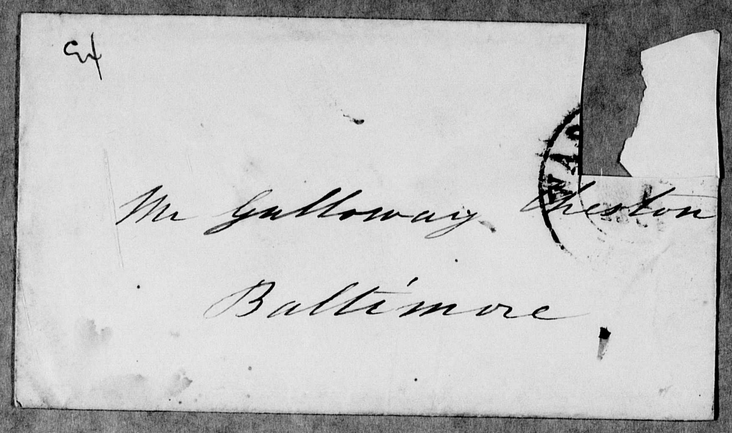
n.d. Galloway Cheston incoming letters 1844

SIDE TWO



Mr Galloway Cheston
Baltimore

could. I look anxiously for letters from you all cut off entirely now from the South I have to hear the often from the North I try to be contented & happy, but am sometimes most beside myself. I do long to see you all and if any of you can come will meet with a hearty welcome somehow I look for Mary & Sister Ann & if Mary should come up in the Cars do tell Sally Cheston to come to see Mary. My best love to Sister Margaret I hope she continues to improve We are all well. ever yr affe sister

If nothing prevents Joseph Crandell will take down to Alex — a load of Wheat on the 4th August to procure a few articles with. I shall hope to have letters by him if you will ask my friends to write about — that time. And will you please send to Mary a few Hyacinth roots, that she may have in the House this winter she is trying again to have some Flowers, hers were destroyed this Spring she is very fond of them and all that she could get since she got home are growing nicely, also
