For the Sentinel.

Surprise to Mr. Shellman.

The "T. W. M." club of young ladies, entertained the "Bachelor's Club," and a few friends at their club rooms on Saturday evening last, in honor of the 21st birthday of Mr. J. Meriwether Shellman, who for the past two years has held a position in the Treasurers office of the B. & O. R. R. in Baltimore. The rooms were tastefully decorated with autumn leaves, corn and grain, and lighted with pumpkin lamps, and wax candles, the club initials being conspicously displayed, and causing much guessing as to their mystical meaning, which is closely guarded by the members. One of the gentlemen interpreted them as "They won't marry" and "The world mourns." A mound of fruit and leaves ornamented one end of the centre table, and on the other was a large birthday cake with 21 tiny red candles spelling the name "Jim," and guarded by a black cat, symbolic of Hallow E'en. Favors of stick pins in the form of skulls, witches hats and brooms, and other appropriate devices of the day were hidden under the foliage surrounding the cake. Many games and trials of fortune were indulged in until eleven P. M. when refreshments were served in abundance. The entertainment was a complete surprise to Mr. Shellman, and was greatly appreciated by him as his love for his home and friends does not grow less warm and sincere because of new friends and other surroundings. Several members of the clubs were unavoidably absent. Those present were: Misses Eugenia Fouke, Lilian Fink, Caroline and Sue Billingslea, Margaret Bennett, Marie Shriver, Lottie Leigh Billingslea and Frances Seabrook and Messrs. J. Meriwether Shellman, Robert Billingslea, Wm. and Earle Simpson, Paul Reese, Smith Billingslea, Levine Billingslea and Prof. Benson. Another pleasant surprise for Mr. Shellman was his promotion in the B. & O. offices, for faithfulness and efficency.

Spells of headache, side ache, backache;

Sometimes rheumatic pains;

Often urinary disorders.

All tell you plainly the kidneys are sick.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all Kidney ills.

Here is proof in Westminster.

David N. Myers, living on John St., Westminster, Md., says: "My sister thinks there is no remedy in the world to equal Doan's Kidney Pills and I also think very highly of them. Before I procured a box for her at Chas. W. Moore's drug store she had suffered from kidney trouble for over two years. She often complained of pain through her back and also had distressing attacks of dizziness. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills she has been in excellent health and is now feeling fine, without a sign of the old trouble."
