remember whether they were paid for to March or April. I told her they were paid for until April and I desired that she should occupy them and, if she wished to remain at the church I would take them for her again; and if any remark was made she might say, I wished her particuly to have the seats to use. She said it was one of the family, who had made the remark, I did not inquire who it was. She then went on to say that Henry was looking for a house in this neighbourhood and I told her I wished to part with mine and would rent it to Henry, if he did not wish to buy, and I should be much obliged to her to mention it, either to Henry or Stephen. Patty then said "what are you going to do" and I replied "I am going with the Dr, last week "Miss Morris told Cousin Anne they must "give up the house in June and "then proposed that we should be "together, Cousin Caspar and Anne "have the house and take George & myself to live with them. I was not at all surprised at the proposition, it appears to me to be longer than it really was since we parted, indeed the time dear Mary was with me, that I must have a little chat with you this afternoon I have been thinking of you, Mary and the little folks, all day, and wondering whether you had gone down to West River before the storm, or where you housed in Baltimore, I hope the latter, if it suited you equally well, for it was a great blow and storm here, I do not think I ever saw it rain harder than it did at one o'clock to-day. Patty has told accounts of you all as far
