School Board Decision.

In its report of the meeting of the State Board of Education, in Baltimore, on Monday, the Baltimore American says: "The State Board took up the appeal of Miss Hannah Shunk, of New Windsor, Carroll county, who was dismissed by the county school board. She claimed that she had not been given sufficient notice as required by law. She also claimed that her normal school certificate entitled her to an annual salary of $450, while she had received only $350. The State Board sustained her in both cases."

The Baltimore Sun says: "In her appeals, Miss Shunk held that the county board did not have the power to reduce her salary. Holding a first grade certificate from the State Normal School, Miss Shunk was entitled to receive a yearly salary of not less than $450. The county board maintained that it had the power to reduce her certificate to the second grade, thus making her salary only $350."

These reports, in so far as they concern the question of the dismissal of Miss Shunk are correct. The State Board held that as the notice to Miss Shunk was verbal and not in writing, it was therefore not legal and she is consequently entitled to the New Windsor School.

The Sentinel, however, has learned from a representative of the State Board that the report as published in the daily papers as touching the salary question is inaccurate, and in order to show the exact state of the case it will be necessary briefly to recall the facts leading up to the action of the State Board.

The General Assembly of 1908 passed a law providing that all white teachers holding first class certificates, who have taught in the public schools of Maryland for three years, shall receive not less than three hundred dollars salary per annum; that those who have taught for five years shall receive not less than $400 per annum; and those who have taught for eight years shall receive $450 per annum; that teachers who hold second class certificates and have taught for eight years shall receive not less than $350 per annum. It was further provided that the county commssioners shall levy a sufficient amount to meet the increase of salaries provided for in the act, and that the act shall take effect from the First day of August, 1908.

It will be noticed that the law designates certificates of the first CLASS and certificates of the second CLASS.

Teachers' certificates are usually spoken of as FIRST GRADE and SECOND GRADE, and it happens that in this county, there are two classifications in the First Grade and three in the Second Grade; in other words there is a First Grade FIRST CLASS and a First Grade SECOND CLASS and a Second Grade FIRST CLASS, SECOND CLASS and THIRD CLASS.

Under the law, it is provided that the salaries of the teachers holding FIRST CLASS certificates be increased.

In June 1908, before the law in question went into effect, the School Commisioners of Carroll County sent to the teachers in the county, who under the law apparently were entitled to increased salaries, an agreement to be signed and returned by August 10th, 1908, contracting to teach for $350 for the full nine months of the school year of 1908—1909, accompanying each blank with a communication in which each teacher was advised that if the agreement were not so signed and returned by the date named, "the Board will understand that you do not wish to teach, will record the school vacant and proceed to secure a teacher for the same."

This contract was signed by the teachers of the county, among whom was Miss Shunk, and during the school year of 1908—1909, no teacher in the county received the increase of salary provided for by the law.

Meanwhile, looking to the school year of 1909—1910, the Carroll County School Board made a reclassification of the teachers, lowering those who had held First Class certificates to the Second Class.

Miss Shunk was one of those so reduced.

The State Board's decision in her case, which of course determines the status of all teachers who hold certificates from the State Board, is that the county boards have no right to reclassify teachers holding such certificates except as authorized by the law of the State Board passed in March, 1909, which permits such reclassification by county boards in the case of teachers who have held such certificates for five years, and that said by-law is not retroactive; in other words that no county school board can reclassify any teacher holding a State certificate until five years after March, 1909.

This action of the State Board restores to Miss Shunk her First Grade Certificate of the First Class, and settles the principle in the case of other teachers in the State.

We are informed that the question of the interpretation of the law of 1908, and of the therein provided-for increase of salaries of teachers is a crucial question not only in this but in a number of other counties. The logic of the decision of the State Board is that since there can be no reclassification of First Grade teachers for five years, if the law in question is not unconstitutional, every county in the State must pay its first class teachers who have taught for five years not less than $400 and those who have taught for eight years $450. The State Board, in its decision in Miss Shunk's case does not touch the question of salary, as that is a matter to be determined by the county school boards, with the assistance of the Courts, if necessary.

Peary vs. Cook.

Commander Peary, who claims that he reached the North Pole, April 1909, has sent to the world a message denying the claim of Dr. Cook to have reached the pole a year earlier and branded that explorer as a liar and imposter. To say the least Commander Peary's action is in bad taste. The claims of both men will be confirmed or negatived by the scientific proofs they will produce, and it is a pity that Commander Peary has dimmed the lustre of his great achievement by this imprudent act.

Among laymen, who look upon the claims of both men with open mind and without prejudice, the contrast between the spirit shown by Commander Peary and that of Dr. Cook must create sympathy and prejudice favorable to the latter.

Commander Peary says "Cook's story should not be taken too seriously. The two Eskimos, who accompanied him say he went no distance north, and not out of sight of land, and other members of the tribe corroborate him." It is further reported that he wired his wife, "Don't let Cook story worry you. I have him nailed," but it is not to be believed that he sent such a message.

In striking contrast are Dr. Cook's words, "I have been to the North Pole. I am willing to place facts, figures and worked out observations before a tribunal of the scientific bodies of he world." "Make as little as you can of this, and don't say anything disagreeable about Peary."

Prohibition Convention.

The County Convention of the Frederick county Prohibitionists was held in the City Hall, Frederick, on the 27th uit. The advisability of placing a ticket in the field was discussed by Rev. W. H. Settlemeyer, of Middletown; George F. Nichols, of Woodsboro; Roland Simpson, of Liberty; George L. Twenty and Daniel J. Young, of Tuscarora. Upon motion of Rev. Mr. Settlemeyer, it was decided not to nominate a ticket this year.

In the advertising columns of this issue of the SENTINEL will be found the announcement of the County Convention of the Prohibitionists of Carroll, to be held in the Band Hall, at Carrollton, Friday evening, September 17th.

The Prohibition party held a convention on Tuesday and nominated Mr. Richard A. Harris, of Baltimore, for Comptroller of the Treasury.

TRUSTEES' SALE
Public Sale Main-Court Inn,
OF THE . . . .
Westminster, Maryland,
Completely Furnished And Ready For Business.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in the deed of trust of Frederick Ludwig Henry Glendmeyer and Annie L. Glendmeyer, his wife, and Fredericka M. Glendmeyer to B. Frank Crouse, Joseph D. Brooks and Francis Neal Parke, trustees, dated August 18, 1909, and recorded among the Land Records of Carroll County in Liber D. P. S. No. 112, folio 234 etc., the undersigned trustees, on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1909, AT 1 O'CLOCK, P. M.,
will offer on the premises at public sale, as an ENTIRETY, all that VALUABLE HOTEL PROPERTY known as the MAIN-COURT INN, situated at the corner of Main and Court Streets, in Westminster, Maryland, and embracing (1) a valuable site; (2) a handsome hotel, with garage and stable and other improvements; and (3) all the furnishings and equipment of a first-class hotel.

1. The site of the hotel is a lot in fee fronting 147½ feet on Main street and extending back, with a frontage on Court Street of 214½ feet, to a public alley 16 feet wide. The lot contains 117 square perches of land, more or less, and is one of the most advantageously located lots in Westminster.

2. The lot is improved by a brick hotel built at the intersection of Main and Court Streets, and extending 115 feet on Main Street, and fronting on Court Street for a depth of 67 feet. The portion of the hotel on Main Street, next to Court Street, is two stories and an attic high, with a second story porch, 10 feet wide and supported by round colums, on both the Main and Court Street sides; and the other part of the hotel fronts on Main Street and is four stories high, with a side porch opening on the hotel yard. The hotel has a large lobby, office, bar, pool and billiard room, writing room, parlor, sample room, store rooms; and fifty six bed-rooms, of which 48 are furnished. The kitchen has a large and new range; coffee-steamer; ice-chests or boxes and all necessary conveniences. There is a cellar under the hotel, and there is a second or basement kitchen. The hotel has fire-escapes on the side and rear of the building. There are entrances to the hotel on both Court and Main Streets, and a separate entrance on Court Street to the bar.
The hotel has been recently papered, painted and wholly renovated throughout; and is well lighted with new gas and electric light fixtures; and in each bed room there is a newly installed telephone connecting with the private exchange in the office, and giving local and long distance connections. The hotel is heated by steam; and the rooms are large, well lighted and ventilated, with wide corridors throughout the building; and bath rooms on second and third floors.
The other improvements consist of a garage; stable and an outside cold storage house.

3. The furnishings and equipments are new, well selected, adequate and complete; and embrace all the furniture, linen, china, table and kitchen-ware and liquors and everything suitable to run a first-class bar; and make the Main-Court Inn ready for immediate use as a thoroughly equipped hotel. An inventory of the contents of the hotel may be had of the trustees.

The Main-Court Inn is within a half mile of the railroad station at Westminster, and two blocks of the Court House, and fronts on the turnpike from Baltimore to Pittsburg, about 28 miles from Baltimore and 24 miles from Gettysburg, and is in the line of large automobile travel and at the end of a pleasant run, over the Baltimore and Reisterstown Turnpike, from Baltimore. Situated in a prosperous and healthful city, at an elevation of about 900 feet above tide-water; cool, commodious and attractive in appearance, with shaded grounds, ample porches; excellent water, gas and electric light; and the lowest county tax rate in the State; a hotel liquor license of $300, the Main-Court Inn offers great advantages as a hotel property.

Immediate possession can be given. THE LAND and PERSONAL PROPERTY described above will be offered as a whole.
