The Supervisers of Election will sit tomorrow, Saturday, September 18th, at the Court House, this city, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., for the purpose of giving transfers.

No clearer analysis has been made of the proposed "Disfranchising Amendment" than that of the Independent Citizens' Union, published on the first page of the SENTINEL this week. We would suggest that those who read it will help a good cause by giving it to some neighbor and friend that he may read it.

A GREAT OUTRAGE.

No greater outrage has ever been perpetrated upon our modern civilization than that committed by Murray Vandiver, Chariman of the Democratic State Central Committee, in his address to the voters of Maryland, published in the Baltimore Sun, Thursday, September 16th, in an unholy effort to bolter up a lost cause.

This is making the "Disfranchising Amendment" THE ISSUE of the campaign with a vengeance. Mr. Vandiver and his party are willing to sacrifice everything, even the peace and prosperity of the States of the South for the benefit of the selfish Democratic ring of Maryland, whose only hope by the passage of the amendment is its own perpetuation in power.

The Southern States faced their great problem, and each State solved it for itself. Maryland never had it and never will, and thoughtful men in the South, irrespective of party affiliation, must deprecate this effort on the part of Maryland politicians to revive sectional prejudice, which can accomplish no good purpose and bring no benefits to the Southern States.

If there were no other ground why the iniquitous effort of the Democratic oligarchy of Maryland to so entrench itself in power that nothing can remove it should be overwhelmingly defeated at the polls in November, the argument of Murray Vandiver would furnish an all-sufficient reason.

WILLIAMS WILL LEAD TO VICTORY.

In the parlors of the Hotel Rennert, Baltimore, on Wednesday, Mr. Frank E. Williams, of Cecil county, was notified of his nomination for state comptroller by the Republican State Convention. Every district was represented on the notification committee, which was headed by Gen. L. Allison Wilmer, of Charles county, who spoke for his colleagues, and his splendid and worthy tribute to the Republican candidate received the enthusiastic applause of all who heard it.

Mr. Williams in a forceful and comprehensive address accepted the nomination, outlined his policy and defined the issues of the campaign. We regret that lack of space prevents the publication of his magnificent address in its entirety, for it should be read by every voter and taxpayer in the State.

He served notice on the Democratic party, that while it may seek to make the "Disfranchising Amendment" the "vital issue of the campaign," that the Republican party will not permit the thought of the people to be diverted by such a trick from other issues just as vital. The following excerpt from his address will give some idea of these issues;

But a word as to their management of the state's fiscal affairs. They are never more complacent in descanting on that subject, chiefly, I presume, because most people know little about it and cannot make them speak by the card. When the venerable and most worthy gentleman who once again lends his good name to a pernicious political machine as its nominee for comptroller and member of the Board of Public Works, when Dr. Joshua W. Hering (of whom I have no word to say that is not kindly and entirely respectful) complacently emphasizes the efficient and exemplary management of the state's finances under this Democratic machine. I am compelled to cite the facts. I am compelled to say that the Comptroller's own reports disprove it; that the explosion of the State Auditor at last winter's meeting of the Governor's cabinet disproves it; that the story of the sale of the state's holdings in the Washington branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad disproves it; that the action of a Republican treasurer, Gen. Thomas J. Shryock, in funding the State's debt into a 3 per cent. bond disproves it; that the record of Republican comptrollers, Hon. Robert P. Graham and Hon. Phillips Lee Goldsborough, in recovering debts long overdue the state, in recovering tax bills against four of our railroad companies on their gross receipts (which the state had not made any effort to collect) and in compelling state collectors (notably clerks of the circuit courts) to observe the law regarding their returns to the state treasury, that this record also disproves it, as it is further disproved by other facts which we shall adduce when time and occasion will better permit.

And now, if your patience would endure the strain, I should not hesitate to question their record on the most gigantic and most expensive enterprise which this state has ever undertaken. Just let me say that when we call into question the methods and the showing of the State Road Commission, we are not questioning the propriety and necessity of good roads themselves Our platform expressly indorses them. We do decline, however, to indorse or approve the record of the road commission, and later in this campaign we shall submit to an intelligent and fair-minded citizenship our well-founded contention that the people of this state are not justified in assuming the burden of a $5,000,000 indebtedness (and maybe as much more if the Governor carries out his express intention of asking the next legislature for another appropriation of $5,000,000) without the most careful scrutiny of the efficiency and methods of the commission which controls the project.
