AMERICAN SENTINEL.

WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. SEABROOK, WILLIAM L. SEABROOK, } Editors.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12 1909.

$200,000 GONE FOREVER.

The Baltimore Retail Merchants' Association announced on Saturday last that up to that time 1000 persons had taken advantage of the specious, though seemingly liberal, offer of a rebate of railroad fare for a distance not exceeding 100 miles to every purchaser of $20.00 worth of goods.

This means that at least $20,000 has already gone out of the communities, represented by these purchasers, never to return, for no retail merchant of the city ever sends a dollar of it back to the county. This means that if the ratio of expenditure keeps up until Christmas, for the offer holds good until that time, nearly a quarter of a million dollars will go out of the counties of Maryland, never to come back. The man who spends a dollar with any merchant in his home county always gets his share of it back in course of time. The home merchants have invested thousands of dollars in every town in Carroll in the erection of their store-rooms. Carpenters, masons and other builders put these thousands into circulation. Hundreds of clerks and other employees pass it on to the butcher, the baker, the grocer; and these in turn pass their share over to the farmer for butter, eggs, grain, vegetables.

In a word, no argument is needed to prove that if the people of the county in any considerable number are caught by the bait thrown out by foreign merchants, every home in the county must suffer. If, instead of patronizing the merchants of Westminster, New Windsor, Union Bridge, Taneytown, Hampstead, Manchester, Mt. Airy, Sykesville and other towns of the county, our people, for the sake of what seems to be a temporary advantage, turn their backs on their home merchants, business decreases, fewer clerks are employed, money produced in the county goes out o circulation, and in time everyone feels the result.

OUR POLICY.

To anyone, who is familiar with the advertising columns of the SENTINEL, it is not necessary to say that it has been our policy, never varied from, to refuse to publish advertisements inviting our people to send their money out of the county. In these columns, there is not now, nor has there been, a single foreign advertisement. Scarcely a week passes that such advertisements are not offered from mail order or other houses. We believe that it would be possible to fill our columns with such advertisements and for them receive more money than from local advertisers, but, while we are out for the money, money is not everything. We stand first for the building up of the county, and so long as the people of Carroll support us with their subscriptions, their advertising and their job printing, it would not only be a poor business policy, but the acme of ingratitude if we did not stand by them.

Will They Try It Again?

Governor Crothers, it is stated, has declared his intention to recommend to the Legislature the passage of a law to again submit a disfranchising amendment to the voters of the State. It seems hardly conceivable that the Governor is serious in making this declaration. Such a course would add force to a saying that has become axiomatic: "Whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad." The gods, to be sure, have nothing to do with this or any other human action, but men do often, in a frenzy, pursue a course that leads to their own destruction, or to the overthrow of some project or organization in which they have a vital interest. And this would likely be the result of another attempt to force a disfranchising amendment to the constitution of the State upon the people of Maryland, who must be very weary of the persistent efforts of the Democratic Ring to gain perpetual power by this method.

It is more than probable that such an attempt would lead to as great a disaster to the Democratic party of the State as befell the party in this county at the recent election. Of the 14,000 or more Democrats who voted against the amendment last submitted it is more than probable that enough would vote the Republican ticket, in another contest of the sort, to reverse the Democratic majority of 1909 and elect a Republican Governor and Legislature in 1911, if they are not already seriously considering such action.

It must be that those Democrats who believe in fair dealing cannot much longer continue to be particeps in the trickery by which thousands of voters in the State are defrauded of the due effect of their ballots, and must realize that the only relief from this condition is to be found in a sweeping Republican victory. They have the best example of the effect of such a victory in the elections of 1895 and 1897, by which, for the time being, the corrupt cabal that had so long dominated the State and perpetrated untold outrages upon the rights of its opponents, was overthrown, and of the salutary effect of those Republican victories. Those who were voters at that time know that a fair and just election law was passed and other much needed laws enacted; that the ballot was purified and the State immeasurably benefited by that legislation. They know that it must be desirable to all fair-minded citizens that the State should return to the conditions which then prevailed. They must surely be weary of the contrivances by which the Democratic managers continue to defraud their opponents of their rights, and they must know that the only hope of putting an end to these conditions lies in a Republican victory.

And so, whether the people shall be called upon to engage in another struggle over the question of disfranchisement or not, those Democrats whose votes overwhelmed the amendment at the recent election, should determine to suppress the ring that dominates their party, by defeating it at the polls in 1911.

The South Rejoices.

The SENTINEL has frequently called attention to the fact that in the attempt of the Democratic machine to force a disfranchising amendment upon the people of Maryland, the South was being betrayed by its so-called friends. Last week we quoted the Richmond, Va., Times--Dispatch, coinciding with our view of the situation. Now comes the Commercial--Appeal, of Memphis, Tennessee, one of the strongest newspapers in the South, rejoicing at the defeat of the amendment and sounding to the Democrats of Maryland the note of warning. The Commercial--Appeal says:

"If Democratic leaders continue to play this kind of politics, they will make a Republican State of Maryland. With four whites ... every negro in the State, it is absurd to say that the colored man and brother cannot be kept in his place. If four white men can't eliminate one negro, then they deserve nothing better than to have negro domination thrust upon them. Let us hope that we shall hear no more of this absurd issue in Maryland, which is overwhelmingly a white man's State."

Manchester Items.

A most complete surprise was given Mr. Thomas Shaffer, one of our prosperous young farmers north of town, on Thursday evening, 4th inst., it having been his birthday anniversary. Mr. S. practices the old maxim "Early to bed and early to rise," &c., and in the early evening was enjoying a foot bath when a commotion on the outside was heard and suddenly thirty or more neighbors and friends rushed into the room and made him captive. In the confusion and embarrassment he did not realize the meaning but when Mr. A. R. Lippy put in his appearance he caught on to the trick. After fully taking in the situation he soon was in trim to join the merry company that had come fully equipped for a good time and fun was alive until a later hour, when the hostess combined her preparations with those of the company so that all enjoyed a royal setout. The midnight hour was in sight ere the good nights were said, with many kind wishes that Mr. S. would enjoy many more anniversary occasions.

The chicken and waffle supper held by the members of Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., in the I. O. O. F. Hall, on Friday and Saturday evenings of last week was well attended and the ladies have a neat sum to add to their treasury. They gave a social in the hall on Tuesday evening, after their regular meetiing, that was largely attended and a pleasant time enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Nelson Warehime, who was quite ill last week with brain trouble, is convalescing and bids fair to completely recover.

Mary P. Farr, field secretary and library organizer, Maryland State Library Commission, was here on Tuesday and arranged to start a circulating library with one case of books. A move will be set on foot to organize a town library and reading room in the Firemen's Hall, in the near future, which should receive the favor and interest of every citizen of the town and community.

Mr. Harvey Smith has moved from his home here on South Main street to his lately purchased home, 1½ miles on the Westminster road.

The Gettier Cigar Company and Mr. C. Masenhimer are working many hours overtime to fill their rushing orders.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Wheeler, of Baltimore, groom and bride, and their brother-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lippy, of Hampstead, were guests at the home of Mr. William Haines on Sunday last. Mrs. W. was Miss Ella Baubitz, who lived in the family of the Misses Trump for some years and had a large circle of young friends who extended their congratulations.

Mrs. Frederick and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Perkins, of Baltimore, were guests at the home of Mrs. Julia M. Motter, on Sunday. Mr. Chas. W. Motter entertained the visitors to tea on Monday and gave a company in their honor in the evening.

Mrs. Henry H. Miller, familiary known as "Granny" Miller, nearing her 93rd birthday, is extremely ill, from gangrene and paralysis, at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. David L. Brown, near Millers.

Some of the wells of town went dry during the last week.

Mr. Bert Bubb, of Glen Rock, paid us a flying visit on Tuesday, looking his best.

Mr. Jacob A. Frederick has finished his contract near Belair, Harford county, and has returned home with his carts and horses for the winter.

Messrs. Albert Brilhart and Ephraim Garrett have had their homes nicely painted. Mr. Wm. A. Burgoon did the work.

Circuit Court.

The November term of the Circuit Court for Carroll county began here on Monday, with Chief Judge William H. Thomas presiding. Mr. Richard B. Owings is crier, and Mr. C. Carroll Henry, messenger. The following are the bailiffs: Mr. Uriah Zentz, bailiff to grand jury; Mr. Orestes Feeser, bailiff to petit jury; Messrs. Clarence Myerly and Wm. W. Boyer, bailiffs at the gates.

The following are the members of the juries:

M. C. I. Notes.

Miss Bessie Wine entertained the other members of the graduating class and a few friends on Saturday evening

Our latest enrolled students are Guy Hartmen, of Kauffman, Pa.; Claude Etzler, Linwood; Talmage Hoover, Wakefield.

The astronomy class has taken advantage of the excellent opportunity of observing Mars, which is now nearer to the earth than it will be for twenty-five years. They have also trained the telescope on the other visible planets.

On Nov. 6, Prof. W. M. Wine passed through Washington county, Md., and Franklin county, Pa. He found many people interested in the school. We are expecting a number of students from that section soon.

The grange picnic was a grand success from start to finish, financially and socially, and was largely attended from far and near by people, all of whom seemed to enjoy themselves hugely, even the politicians. Mr. Michael E. Walsh, of Westminster, was present on Saturday night and made us a very encouraging and eulogistic speech on agriculture, after which Mr. Grove J. Shipley gave a short address in behalf of the Smallwood Grange, and tendered Mr. Walsh a complimentary vote of thanks for his kindness, in the name of the grange.

The judges of the awards upon the horses and colts, &c., were Messrs. Luther M. Bushey, of Freedom; Upton M. Gladhill, of Medford, and J. Thomas Roop, of Westminster.

We wish to close this report by tendering our sincere thanks to all our visiting friends for the interest they took in us during our first annual picnic.

A Party.

One of the pleasantest events of the season was a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Hollinger, on Saturday evening, October 30th. The evening was spent in playing the usual games and social conversation. Promptly at ten o'clock all were invited to the dining room where refreshments awaited them. After expressing themselves as having had a very pleasant time the guests all departed to their respective homes. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Noah M. Hollinger, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dutterer, Misses Lillian Zahn, Bertie Koontz, May Lippy, Edna Maus, Esther Kauffman, Maude Hollinger, Mary Frock, Mary Brown, Luela King, Florence Kelly, Sarah Kemper, Alma Null, Emma Kemper, Cora Myers, Elva Hull, Emma Frock, Mary Dutterer, Margaret Hahn, Grace Dutterer, Messrs. Reformed Orphans' Home.

At the recent meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed Church, held at Woodstock, Va., it was decided to take steps to apply the bequests of the late George W. Hoffman and to establish an Orphans' Home of the church, to be known as the George W. and Agnes Hoffman Orphanage, on the tract of land about five miles from Littlestown, Pa., in Adams county, given by Mr. Hoffman for that purpose. The following board of directors was named: Revs. T. J. Barkley, D. D., F. S. Lindaman, Ellis S. Hay, C. S. Slagle, D. D., A. M. Gluck, and E. Bruce Lyttle; C. S. Duncan, Esq., H. M. Hartman, M. D., and Messrs. J. H. Maus, G. M. Conover, Oscar D. Gilert and John L. Gerber.

Christian Endeavor Social.

The Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of St. John's, (Leister's) Lutheran Church, gave a Hallowe'en social at the parsonage of Salem charge, Pennsylvania avenue, this city, on Friday evening, 28th ult., which was a very pleasant and enjoyable affair. Rev. R. W. Doty, the pastor, and his wife did everything in their power to make the function a success and fully succeeded in their efforts. The parsonage was tastefully trimmed with autumn leaves, chrysanthemums and Hallowe'en novelties. Mrs. Doty was assisted in receiving by the officers of the society. A literary and musical program was rendered consisting of recitations, several instrumental solos and duets, vocal solos &c. Several of the most attractive society songs, in which all present joined, were sung during the evening. An elegant luncheon was served and enjoyed by the large number of Christian Endeavorers present.

KEEPING IN TOUCH WITH HOME
"Hello, Son—Are you Having a Good Time?"

IT IS wonderful how much satisfaction can be obtained from a talk over the Bell Telephone.

A letter carries words, but the Bell Service has been brought up to such a point of perfection that the modulations of the voice are clearly heard.

The cheery tones show that the talker is well and in good spirits. The call may come from a suburban village or a distant city, but within the limits of the carrying power of the voice the Bell Service carries the tone as well. You get a personal interview with a friend hundreds of miles away.
