LOCAL ITEMS.

A band of gypsies is encamped near the coal chute, at Cranberry station.

The Republican primaries are being held throughout the county this afternoon.

Troop D, 15th U. S. Cavalry, passed through this city on Monday, on the return march from Mt. Gretna, Pa., to Fort Myer, Va.

Thursday, 29th ult., Mr. John E. Deeds, of this city, shipped two carloads of onions, containing 2027 bushels, to Baltimore.

The fete held by St. John's Catholic Church of this city, for the benefit of the parochial school, closed on Saturday evening. It was largely attended.

Among those who went on the excursion of the Western Maryland Railroad to Cumberland, on Sunday last, were nine residents of this city.

During the month of July 47 deeds, 19 mortgages and 5 bills of sale were received at the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court, and 14 marriage licenses were issued.

The eleventh annual reunion of the Reformed Churches of this county will be held at Snydersburg on Thursday, 16th inst. An interesting program of exercises has been prepared for the occasion.

Masters J. Smith, J. Whitmore, W. Yingling and J. Yingling, who call themselves "members of Hungry Camp," are spending the week camping in Wakefield Valley, with Mr. George Stouch as guardian.

The great "Dutch Picnic", near Smallwood, the annual event, to which the county looks forward, will be held tomorrow, if the weather is favorable, or on Monday, if unfavorable tomorrow. The usual large attendance is expected.

Mr. Paul Reese, architect, of this city, has completed plans for an addition to the Aged People's Home of the M. P. Church, on East Main street, which is to be occupied by aged men who may become inmates of the home.

Master Thomas S. Shaw, 8-year-old son of Dr. Thos. K. Shaw, of this city, had a fall last week which resulted in a tracture of his right arm between the wrist and elbow. Dr. Charles R. Foutz adjusted the fracture.

A refreshing rain fell in this locality on Sunday morning last. The precipitation was not sufficient to thoroughly saturate the ground and entirely break the prevailing drought, but it was of great benefit to the growing corn and vegetation generally.

The State Camp of the P. O. S. of A., of Maryland, will not meet at Chestertown, as contemplated. Typhoid fever is prevalent in that community and the encampment will be held in the Royal Arcanum Hall, Baltimore. Mr. J. Wesley Yingling is the delegate from the camp of this city.

New pennies bearing the head of Lincoln have made their appearance in this city and will soon be largely in circulation, as they are being turned out at the mint by hundreds of thousands. The first in this city for distribution were received by Mr. John H. Cunningham, cashier of the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank.

There is money in poultry—providing you use Fairfield's Blood Tonic and Egg Producer for Poultry Only. It insures success, because it contains the elements that strengthen and stimulate the digestive organs, purify the blood and make hens lay. Sold under written Guarantee by the W. H. Davis Co., Westminster, and Geo W. Yeiser, Union Mills.

Fairfield's Blood Tonic and Regulator for Horses Only exterminates worms without injury to the animal. It operates in a mild and gentle manner by perfecting the digestion and purifying the blood, saving feed and increasing vim and vigor. Sold under written Guarantee by the W. H. Davis Co., and Geo. W. Yeiser, Union Mills.

Miss Carrie L. Mourer, formerly of this city, now a teacher in the New York City schools, is spending some time abroad. One of her friends in this city received from her a postal card picture of the Grindenwald, Germany, and a note describing it as "a river of ice, or glacier, which, with four snow-clad mountains, we see from our window."

On Saturday afternoon a Mrs. Huber, of Baltimore, in stepping from the Blue Mountain Express to the railroad platform in this city fell and sustained a severe sprain of the knee. She was taken to Dr. H. M. Fitzhugh, but was unable to bear her weight on the injured limb and being a very large person could not be carried into the office. She sat on a chair on the sidewalk until Dr. F. had ascertained the nature of the injury and then, with difficulty was lifted into a wagon and taken back to the railroad station and returned to her home in Baltimore. Her presence on the sidewalk attracted a crowd of observers.

Real Estate Sales.

Under a power of attorney from the other heirs at law of the late Samuel Warehime, Mr. George E. Warehime sold, at public sale, on Saturday last, the farm, near Frizellburg, belonging to the estate of the said Samuel Warehime and containing 172¼ acres, 33 perches, to Mr. John W. A. Warehime at $65.05 per acre, $11,220.23; a wood lot containing 3¼ acres to Mr. Foster M. Warehime, for $325, and the home residence, in Frizellburg, to Mrs. Caroline Hively, for $1345; total of sales $12,890.23. Ivan L. Hoff, Esq., was attorney in the case and Mr. J. Thomas Roop auctioneer.

On Saturdaylast Ivan L. Hoff, Esq., assignee of mortgagee of Mrs. Catharine Lantz and Charles H. Lantz, her husband, sold at public sale the property 229 E. Main street, this city, to Mr. Harry Beaver, for $2400. Mr. Elias N. Davis was auctioneer.

A Westminster Boy in The South.

Because of their kinship to the young man, the following account of whose honoring by his confreres in the South appeared on the editorial page of the Augusta (Georgia) Chronicle of the 2nd inst., the editors of the SENTINEL hesitate to reproduce it in these columns; but for the sake of the friends of one, who was born in Westminster, and went away from the community when a little lad, they are constrained to put modesty aside and tell the story as related in the Chronicle, as they would do in the case of any Westminster boy, so honored:

"Mr. William B. Seabrook was the honor guest yesterday evening at dinner, at Jansen's Restaurant. The Augusta Press Club were the hosts. Mr. Thomas D Murphy presided. The members of the Press Club are: Fred Bernhardt, Thomas J. Hamilton, Marvin Haynie, George Tunkle, Thomas D. Murphy, W. P. Flythe, Edward Walton, J. Steadman Weathersbee, Rogers Winter, E. W. Smith, W. W. Mangum, George W. Reab, L. S. Wolfe, W. J. Henning, James J. Farrell.

"Mr. Seabrook, who has just returned from a 'tour of Europe' on foot, was formerly city editor of The Augusta Chronicle, resigning his position on this paper to take the 'international tramp.' During his tour he has written a series of articles for The Chronicle and a syndicate of American newspapers and publications. This service by him has been a source of delight and pleasure to the readers of this paper.

"His correspondence has been pronounced by the leading publishers as among the very best that has come out of the Old World during the last ten years and their author was paid the high compliment after his first letters appeared in The Chronicle and other journals in the United States, of receiving orders from a number of leading newspaper publications of the country.

"On his return to America, Mr. Seabrook was offered and accepted a position on the Atlanta Journal.

"Prior to settling down there he ran down to Augusta yesterday to see his friends here and the Press Club took advantage of his presence in the city to entertain him.

"The banquet was quite informal. The dinner was one of the finest that has been served in this city. Over the cigars Mr. Seabrook narrated incidents and adventures of his trip that made up one of the most edifying and interesting recitals. The 'tramp' has not only treasured for himself a most remarkable store of foreign information, but he has acquired a most attractive manner of narrative, and an hour's talk by him makes up a delightful entertainment.

"Mr. Seabrook is affectionately regarded by the newspaper men of Augusta. They recognize in him not only a man of ability, but a fine fellow. There is no better reporter. He knows news, knows how to go after it and knows how to handle it—gets it all, gives the best and presents it accurately and entertainingly.

"But there is another Seabrook, a bighearted, whole-souled man—a man who would do no one an injury; who would take advantage of no man in the greatest or smallest thing. He fears nothing, except wrong and would divide his last penny with the humblest person in Christendom.

"When he 'scoops' you, he is sorry that it had to be done. If you worst him in badinage he laughs with you. If you get in a 'beat' on him, he claps you on the back and warns you that 'you shan't do it again;' he 'stands in' with the 'big noise' because he is the best workman and he 'stands in' with the 'devil' because he treats the 'devil' as a gentleman—Seabrook treats every deserving one that way. He will walk off the sidewalk to avoid crushing an insect. In the right, he'd fight the biggest man in the city, and fight him all the harder and all the more cheerfully if the big man was also the town bully. He would deny himself to do another a favor, but if you imposed on him he'd 'even up,' if it took a year.

"And that is why the newspaper workers greeted him yesterday and drank to his safe return to home after his international tramp, and, in speech and song, hailed him as a 'good fellow.'

"It was the most heart-whole, the jolliest, the happiest, the finest social affair ever had in Augusta."

New Windsor College Campaign.

The New Windsor College campaign committee will meet at its headquarters on Tuesday evening to arrange for a thorough canvass of the neighborhood for subscriptions. During the past month the work has not been pushed, owing to the hot weather, but now it is the intention of the committee to push the campaign in the neighborhood and later extend it throughout the State and to Baltimore, Washington and Wilmington. The subscriptions now amount to twenty-two hundred and forty-five dollars.

Some of the guests of Hotel Dielman, assisted by a number of the ladies of the town, will give "The Bachelor Maid's Re-Union," in the college Hall, Thursday and Friday evenings, August 26th and 27th, the proceeds to go toward expenses of the college campaign.

A Birthday Celebration.

Mr. W. S. Gamber, the oldest and best known citizen of Gamber, celebrated his eightieth birthday on the 25th of July. Mr. Gamber was born July 25th, 1829, in East Hempfield township, Lancaster county, Pa. He was educated in the public schools of his native state, engaged in the mercantile business in Columbia at the age of 17 years, removed to Lancaster City the following year and continued in the same business. He was married at the age of 18 to Miss Elizabeth Becker whose father was cashier of the Lancaster National Bank. By this union there were two children born. He removed to Maryland in 1848, where his wife died. His second wife was Miss Anna M. Haines, by whom 10 children were born, 9 of whom are living at this writing. Since coming to Maryland Mr. Gamber has engaged in farming, carpentering and merchandising. Mr. Gamber has always been a staunch Republican, has twice been appointed census enumerator of his district and was the first postmaster of the village of Gamber, so named in his honor. He also taught in the public schools of Carroll county for a number of years. There are living the following children: Mrs. Emily Elliott, of Lancaster, Pa.; Messrs. Albert F., George W., Reuben C., John T., and Levi E. Gamber, of Carroll county; William F., of Baltimore county; Mrs. Robert E. Barnes and Mrs. Charles Warehime, of Baltimore; Jacob T., of Baltimore county, and Mrs. Ida Willis, of Carroll county. His direct descendants are 11 children, 53 grandchildren, 44 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great-grandchild.

Union Mills Items.

The B. F. Shriver Co. is putting in a pair of large boilers, with a capacity of two hundred horse power, at its Union Mills factory. They are from the Motter works, of York, Pa.

Our venerable justice of the peace, Mr. J. Wm. Earhart, has been seriously ill for a week and is confined to his bed. Mr. Earhart is now 84 years of age and is one of the most highly esteemed residents of this vicinity.

Mr. Aaron Baukert has sold his farm containing 91 acres, to Mr. Richard H. Steward, for $2200. In the spring Mr. Bankert will move to a small property he owns near Littlestown, Pa.

Mr. Edward Hively, of Frizellburg, has bought Mr. Isaiah Humbert's farm of 120 acres, for $3890.

Rev. H. M. J. Klein and family, of Allentown, Pa., are guests of Mr. H. Wirt Shriver.

Encouraging reports are received from Mr. Leander Lookingbill, who was operated upon for a growth on his upper jaw, at St. Luke's Hospital, Baltimore, last week.

To Go Into Camp.

All arrangements are completed for the opening of the camp of the Forest and Stream Club of Westminster, on the farm of Mr. Harvey R. Frock, (formerly the Dutterer farm) on the Monocacy, near the railroad bridge above Detour. A carload of camp equipage was sent up today, and tomorrow a delegation of members of the club will go up in the morning to erect the four large tents. Others will follow in the evening, and still more on Monday. The camp will continue for a week.

The members enrolled, who have paid their entrance fees, are W. L. Seabrook, president; George R. Babylon, secretary; Guy L. Fowler, treasurer; John J. Reese, commissary; Dr. Glenn W. Horner, quartermaster; William B. Thomas, Joshua Stevenson, Charles E. Hering, Frank W. Fouke, S. C Stoner, Chas. W. Moore, Ed. S. Shriver, Edward Leister, Harry Handley, J. Albert Mitten, J. Thomas Anders, Frank T. Butler, James M. Stoner, C. Gloyd Diffendal, Ferd Dieffenbach, Chas. B. Hunter, George A. Miller, Harry K. Oursler, John Stem, James D. Mitchell, Dr. Thomas K. Shaw, W. Frank Thomas and H. D. Fowble. Jabez D. Powell will be cook.

Arrangements have been made with the Western Maryland Railroad for the stopping of the following trains at the camp ground: Tomorrow (Saturday) evening, train West, leaving Westminster at 6.17. From Monday of next week until Saturday, inclusive, trains West, Fast Mail and 9.27; train East, Fast Mail in the evening.

Large Barn and Other Buildings, Near Uniontown, Horses, Crops &c. Destroyed by Fire.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock, Tuesday morning, the large bank barn, with a large grainshed attached, and a tool house, with all their contents, on the farm of Mr. G. Fielder Gilbert, near Uniontown, were totally destroyed by fire, which was not discovered till the roof of the barn was falling in. Six horses stabled in the barn, perished in the flames and the summer crops, consisting of about 800 bushels of wheat in the straw and 40 or 50 tons of hay, all the farm harness, a lot of farming implements and the tools in the tool house, were burned. The farm is tenanted by Mrs. Sophia Graham, who owned the horses, harness, farming implements and half the crops.

Mr. Gilbert's loss approximates $3,000, upon which his insurance is $2,250—$1,500 in the North British Company, of which Mr. James E. Smith is agent, and $750 in the Dug Hill Company. Mrs. Graham's loss exceeds $1500, with insurance of $425 on the horses in the Fire Association, and $400 on crops and other property, in the Citizens' Company of Charlestown, W. Va., both companies of Mr. Smith's insurance agency.

The cows, which had been left in the barnyard Monday night, were found in an adjoining cornfield after the fire and the barnyard gate was open. The cattle thus escaped injury. It is not thought that this circumstance had anything to do with the origin of the fire, which was probably accidental.

Sunday School Convention.

The second annual convention and reunion of the Carroll County Sunday School Association was held in Dug Hill Park, near Bachman's Church, July 29th. The county president, Mr. G. W. Yieser, of Union Mills, presided. Rev. Long, of Littlestown, had charge of the music. Mr. Geo. H. Birnie, of Taneytown, led the devotional services basing his remarks on the theme of the morning session, "Building for the Future." Greetings from the Maryland Sunday School Association were extended by Mr. Chas. W. Dorsey, president of the State Association.

Mrs. W. E. Williams, in a pleasing manner, compared the standard of Carroll county with the Standard of Excellence planned by the State. While she complimented the work of Carroll county she also made one feel there is much yet to be accomplished before we can wholly attain this high standard.

The Union Mills Cornet Band rendered excellent selections before and after the program.

The afternoon session was opened with prayer and praise service under the leadership of Rev. D. L. Greenfield, D. D., of Westminster. A very able address on Teaching and Training was delivered by Rev. P. T. Tagg, D. D., of Baltimore. He emphasized the fact that the lesson is not effective unless back of it the teacher has character to impress its truths; to teach religion without being religious is of no avail.

A double quartet "Grace, enough for me," was rendered, which was followed by the business session of the convention. The minutes of the last convention were read and approved. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres., G. W. Yeiser, Union Mills; vice-pres., Geo. K. Mather, Westminster; sec.-treasurer, Miss Adda L. Trump, Manchester; Supt. Adult Class, Rev. D. L. Greenfield, D. D., Westminster; Supt. Teacher's Training, Mr. Jesse P. Garner, Linwood; Supt. Cradle Roll, Miss Lizzie Herr, Westminster; Supt. Home Department, Mrs. F. A. Dieffenbach, Westminster.

The report of the resolution committee was made by Rev. Nicoll, of Hampstead. The county president, Mr. G. W. Yeiser, beautifully laid before the convention the work of the county by an original planned white, green and gold star. It is the effort of the association to reach the standard of excellence and have an entire golden star.

The officers of the association cannot do this alone. The assistance of every school is necesary. The first assistance the association desires is that every school in the county send report to the secretary, if same has not already been sent. Fall in line and have your school reported to the state. If you have no blank report, please send to the county secretary for one.

On motion, by a unanimous vote, the first Thursday of September of each year was selected as "Carroll County School Day," on which date the annual convention and reunion will be held in the future.

Rev. Andrew B. Wood, of Baltimore, assistant Supt. of the Anti-Saloon League, gave "Temperance Thoughts for Young and Old," in a very forcible address.

Music and benediction closed the second success ful and enjoyable convention.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

Mrs. Mary H. Haines.

Mrs. Mary H. Haines, widow of the late Granville S. Haines, died on Monday last at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. Lewis Jones, N. W. corner Sixty-third street and Lebanon avenue, West Philadelphia, and her funeral took place at 5 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, from the Friends Meeting House, Union Bridge. Her remains were interred beside the grave of her husband in that place.

Luther E. Harn.

Luther E. Harn, 66 years old, a well-known citizen of Unionville, died on Wednesday, 28th inst., of cancer. He was a Union soldier and a member of Pickett Post, G. A. R., of Winfield. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Cordelia Gaver, of Pasadena, Cal. The funeral took place on Friday from the Methodist Episcopal Church, where services were conducted by Rev. O. C. Marriott. The active pallbearers were Judge William H. Pearre, Jesse Nicodemus, C. R. Lindsay, John D. Gaither, John E. Brenneisen, John A. Bidding-er, C. H. Nicodemus and William H. Baker. The honorary were William Miller, George W. Gittings, Henry Nusbaum, Judge George H. Whitmore, George W. Beard, John Colleberry, William H. Crum, Joseph Delphey, John W. Eury and W. H. H. Wilson, former comrades of the deceased. He was buried in Linganore Cemetery, Unionville.

Centenary M. E. Church,

Sunday, Aug. 8th, preaching at 10.30 o'clock by Rev. J. L. Walsh. Vesper service, 8 o'clock. Address by the pastor, subject: Truth Speaking.

DOUBLE HEADER

Westminster vs. Sykesville—Two games for one Admission—First Game Two O'clock—Everybody Talk It Up—Everybody turn Out—Make It Biggest Attendance.

WESTMINSTER 4—MT. AIRY 2.

Westminster defeated Mount Airy, at Mt. Airy, on Saturday, in a close and interesting game, 4 to 2. Campbell was a little wild, but Mt. Airy could not connect safely when hits were needed. Smith, the centerfielder for Westminster, robbed Mount Airy of several runs by two startling running catches. A base on balls, two two-baggers and an error brought in the winning tallies. Score:

WESTMINSTER 0—FREDERICK 4.

Frederick had the honor of giving Westminster its first shut out on Monday last. The Frederick manager must carry a left hind-foot on a bowlegged rabbit, caught by a cross-eyed nigger, in a cross-road graveyard, in the dark of the moon, judging by the hoodoo he and Maher, his left-handed pitcher, put on the Westminster bunch. Wege just couldn't get there, and Campbell relieved him in the sixth inning. They were listless in the field, as a rule, with several notable exceptions, and though only two errors were made, could not hold the visitors down, and four scattering hits are not enough to win.

WINCHESTER 4—WESTMINSTER 3.

Although they played an errorless game, in which their fielding was well nigh perfect, Westminster was defeated by Winchester, on Wednesday, in the finest exhibition of clean and scientific ball-playing that has been seen in this city in many a day. In every respect it was the best game of the season. "Sandy" Baker has just reason to be proud of his men, not only as ball-players, but as gentlemen, in whom he has put something of his own spirit. Though defeated, Westminster fans are proud of the men who represented them on the diamond on Wednesday.

In the first inning, for Winchester, Baker and Brown struck out. McDonald went out McGarvey to Ashmore.

For Westminster, Ashmore gave Brown a chance, but he fumbled it. With the ball in catcher's hands, made a great steal to second. Sterzer got Bonthron's bunt fly. McGarvey went out Baker to McDonald. Spencer used his head as well as his bat and made a great ground hit, scoring Ashmore. Haley struck out.

In the second for Winchester, Reed made a hit. When Trevallion struck to Haley, Reed went to second. Haley used good jugment in driving across the diamond to Bonthron at first, heading off the batter, and Bonthron hurried it back to Haley, spectacularly doubling Reed at third. Carr flew to Bevans. For Westminster, Bevans went out Brown to McDonald, and Gibson Baker to McDonald. Smith struck out.

In the third Daley fanned. Duffey walked, reached third on a pass. Sterzer's hit scored Duffey. Baker's hit scored Sterzer Baker reaching second. Brown gave Spencer a fly, and Baker ran to third. By a fine run Smith got McDonald's high fly. For Westminster, Campbell flew to McDonald. Ashmore walked. Bonthron went out to McDonald unassisted. Ashmore reaching second, and stole third. McGarvey was hit on the head by pitched ball. Spencer went out Daley to McDonald.

In the fourth, Daley and Trevallion struck out. Carr walked, and tried to steal, but Gibby caught him in the act to Bonthron. Haley again fanned for Westminster. Bevans hit a hot grounder tnrough McDonald. Gibson went down Brown to McDonald, while Bevans reached second, and later stole third. Smith flew to Trevallion.

In the fifth, for Winchester, Daley went out Haley to Ashmore. Duffey was robbed of a hit by Bonthron's fine pick up to Ashmore. Sterzer flew to Bevans. For Westminster, Campbell flew to McDonald. Ashmore bunted Sterzer to McDonald. Bonthron went out Baker to McDonald.

In the sixth, for Winchester, Baker went out Campbell to Ashmore, and Brown McGarvey to Ashmore. McDonald cracked out a two bagger, and Reed's hit to center brought him home. Trevallion went out McGarvey to Ashmore. For Westminster, McGarvey went down McDonald to Sterzer at first. Spencer made a hit, and Gibson running for him stole second. Haley walked. Bevans went out Sterzer to McDonald. Gibson came in to bat and Ashmore took third for Spencer, and made a great try to steal home, but failed. Gibson struck out.

In the seventh, for Winchester, Carr struck the ball just in front of the plate, Gibby by a fine throw got him to Ashmore, Daley flew to Haley. Duffey's great fly drive to left looked like a home run, but Bevans accomplished what looked like the impossible. As the ball left the bat Bevans got his eye on it and began to run to the spot where he thought it would land, and the ball reached his hands just as the runner reached second. It was the greatest catch ever made on the Westminster diamond, the crowd went wild, and Doc Myers and Claude Algire met Bevans and carried him home on their shoulders. For Westminster, Smith struck out. Reed in left robbed Campbell by taking in his liner. With two men down, Ashmore hit safe to centre, and stole second. Bonthron's hit advanced Ashmore. Two men down and two on the bases, McGarvey did great work with the willow, his hit scoring Ashmore and Bonthron. Spencer went out Sterzer to McDonald.

In the eighth, for Winchester, Sterzer struck out. Baker hit. Brown drove the ball to the left field fence. Bevans could not find it, and others went to help in the search, while Baker and Brown kept on round to the home plate. It was found that the ball had gone under the fence, and Umpire Mathias ordered the runners back to third and second. (Under the ground rules, on a ball over or under the left field fence at that point the runner is entitled to only two bags. This rule was made at the beginning of the season, but the Winchester men had failed to catch on and for a few minutes it looked to them like a justifiable kick at the umpires decision, but when the matter was explained to Captain Baker, he and his men accepted graciously and as gentlemen. Hereafter, by the way, it would be a wise thing to place the ground rules, in writing, in the hands of opposing teams, so that there may be no cause for misunderstanding.)

Si McDonald sent a high fly to Tom Smith, who made a great throw home, but not in time to stop Baker scoring the winning run. Gibby hurried it back to Haley at third, catching Brown. For Westminster, Haley struck out. Bevans bunted out Sterzer to McDonald. Gibson reached first on Brown's error and stole second. Smith drove the horse-hide to Brown who retrieved his error by a fine pickup to McDonald.

In the ninth, Reed for Winchester made a hit, by a lucky bound. Trevallion sacrificed to Campbell. Daley flew to Haley, and Duffey to Bonthron. For Westminster, Campbell sent a great fly into left, and Reed's great catch approximated that of Bevans in the seventh. Ashmore walked, Bonthron sent up a foul fly, just in front of the bleachers. Big Si went for it, and with the assistance of several little negro boys, who were sitting on the rope, made the jump which put him under it in time. (Moral—Keep off the rope.) McGarvey went out Baker to McDonald, and the great game was won by Winchester, 4—3, with almost equal honors to victors and vanquished.

Fire Alarm System.

The basement of the Albion Hotel has been a center of interest during the past week, for there has been marshalled the apparatus and material for the International Fire Alarm System, which is being installed in this city by Mr. Martin V. Shriver. Many of our citizens have dropped in to examine the working of the apparatus, and all have been more than satisfied with its perfect working. A number of out-of-town people have visited Westminster for the purpose of examining it, among them Mr. John R. Fursh, of Ironton, Ohio, representing that city, which has a population of 22,000, four fire companies, and is neg
