The annual outing and basket picnic of Trinity Reformed Sunday School on Saturday last was a grand success, in the grove of Mr. Jacob Zepp, two miles north of town. The members met at the church and enjoyed a straw ride on large farm wagons with a number of private conveyances. The day was all that could be wished for and fun was alive all day, while the refreshments were abundant and A1. The only accident happened to a lady's umbrella, that suffered a broken back and crushed ribs, but even then was a subject of much fun. All members of the school received tickets entitling them to ice cream.

On Monday evening, 2nd inst., the home of Mrs. M. L. Morelock was the scene of a pleasant social and surprise, being the anniversary of the birthday of her niece, Mrs. H. T. J. LaMotte. The social was engineered by Mr. L., who had arranged with a company of friends, among whom were the members of "The Sunshine," of which Mrs. L. is a member and attended their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. H. S. Musselman, that evening. After the meetiing she was detained by the hostess for a short time, giving the other members time to reach the Morelock home. Mrs. L. innocently went to her home to find the Sunshine members and friends in full possession of the home. Matters were soon righted, games introduced and a general good time enjoyed. At 10 P. M. abundant refreshments were served, that Mr. L. provided. Those of the company were: Madames E. J. Crumrine, Jennie Gettier, J. M. Motter, J. Wink, C. Warehime, W. F. Masenhimer, C. M. Masenhimer, J. W. Hoffacker, Wm. H. Shower, J. W. Burns, J. E. Musselman, H. S. Musselman, W. L. F. Bergman, C. Leber, M. L. Morelock, C. Turner, C. Miller; Misses H. What might have been a fatal accident occurred on Monday. Mr. Lascaleet, an aged man, was sitting on the porch at the gate house watching the gate when he felt something strike his back and getting up a rifle ball dropped from his clothes. It apparently had struck a mail box close by and glanced, hitting a round in the back of the chair, splintering that, going through a cushion and striking his back, cutting it open, then falling down. Although the wound is not serious it should be a warning to our young men and boys against very careless handling of fire arms.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Rev. G. W. Baughman there has been the 4th edition of the "Uniontown Cookbook" published, and she very kindly has used the proceeds from the sale of the same for the building of a long front porch to the parsonage, which is quite an improvement, and the members of the four congregations belonging to the Uniontown Charge have reason to thank her for her zeal in the matter.
