LOCAL ITEMS.

Oats harvest has begun in this county.

Wheat is quoted at the mills in this city at $1.15.

A light rain is falling this morning, doing much good.

The fakirs are doing a big business in this city, this week, in the vicinity of the depot.

On Thursday 64 tickets were sold at this station for the Lutheran reunion at Pen Mar.

The fete at St. John's Catholic Church, this city, is attracting large crowds of people every night.

Many Westminster boys are here from other parts of the State as members of the National Guard.

Mr. I. N. Stoner brought to the Sentinel office last week a box of his large blackberries for the senior editor.

The Fourth Class postmasters of Carroll county met at the rooms of the directors of the American Sentinel Company on Tuesday.

Mr. J. Theo. Myers left at the Sentinel office a box of luscious raspberries. His crop was very large, though somewhat shortened by the dry weather.

A poor man from Emmitsburg was among the visitors to Westminster on Wednesday. On the reviewing ground nearly all his money, $7, was lost or stolen. See ad.

Mr. Elmer Kreglo, of this city, while placing lightning rods on a house near Hampstead, on Monday, fell about 30 feet, and though somewhat bruised, escaped serious injury.

Mr. Ralph M. Williams has resigned his position as local manager of the American Union telephone company and accepted a position with the C. & P. Telephone Company.

The Fred. M. Eckenrode property No. 28 West George street, this city, was sold to Mary A. Nelson, on Friday last, at public sale, for $1000. Ivan L. Hoff, Esq., was attorney.

Messrs. Herr & Babylon have improved their carriage repository by adding a glass front. They expect to put in a line of automobiles and accessories.

Mr. James D. Mitchell, photographer, of this city, has done some splendid work at Camp Crothers. His pictures of the review as well as of the camp are superb.

Mr. Charles Ruthrauff, of this city, found on the street on Sunday a lady's white linen coat, of medium length, which he is anxious to return to the owner, who can leave her address at the SENTINEL office.

In our advertising columns Sheriff Townshend publishes a warning notice, calling attention to the fact that the sale of intoxicating liquors, soda water and other drinks, cigars &c. on Sunday, is illegal.

So far as we have learned Mr. Dennis A. Smith, of Wakefield, raised the record crop of barley this year. 366 bushels on 6 acres. Mr. R. Smith Snader did the threshing. Has a larger yield ever been raised in the State?

Messrs. John E. Eckenrode & Son, of this city, have just completed a very handsome job in repairing and repainting a very fine automobile for Mr. A. J. Lamm, of New York, son-in-law of Mr. Wm. B. Thomas. It is finished in dark olive green, striped in gold.

Dr. Christopher Noss, Professor of Systematic Theology, Lancaster, Pa., has sent his resignation to the Board of Visitors. He has been elected as a missionary of the Reformed Church in Japan. Dr. Noss was married on July 14th to Miss Caroline Barton Day, at Colchester, Conn.

A mislaid postal card, from a friend of Elder W. E. Roop, that turned up this morning, conveys the information that Elder Roop and daughters Lavinia and Ethel spent the Fourth in Frederick, as the guests of the family of Dr. H. P. Fahrney. Elder Roop preached a patriotic sermon in the Church of the Brethren, that city, that day.

Louis Heinrick, of Philadelphia, a lineman in the employ of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, fell from a pole while working on the line in Hampstead, cutting and bruising both arms. The wounds became infected on Monday while working at Camp Crothers, and he was taken to the field Hospital, where they were dressed, and he returned to his work.

Percy and Columbus Shean, two colored boys of this city, who were sent to the Maryland colored House of Reformation, about 20 year ago, are here visiting their parents. They left here at the age of 8 and 10 years and have grown to be young men. After their release, Percy went with a farmer, in lower Maryland, and Columbus joined the navy and has been to the Philippines and other parts of the world.

Mr. George Leas, of this city, had the misfortune to lose his watch and chain in the crowd on Sunday. Whether it slipped from his pocket, or whether his pocket was picked is uncertain. The watch had more than a financial value, in that it had belonged to a son, who is dead, and was very highly prized. If it has come into the possession of any one who has a spark of decency, if he learns these facts, he will at once return it to the venerable gentleman.

Among those who came to Westminster on Saturday was Mr. Wm. Lease, of Bachman's Valley, who left his horse and buggy at a hitching post on Main street. When he came to get them at night, they had disappeared. Search, which was at once begun, was not rewarded until Sunday, when the horse and buggy were found in a stable at Reisterstown. It is supposed that someone stole them, drove to Reisterstown, left the team and then took the trolley car to Baltimore.

One of the first patients to enjoy the privileges of the field hospital at Camp Crothers was Harry Martin, an 8-year-old boy, who was knocked down by a carriage on Sunday. The little fellow, with his mother, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Maggie McGirr, of this city. After the accident he was carried to the hospital, where an examination by Major McGlannan, chief surgeon, and Lieutenant Ashbury, assistant surgeon, disclosed only a few bruises above the elbow. After treatment, the lad was placed in a carriage and brought to his grandmother's, in this city.
