SIDE TWO

at 9 o'clock, or any other time that may suit you -
It will be such a great pleasure to us to have another quiet chat -
I beg to remain yours sincerely
Louisa Bartlworth

not seem to think ~~to~~ keeping child scheme her. but I can't help thinking it wd. Do you re member how it schemed Mr Aunt Maria?- I intended asking you if I saw you, if you find a moment to drive at all, to go once to see her while I am away - She is with Lizzie in a small house near where Mr Atwall used to live - Uncle Dick or any of the servants could take you. I don't know that it is necessary but it would gratify her. She says Christ is with her all the time and feels so near she wants no body else as he is bearing her in his arms all the ~~while~~ - My Papering is nearly over, and I've doubt you wish yours was as nearly finished so as to be rid of confusion and dirt. Good bye - I shall be back if nothing happens Saturday week. Love to Mary from Your affte Cousin
Sally

I have told Uncle Dick to take your hate home
