DEFERRED LOCALS.

Manchester Items.

Manchester, Dec. 7th, 1909.—The mad dog scare of a week ago though somewhat lulled is still a subject among the every day talk, and every strange dog is looked upon with suspicion, as there is no telling what that rabid dog did, as he was on the run for some days. He first appeared on the turnpike at Mr. Crumrine's four miles north of town where he bit Mr. Crumrine's dog; then from there on to town he bit quite a number of dogs. Some have been killed but several are still chained up and no doubt some time in the future will do some damage, as they will be turned loose after the excitement has died away. Little George Shower who is taken to Baltimore every day for treatment, is cheerful and bears up well under the painful ordeal of everyday treatment, and the professors are very much pleased with his condition.

The annual election of officers of Daniel and Jacob Lodge No. 23, I. O. O. F. resulted as follows, on Saturday night 4th inst.; N. G., Wm. A. Burgoon; V. G., Henry Gensler; R. S., H. F. Leese; Fin. Sec., J. R. L. Winks; Treas., N. Armstrong; Chap., J. E. Masenhimer; Mar., Geo. S. Motter;—Trustees, J. W. Burns, David Barnhart, H. N. Burgoon, Wm. A. Wolf and G. W. J. Everhart; Janitor, Jno. E. Leese; Rep to Grand Lodge, W. L. F. Burgoon.

Mr. J. R. L. Wink moved into his house on York street on Thursday of last week and C. Roeder occupies the house vacated by Mr. Wink on Foundry avenue. Mr. Neader of Hanover, occupied the house vacated by Mr. Roeder. Mr. Rill of Hanover, occupied the house vacated by Mr. Harvey Smith on south Main street and Mr. J. W. Trump moved into the Bosley house on same street.

Mr. George Theiret on south Main street gathered an egg from the nests of his Rhode Island Reds last week that measured 8 inches by 6 inches in circumference and weighed 5¼ ounces. When he opened the egg there was a fully developed hard shell egg on the inside and the space between the shells was filled with albumen.

For some weeks farmers from Baltimore county have been hauling hay to Hanover, four to five tons on a load, but Mr. Martin passed through town, on Tuesday with the largest load that ever went into Hanover. It contained six tons less 460 lbs., and certainly was a monster load in construction and required the most careful driving with eight horses, over the rough roads.

Mr. Carroll Warehime, an employee in the T. W. Mather store, has bought the farm of Mr. Edwin Wantz, his father-in-law, at Lineboro and will occupy the house in April. His brother-in-law, Mr. Leonard Kopp, is the present occupant.

Rev. Bausman, of Enola, Pa., occupied the pulpit in Trinity Reformed church on Sunday last, improving the occasion in the interest of the mission he is serving in that new town which is springing up at the yards of the Pa. Railroad four miles from Harrisburg, where they are building a chapel.

Our stores are showing a fine display of Christmas goods and certainly have displayed fine taste in their trimming get up.

Mr. Samuel Houck and son Gardiner, of Baltimore, spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Miller, enjoying the butchering jubillee of their monster porkers.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Wentz, spent Monday in Baltimore. Mr. W. is now having his vacation from his R. F. D. duties which are attended to by Mr. Thurd Wentz, of Melrose, his substitute.

Mrs. M. L. Morelock is visiting friends in Baltimore. On Thursday of last week she gave a carpet rag party at her home, where 27 of her lady friends spent a pleasant evening and enjoying refreshments at 9.30 P. M.

Pleasant Valley Items.

Pleasant Valley, Dec. 7th, 1909.—Today, Dec. 7th, is the first day's rain that we had to amount to any thing since the last week in June.

Mrs. Washington Louey and son Earnest have returned home after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baughman and other relatives in and near Winchester, Va., having enjoyed a delightful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Helwig and Mrs. John Utermahlen visited Rev. Wm. Earhart near Lineboro last Sunday.

Miss Naomi Renner of Littlestown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hattie Myers.

While Mr. Wm. A. Myers was cutting wood in the woods the ax caught a limb above him, cutting an ugly gash in his left foot. The accident happened on Nov. 24th, and up to this writing he is still suffering with the wound. Dr. J. J. Stewart had to put seven stitches in it.

Mr. Edward Welk has purchased of Mr. John Senft his nice little property, near here, on the Furnace woods road, for eleven hundred dollars. This property was formerly owned by Mr. Rufus Starner.

Mrs. Aaron Leister has purchased of Mr. Howard Heltebridle his home which lies near the Pleasant Valley and Stonersville road.

The annual Christmas service will be held on the usual date, Christmas eve, Friday, Dec. 24th.

The young boys who stole J. Roy Myers's steel traps on Wednesday night, Dec. 1st, had better return them at once, if they want to avoid further trouble. He knows who took them. I also make this statement to warn their parents to investigate the way their boys are getting traps.

On Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. Washington Myers entertained Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zepp and Mrs. Granville Black, of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morelock, of Cranberry, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Wantz, of Fountain Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bitzel, of Westminster, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black, Mr. and Mrs. John Myers and son Robert of Pleasant Valley, Edward and Vernon Black, Misses Fannie Myers, Pauline Myers, Lillie Wantz, Esta Holings; Messrs. Earl and Ralph Myers. A sumptuous dinner was served to which all did justice.

Mr. Noah Powell is improving his property in this place by building a large porch which will add very much to its appearance.

Melrose Items.

Melrose, Dec. 8th, 1909.—On Saturday last Mr. Titus Bucher butchered. We have not learned the weights of his hogs, but they must have been been immense as Mr. Stermer, the butcher, broke his saw early in the morning.

Talk about trolley lines and trolley cars. We had something to beat anything that ever went through Melrose. Last week a load of hay belonging to Mr. Royston; of Hampstead, drawn by eight horses passed through here to Hanover. It weighed 5 tons 1550 pounds. Hay brings $16.00 a ton in Hanover.

Mr. Ezra Frock, of Bachman's Valley, slaughtered six porkers weighing 1500 pounds and a beef that dressed 444 pounds. The enterprising butchers of Melrose, Houck and Berwager, did the work. Unfortunately one of the butchers forgot the necessary tools—the knives—and, not being able to get them by phone, he was obliged to drive back to Melrose to secure the missing tools before he could go on with his work.

As the piece of meat is soaring out of reach of the average man, we must adopt the customs of the Chinese—live on a diet of rice and fish.

The mad dog scare has not yet subsided. Some valuable dogs that were bitten have been shot but yet we feel timid about making too close an acquaintance with the dog family, especially strangers or those who act suspiciously.

Dandelion flowers in profusion, mellow sun and warm air on Dec. 5th, is an indication of mild weather during December. As it has been very dry, is that an indication of an abundance of snow before spring greets us again?

Winfield Items.

Winfield, Dec. 7th, 1909.—Most of the farmers of this locality are through with their fall work and are waiting for the Christmas time to come.

A very good lot of porkers have been slaughtered in this vicinity, but there are some to kill yet.

Miss Mary Roberts of Westminster, visited her relatives and friends near this place within the last week.

Miss Maggie Frizzell, near this place, visited Miss Lamore Zepp within the last week.

Miss Jamie Macleod and Miss Grace Pickett of Day visited Miss Addie Barnes the latter part of last week

So many young ladies are very industrious in sewing, but be careful boys you don't get your coat sleeves sewed shut. Sometimes, you know, they go out for a stroll. Be careful boys for when they come back they are prepared to play jokes.

Several of the people of our community attended the funeral of Mr. Webster Snider, which took place at Springfield Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Revival service is still in progress at Ebenezer M. E. Church. Large crowds have been attending and the behavior was very good.

Health of community is good.

A Surprise For Miss Bixler.

The young people of Mechanicsville gave Miss Eva S. Bixler a complete surprise at the home of her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Wells on the evening of Nov. 30th.

The young people began to arrive at about 8 o'clock and after being cordially received and the surprise made known all were invited into the parlor where they joined in singing "It Looks to me like a Big Night to Night."

The remainder of the evening was spent in taffy making and the playing of various games.

At about eleven o'clock refreshments were served in abundance.

At twelve thirty all departed for their homes wishing Miss Bixler many more pleasant surprises.

Those present were: Dr. R. F. Wells and wife, Master Earl Wells, Miss Gertrude Wells, Miss Eva S. Bixler, of Manchester, Miss Laura Pauder, Miss Eva M. Shipley, Miss Blanche C. Leister, Miss Pauline Barnes, Miss Viola Barnes, Mr. Walter Shipley, Mr. Gilbert Brown, Mr. Jarrett Shauck, Mr. Bayard Arnold, Mr. Edward Bollinger, Mr. John Rosenburger, Mr. Worth Barnes, Mr. Carroll Caple, Mr. Leslie Oursler, Mr. Leslie Gorsuch, and Mr. U. B. Griffee.

Miller's Items.

Millers, Dec. 7th, 1909.—The Sunday School is busy rehearsing for its Xmas entertainment to be held Friday evening, Dec. 24th. The committee is trying its best to make the program a very interesting one.

Miss Elsie Deagen spent several days recently among friends at York, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther S. Wentz and son Vernon spent last Sunday visiting the formers sister, Mrs. Mordecai Boring, who has moved from near Stiltz, Pa., to the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Barber.

Mr. Henry Rinehart killed two hogs last week that weighed 720 lbs., and Mr. Geo. O. D. Hoover, three weighing 330, 327 and 297 lbs.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, of Old Fort visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Barber last Sunday.

Mr. John K. Miller and daughter, Miss Fern, spent Thursday of last week at York, Pa.

SALE BILLS printed at this office cheap and attractive. Give us a call.

M. C. I. Notes.

Union Bridge, Dec. 8th, 1909.—Mr. George Troupe, a student, of Hagerstown was suddenly called to his home on Monday evening on account of the death of his mother.

On January the 23rd, 1909, Dr. John Merritte Driver delivered a lecture in the assembly hall on the subject, "America Facing The Far East." This was, without doubt, the strongest lecture ever given in any of our courses. He will appear again on the 16th of December. His subject will likely be "Ultimate America" or "The Future Destiny of The Anglo-Saxon."

Mr. A. C. Wine, of Denton, Md., is expected here on Dec. 15th. He will attend the lecture and spend a few days with his parents and friends here.

Bethesda Mite Society.

The ladies' Mite Society of Bethesda M. E. Church held its last meeting at the residence of Mrs. Jennie Klee. After the business of the session had been completed refreshments were served and all spent a very enjoyable evening. Those present were:

Mesdames Emma L. Shipley, Ruth A. Shipley, Carrie Murphy, Margaret C. Phillips, Elizabeth Ridgley, Martha E. Phillips, Cora Parker, Maude Buckingham, Kate Buckingham, Eliza Gorsuch, Pearl Davis, Mary Blizzard, Hattie A. Barnes, Gertie Barnes, Lela Barnes, Icydene Smith, Ursula Wilson, Caroline Barnes, Andie Shipley, Jennie Klee, Carrie Stouffer, Mattie Barnes, Elizabeth Bellison, George Shipley, Bessie Barber, Eliza Shalp, Elizabeth Wheeler, Cora Selby, Mary Vile, Laura Braunning, Elsie Klee; Misses Emma McWilliams, Mittie Miller, Virgie Murphy, Minnie Pool, Dona Pool, Elsie Easton, Rena Snyder, Caddie Buckingham, Katie Murphy, Edith Myers, and the following children: Myrtle Murphy, Maggie Murphy, Mable Stubbins, Burkley Barnes, Julia Barnes, Merce Shauck, Helen Smith, Viola Barber, Alva Stouffer, Margaret Wilson, Wheeler Wilson, John Barnes, Roland Pool. Hammond Barnes and Sterling Barnes.
