My very dear Ann.

Here I am again with my dear daughter! - you can imagine how grateful I feel to a merciful Providence who has preserved us thro' so long a journey and restored me in safety to my loved ones here. I was very glad to have the opportunity of seeing Anne & Hannah & Galloway, for even a few hours, but I do regret not being in Phila^a while you & the S^rs are there. upon hearing of your intention of being there this week I proposed to Annie that we should go home immediately to meet you, for indeed I long to see you, and to talk over our many mercies, but
