1861 March

SIDE TWO

Poor Mrs Robertson died last night after several days of great suffering.
Effie is quite unwell. He looks thin & has a cough with a little fever at nights.
The children are coughing very much.
Have you seen any of the Neighbours yet? I shall take tea with Emily this evening if nothing happens the is rather better.
Will close to the dear children
Your faithful sister
Caroline Morris