many friends while here, and among the local fans there was no regret that they succeeded in scoring in the ninth inning of Saturday afternoon's game.

Collectors Appointed—Taxes Levied

At their meeting on Monday the County Commissioners appointed tax collectors for all the districts, except Freedom, and levied the taxes for the fiscal year. All last year's collectors were reappointed except the collector for Freedom district, as stated, who expressed a desire to retire. Those for the other districts are:

Taneytown—Edward F. Smith.
Uniontown—Ezra C. Caylor.
Myers'—C. E. Baumgartner.
Woolery's—John G. Hoffman.
Manchester—Jacob Rupp.
Westminster—Charles V. Wantz.
Hampstead—Isadore F. Stricklin.
Franklin—George E. Wright.
Middleburg—Wilson L. Crouse.
New Windsor—John C. Buckey.
Union Bridge—George P. Buckey.
Mt. Airy—Charles E. Smith.

The levy of taxes was: For state purposes, 16 cents in $100; and for county purposes 60 cents in $100, divided as follows: For public schools, 20 cents; court and magistrates, 12 cents; alms house, 7 cents; large bridges and main roads 9 cents; roads, 12 cents; miscellaneous, the income from bonds, corporations and mortgages.

A Pleasant Reunion.

Among the many pleasant incidents of commencement week none, perhaps, was more interesting than a renunion of five members of the class graduated in '89. They were: Dr. H. G. Watson, of New York: Messrs. L. Irving Pollitt and W. McA. Lease, of Baltimore; Mrs. Fannie Stover, nee Miss Grove, of Hagerstown, and Mrs. Harriet Woodward, nee Miss Walmsley, of Glenburnie. Dr. Watson and Messrs. Pollitt and Lease were accompanied by their wives. They banqueted at the Hotel Main-Court. It was the first time in 20 years these graduates of '89 had met together. In commemoration of its 20th anniversary the class issued an artistic souvenir booklet, a beautiful specimen of the printer's art, containing halftone portraits of Rev. Dr. J. T. Ward, who was president of the college, while this class was in the institution; Rev. Dr. Lewis, Rev. Dr. James W. Reese and Dr. McDaniel, the "Old Guard," the only members of the faculty, who were such in the school days of the class; members of the class and their wives and husbands; and, in some cases, of their children; with brief biographies and a short sketch of the history of the college from 1885 to 1909 by Dr. Lewis.

All the members of the class were originally Marylanders, but circumstances and business have scattered the class widely. Mr. Wm. M. Weller, whose grandfather, Francis Shriver, was a lifelong resident of this city, became a civil engineer and has had an interesting career, not the least part of which was his four year's stay in India, Burma and Roumania as the constructing engineer in those countries for the Standard Oil Company. For a number of years he was located in Ohio and Pennsylvania; then in Texas, and is now in charge of the Standard Oil interests in California.

Mr. Pollitt, the president of the class, who was the host at the banquet or special luncheon on Tuesday, lived in the South a number of years after graduation. He is now president of the Baltimore Utilities Company. During his college life he took much interest in Westminster affairs and was for a time president of a social club, "The Literary Circle," which will be remembered by many Westminster people of that period.

Dr. Watson will be remembered here also, as he was a member of the college faculty for several years, as was Prof. J. B. Whaley, who died in 1894 and was buried in Westminster Cemetery.

Mr. T. E. Reese, whose tragic death will be recalled, was a member of the class, and its historian.

The flowers and decorations at the banquet at the Hotel Main-Court, on Tuesday, were donated by Miss Mary B. Shellman, a warm friend of the class.

THE FATAL SEVENTH.

THE UNEXPECTED HAPPENS.

Westminster's Bad Slump in the Seventh Gives the Game to Frederick by the Score of 5-1.

Of course the result of Wednesday's game was a disappointment to local fans. Six hard innings, and the score 1—0. Great, you bet it was great! With visions of victory and a possible shut out in sight, the unexpected happened, as it often does on the diamond. Here is one place where chickens are not to be counted until they are out of the shell. The game isn't over until the last man is down. An unfortunate and unpreventable accident in a decision of the umpire in the seventh inning (see story of innings for particulars) gave the visitors their chance. By it they were elated and the home bunch correspondingly depressed. Several failures to give him good support affected Wege, and a slight letting down on his part reacted on the team. The story of the innings and the box score and summary record some great individual playing on both sides, and the sad fact that Dooley made three errors, for which the fellow, who stole his well broken in glove, is largely responsible. Well, turn about is fair play, and Frederick has its revenge for defeat in the opening game, now it is up to the Westminster boys to win back their laurels when they go to Frederick next Monday. Do it, of course they will. Frederick has a hard bunch to beat, and the fans in the city in the valley will see some great ball next week.

STORY OF THE GAME.

FIRST INNING—Frederick: Sellman to Dooley, out at first; Sheridan to Ashmore, out; Gettinger hit, but Coggins to Haley, out at first. No runs.

Westminster: Ahsmore led off with safe bunt hit. Bonthron sacrifice bunt to pitcher put Ashmore on second. Dooley sent his to Sellman at third, and Ashmore caught. Sheridan got Spencer's fly. No runs.

SECOND INNING—Frederick: Gibson got Malone's foul fly. Sparrow and Fanwell struck out. No runs.

Westminster: Gibson led off with a hit to center. Truman Smith's strike out was a genuine sacrifice. Tom Smith walked. Johnson hit Haley in the head with a pitched ball, filling the bases. Wege batted to Coggins, playing close in, and expecting him to throw to first failed to run, but Coggins put ball home and caught Gibson, notwithstanding latter's great try to get in. Side out. No runs.

THIRD INNING—Frederick: Creager struck out. Johnson hit right center; Truman Smith made heroic effort to reach it but the run was too far. Wege got Sellman's grounder and gave Dooley a chance to stop Johnson at second, but he missed it. Tom Smith by a great pick-up prevented Sheridan's hit becoming a two-bagger, and a fine throw to Wege, who put it to third got Johnson. Spencer gathered in Gettinger's fly. No runs.

Westminster: Ashmore went to first on balls. Bonthron sacrificed himself again. Dooley went out from Johnson to first, and Spencer followed suit, leaving Ashmore on third. No runs.

FOURTH INNING—Frederick: Coggins fanned. Malone gave Dooley a chance, error put him on first. Spencer got Sparrow's fly. Fanwell struck out. No runs.

Westminser: Gibson again found the ball and reached first on Sparrow's error. Truman Smith went out from Sellman to first. Sheridan got Tom Smith's fly. Haley made a fine hit to left, and Gibby took big chances running like a quarter horse, and by a desperate slide scored, while the crowd went wild. Wege again sent the ball to Coggins and was thrown out at first. One run.

FIFTH INNING—Frederick: Creager struck out. Bonthron threw Johnson out to Ashmore, and got Sellman's fly.

Westminster: Ashmore by a scratch hit and a great slide reached first and stole second. Bonthron for the third time sacrificed himself and advanced Ashmore. Sparrow got Dooley's fly, and threw Spencer out at first, leaving Ashmore again on third. No runs.

SIXTH INNING—Frederick: Sheridan to Bonthron, out at first. Gettinger gave Dooley another chance, but he foozled, and the runner reached first. Tom Smith made a star catch of Coggins' fly. Malone drove the ball into the air high and far into the left, but Spencer was on to his job and running backward got under it in time. No runs.

Westminster: Sellman got Gibson's short fly. Sparrow threw Truman Smith out at first. Sellman got Tom Smith's line fly. No runs.

THE FATAL SEVENTH—Frederick: Sparrow went down by way of Wege to Ashmore. Fanwell got a hit, just too high for Dooley. (Just here occurred the fatal incident. Wege threw the ball to Ashmore and caught Fanwell playing off first. The runner was undoubtedly out, but the umpire called him safe. There was however, no kick coming to McAtee, for he could not do otherwise. His attention had been called to Frederick's coach too close to third base, and he was watching him and did not see the quick throw of Wege to Ashmore.) Creager made a great drive to left center, and Tom Smith a fine run to head him off, but could not reach it. Wege got Johnson's drive and put it to third to head off Fanwell, but the throw was too low, and though Haley got it off the ground it was too late. Sellman reached first and Fanwell scored on Bonthron's failure to field a red hot grounder. Sheridan drove the ball far into the left. Spencer was there and fielded in a hurry, making a fine throw, but too late to head off Creager and Johnson, who scored. (Jenkins goes into the box.) Gettinger went out to Ashmore, but Sellman scored. Sheridan came in on Jenkins' wild pitch. Truman Smith by a great run got Coggins' fly and ended the agony. Five runs.

Westminster: Sparrow's sprint to back of first got Haley's fly. Jenkins struck out. Ashmore went down on a fly to Fanwell. No runs.

EIGHTH INNING—Frederick: Malone made a hit. Sparrow bunted; Gibson headed him off to Bonthron playing first, and the later put it to Haley, catching Malone. Fanwell sent a hot one to Haley, who made a fine stop and a star throw but too late to save the hit. Ashmore got Creager's fly. No runs.

Westminster: Bonthron was hit with pitched ball. Dooley went out from Coggins to first. Spencer walked. Gettinger got Gibson's fly and threw to second, catching Bonthron. No runs.

NINTH INNING—Frederick: With Spencer at short and Barnhart in left, Johnson struck out, and Sellman fanned. Spencer got Sheridan's fly. No runs.

Westminster: Truman Smith reached first on Sellman's error. Tom Smith found the ball but Malone fielded it to second catching Truman Smith. Tom Smith tried to steal, but Creager threw him down at second. Haley was again hit by pitched ball. Jenkins struck out. No runs.

Westminster—6; Md. School for the Deaf—3.

Westminster broke the steady record of victory for the Maryland School for the Deaf on Saturday, last, by the score of 6—3. It was the first defeat of the Frederck boys in fifteen games.

Notwithstanding the fact that their strength was supplemented by the wellknow players, the two Le Gores, of Frederick county, and Duvall, formerly of Mercersburg Academy's crack team, it was seen early in the game that they were outclassed by the locals, and for eight innings it looked like a shut out, as the visitors did not score until the ninth inning, when Ashmore had compassion on them and held J. Le Gore's bunt a second too long before starting with it for first. Wege, who was well supported, had an easy time of it, but just to show what he could do, in the third inning, fanned the only three men, who faced him, allowing only one of them to touch the ball, and that for a foul.

Westminster scored in five innings. In the 3rd inning. Haley made a hit. Foxwell's error gave him third. Truman Smith sent a liner over Boyle's head, but by a fine effort he gathered it in. Wege walked to first, and gained second. Ashmore's sacrifice bunt brought Haley home and advanced Wege to third. Dunsife got Gibson's grounder but made a bad throw to Benson, and Wege came home. Dooley went out by way of Boyle to Benson. In the 4th inning Spencer's hit put him on first McGarvey bunted and reached first on Zimmerman's error. Tom Smith sent the ball to H. Le Gore, who put it to Boyle on second and caught McGarvey. Boyle overthrew third trying to catch Spencer, and the latter raced home, while Smith reached second. Smith stole third and tried to steal home, but was caught. Haley went out by way of Zimmerman to Benson.

In the 5th inning Foxwell by a great catch robbed Truman Smith of a hit. Wege connected, but broke the willow, and Boyle threw him out at first. Ashmore made a slow safe bunt and beat the ball to first, reached second on Duvall's passed ball and made great steal to third. Gibson reached second on LeGore's error and Ashmore scored. Dooley rapped the horse hide and gets a hit to his credit, but LeGore made a great throw and caught Gibson who tried to score. In the 7th Duvall got Haley's fly. Truman Smith made a fine hit, and reached second on Foxwell's error. Wege's fine hit was countered by a great stop for H. LeGore on second, but not in time to head him off at first. Smith was thus advanced to third. Ashmore's fly to Miller was a genuine sacrifice, and Smith came home. Zimmerman got Gibson and threw him out to Benson. In the 8th Dooley made a hit that looked like a two bagger and he tried for it, but Foxwell's magnificent throw got him at second. Spencer got a clean three-bagger, and McGarvey's hit brought him home. H. Le Gore made a star catch and gathered in Tom Smith's fly.

The visitors scored three times in the ninth inning. J. Le Gore bunted. Ashmore did not get it to the first in time. Dunsife and H. Le Gore made safe bunts, and scored J. Le Gore. Tom Smith got Boyle's fly. Benson's hit brought Dunsife and H. Le Gore home. Duvall struck out. Zimmerman sent the ball to Spencer, who caught Benson at second.

WEDDING BELLS.

Lindsay—Ensor.

Bethel Methodist Episcopal Church, Sam's Creek, this county, was on Wednesday afternoon the scene of a beautiful wedding, of exceptional interest, when Miss Lilly A. Ensor, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Ensor, of Oak Orchard, Frederick county, formerly of Baltimore county, was married to Mr. Adam Lindsay, of New Windsor, grandson of the late Ephraim Lindsay, of this city.

The church, made lovely with flowers and ferns, was filled with friends of the bride and groom, who, attended by Messrs. Harry Lindsay, of Pittsburg, Pa., brother of the groom; and Willard Dance, of Philadelphia, Pa., cousin of the bride, ushers; and Mrs. Bettie Sundergill, of Unionville, sister of the bride, maid of honor, entered the church to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Maggie Stem. The wedding gown of the bride was of white Kishi silk, and that of the maid of honor of pink Kishi silk. Each carried a shower boquet of brides roses, the former of white and the latter of pink.

The bridal party was met at the chancel by Rev. John T. Ensor, pastor of the Madison Square M. E. Church, Baltimore, cousin of the bride, who impressively performed the marriage ceremony with the beautiful ring service. The ceremony was of peculiar interest in that Miss Lilly is the fifth child of Mr. and Mrs. Ensor married by the officiating clergyman, who had also performed like service for her two sisters and two brothers.

After the ceremony the bridal party and wedding guests drove to the home of the bride's parents, at Oak Orchard, where a reception was held and a delightful luncheon served. The wedding presents, of cut glass, silver, linen, etc., were numerous, handsome and valuable. After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay took the train at New Windsor for a wedding trip to Atlantic City and other places, after which they will reside in New Windsor, where the groom is a popular young business man. The bride's going away gown was of natural pongee silk, with hat and gloves to match.

Among the guests present from abroad were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ensor, and Mrs. Jeffries, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott Dance, of Dulaney's Valley; Mrs. Fanny Smith and Miss Rebecca Smith, of Glencoe; Mrs. Bird, Dakotah; Miss Catharine Yerda, Brownsville, W Va.; Messrs. and Madames E. J. Stouffer, Walter Barnes, Joshua Smith, George Englar, Edgar Nusbaum, Wm. Gorsuch, Harry Devilbiss, Walter Englar, David E. Stem, Jos. T. Stem, Joseph Roberts, Mrs. R. Smith Snader, Elder and Mrs. Daniel Englar, Elder and Mrs. Samuel Englar, and the Misses Diehlman, New Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hamaker, and Wilber Hamaker, Libertytown; Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Sundergill, Stanley Sundergill, Albert Dudrer, Messrs. and Madames E. Clarence Ensor, S. C. Ensor, and John Baker, Unionville; Messrs. and Madames Reuben Saylor, Daniel Wolfe, and Misses Sarah, Grace, Nan and Bessie Wolfe, Union Bridge; Messrs. and Madames Edward Stem, and Aubrey J. Stem, Winfield; Judge W. Y. Frizzell, Bloom; and Mr. and Mrs. James Trayer, and daughter Virginia, of this city. Mrs. Trayer is a sister of the bride.

Reed—Brown.

Miss Elsie G. Brown, daughter of County Commissioner Geo. W. Brown, and Mr. George Reed, of Greenmount, were married last night, June 17th, at the parsonage of Salem Lutheran pastorate, this city, by Rev. R. W. Doty. The bride wore a wedding gown of white batiste, trimmed with valenciennes lace, with hat to match, and the groom the usual black. They will reside at Greenmount, where the groom, who is a well known builder, is erecting a new house, which will be their home.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

Uriah Morelock.

Mr. Uriah Morelock, who moved from near Silver Run to Adams county, Pa., some years ago, died at his home, near Bart's school house, that county, on Thursday of last week, aged about 68 years. His funeral took place on Monday and the interment was at Silver Run. He is survived by his wife, one son, Edward, near Hanover; and one daughter, Mrs. John Sohl, of Lancaster, Pa.

Peter Liedlich.

Mr. Peter Liedlich, upwards of thirty years ago a resident of this city, died at his home in Baltimore last week, of consumption, after an illness of a year or more. While residing in this city Mr. Liedlich was engaged in the manufacture of cigars on West Main street. He leaves his wife and three adult children. He was a member of the Order of Heptasophs, in which he carried a policy of insurance for $1000.

David C. Baile.

Mr. David C. Baile, a life long resident of the vicinity of Warfieldsburg, died at his home on Friday afternoon last, after an illness of about three months of dropsy and heart trouble, aged 76 years, 10 months and 19 days. He was highly esteemed as neighbor, friend and citizen by all who knew him. For 55 years a member of Pipe Creek Methodist Protestant Church, for a number of years he served on the board of stewards, and during the past 15 years as superintendent of the Sunday School. In politics, he was a staunch Republican. His wife and two daughters, Mrs. I. N. Stoner, of Medford, and Mrs. Clara Lindsay, near Dennings, and one son, Mr. John M. Baile, survive him. A large concourse of people attended his funeral at Pipe Creek Church, on Sunday afternoon. His pastor, Rev. G. J. Hill, conducted the services, and spoke of the beautiful life and character of the deceased. His four grandchildren and two cousins, Messrs. Sterling Baile, David Baile, Herbert Lindsay, E. Lindsay, Walter Getty and John S. Baile were the active pallbearers. The honorary pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. H. Royer, John Keefer, Abner Carile, H. M. Koontz, James Lambert and Dr. George H. Brown. Mr. Harvey Bankard was the funeral director. The thanks of the SENTINEL are due to both its Warfieldsburg and Wakefield correspondents for accounts of the death and burial of Mr. Baile and the Wakefield correspondent says "the family, through the columns of the SENTINEL, wishes to express gratitude to frends and neighbiors, who lent their kindly aid during his last sickness."

Pleasant Valley Items.

While Mrs. Jacob Frock and Mrs Edward J. Myers were returning from Westminster, on Monday, the bit of the bridle broke and the horse ran away. They escaped uninjured and the buggy was not broken. The horse ran some distance, coming in contact with a load of lumber, and could not get past and was caught.

On Wednesday morning, about 100 persons gathered together and in a short time had the new barn raised for Mr. Harry L. Devilbiss. After the raising a bountiful dinner was served. This property was the old Homestead of his grandfather and father, who in years past had a large trade in the tanning business.

Mr. Frederick Myers is improving his dwelling house by giving it a fresh coat of paint and making other repairs.

Miss Grace Martin, of Taneytown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Myers.

Mrs. Edward Hahn and daughter Amy are spending the week with Mrs. E. C. Ebaugh, near Carrollton.

Mr. Henry T. Wentz, who has been poorly, is somewhat improving under the care of Dr. C. M. Brown, of Hanover, Pa., who came as a trained nurse, but in the hour of need and his physician being absent, Dr. Brown saw that something must be done and put his hands to the wheel and rendered medical aid. A Dr. in need is a friend indeed.

Mrs. Catherine Myers is poorly and seems to be growing weaker.

Sunday School this Sunday at 1 P. M. Divine service at 2 P. M., by Rev. Jas. B. Stonesifer. Prayer and praise service in the evening.

Manchester Items.

The funeral of Mr. Charles Warehime was largely attended at the Lutheran Church of this place, Rev. H. H. Flick officiating. The funeral rites of the I. O. R. M. were conducted at the grave by Pocahontas Tribe, of which he was a member, and at their conclusion a dove was liberated. It was a sad occasion and brought forth general sympathy for the sorrowing family. Mr. and Mrs. W. and daughter had been on a visit to Richmond, Va., at the home of Mr. Chas. Manchey, a brother of Mrs. W., and on their arrival at Baltimore on Friday morning, they received the message of their sons illness. They came by the next train only to find him unconscious, in which state he passed away at 8 P. M. He was found, by his brother, paralyzed, in the morning. Convulsions followed until death came. His age was 21 years, 7 months.

On Sunday afternoon the members of Daniel and Jacob Lodge No. 23, I. O. F., held memorial services in their hall, which attracted a large audience. P. G. Colton, of Baltimore, delivered an interesting address, full of fraternal history and a large sprinkling of the beauty of memorial service, which from a small beginning of nine persons in attendance has grown to hundreds at the services here. In the absence of the band, Mr. H. Loats and son, Master Martin, with trombone and clarinet, rendered a beautiful duet, followed by the audience singing, "God be with us &c.," after which the line of march was taken to the cemetery where 46 graves were decorated.

At night the members of Trinity Reformed Sunday School held their children's day services in the church which was filled with an audience. The service, the "Building of the Temple," with class exercise, was used and well rendered. A miniature temple was among the beautiful floral decorations which added much to the occasion.

The members of Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., gave a social and dance after their regular business meeting on Tuesday evening. Messrs. Rupp and Dandy, of Alesia, furnished the music and about 70 persons were refreshed with ice cream, cakes &c., during the evening.

Mr. Lan Miller, of Hanover, who gave several exhibitions of moving pictures in the I O O F Hall last week, is about to fit up the Hoffacker store room for his outfit to be run for a season.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Musselman and son William, with their mother, Mrs. Wm. Tracey, spent the week visiting friends in Hanover, York and Frederick.

Mrs. Washington Musselman visited her sister and friends in York and Hanover for several weeks.

We had Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Staub and daughter Virginia, of Hampstead, guests on Sunday.

Mr. Wm. A. Burgoon and workmen have dressed the home of Mr. Oliver Lippy in light drab with brown trimmings, that makes a fine appearance.

Miss Corinne Sherman is home from the Woman's College, Frederick, for the summer vacation.

Miss Mary Myers is home from the Maryland School for the Deaf, at Frederick, for the vacation.

Barn Raising.

An interesting time was had at the barn-raising of Mr. Charles Hunt, the enterprising blacksmith and wheelwright of Cranberry Valley, when his neighbors and friends gathered to assist in the work. Among those present were Messrs. John Smith, Charles Kiler, William Harris, George Hunt, Herbert Frock, Charles Barnhart, John Hunt, John Sprinkle, who took part in the raising. Among those who assisted in entertaining the barn-raisers, and who enjoyed with them an ample feast of good things were: Mesdames George Hosfelt, J. Hunt, Edw. Pool, E. T. Yingling, J. Yingling, Charles Hunt, Sophia Hunt, Eliza Yingling, George Gummel, Misses Hestie Snider, Laura Yingling, Perdi'o Yingling, Florence Yingling. Mr. Hunt's new barn will add much to the appearance and convenience of his fine home.
