& a half, there is no hurry about them as I have sil of the common ones which will do very well for some time Mrs — has sent the rest of the things home they are lovely, beautifully made & I am so much obliged to you for all the trouble you have taken for me. Cad want Mamma to pay Annie Buckley for the things the bill was very moderate, I will you so much dear Mrs Morris & do hope that you will come on soon I am truly glad to hear that Letitia is coming on I will write to her at once, but there is no reason why you should not come on too, I am sorry to say we dont see much of the Doctor, I suppose he is very busy, Sally was at Chestnut yesterday they are all well there.

I saw Mrs Dobson this afternoon, she seems to think that Mary will
