of Early York Cabbage seed. I Bryan want them immediately and bring with you an ounce of Spinach seed - The watermelon patch has been yielding pames for a fine supply till the cows finished it a day or two since. This I believe is about all I can say this time and I shall not write again till Mondays post ~~or~~ I must go or send to meet the workmen I shall take that opportunity if Snow has come & cows unloaded I shall go up on Tuesday on Aunt Catharines account

Love to all the Children

Tell Harriet her father & Jesse mentioned at the corn. I was very kind & I would gladly have gone with them. but was expected at Wallbridge

The clear morning brings with it the responsibility of another day. I have slept sweetly, and awake early and now while waiting till it shall be 7 o'clock & what hour I am to see Mr. Buckley. I take my pen once more. and yet I know not why.
There is nothing to add. to what I have already said, unless it be to endeavour to impress on Hm. in great caution about the Harwood lease. Do not make any agreement what we cannot fulfil and have it all written and signed before he takes possession.
You may remember my former allusion to the fact that he rests nothing to get his living and whatever else he can make while we certainly part with all we can make from the land. - The difficulty about the barns
