you I have no words to say and if it was not such a very long ride I should beg you to come up in a Buggy with Harry & stop at Mrs Norman Hennis House is coming in that way I believe with her Brother. My best love to the Dr & the Boys my love to Mary Carson & Sally Reese tell me of them when you write. I fear that ride would be too much for you, if I could I would go to see you, but tis impossible for me to leave home now, I fear we cannot move about as we have done for years, it was a great comfort to see Harry after Harvest I shall look for him again If you should have the opportunity with you send me a half a dozen Stockings for Willie as he was the only one missed & for Maggie as hers are too small you can guess at their sizes I cannot tell you what kind friends I have in the Romans. all of them, but Henry is my fancy Mrs Simons is very nice. I have come to the end of my paper but not my heart love to Mary & yourself & Sister

June 24th

I received the Box and your nice letter three days ago I was very much obliged to you for getting the things for me, they were all most satisfactory & so nicely packed. Now that we seem to have hit upon a way of communication do write to me, I am very anxious to hear of sister Margarets improving, and all about each one of my relations & friends, I have written very often to you, several letters were returned to me lately that I had written, as at one time they prohibited any one coming in to Alex
