A HELPING HAND.

IS GLADLY EXTENDED BY A WESTMINSTER CITIZEN.

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Westminster prepared to tell their experience for the public good. Testimony from such a source is the best of evidence, and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement:

John Stem, Main St., Westminster, Md., says:" A few months ago one of my relatives procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at C. W. Moore's Drug Store and they did him so much good that I decided to give them a trial. My trouble came from an injury I received at least ten years ago. My back was very weak and I suffered severely from pains through my loins, which greatly handicapped me in doing my work. I tried many remedies, but received little relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I can recommend them as a reliable preparation for kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. feb 4 2t

TOO MUCH TO BELIEVE.

"I should like to be excused, your lordship," said a man who had been summoned on a jury in England.

"What for?"

"I owe a man five pounds and I want to hunt him up and pay it."

"Do you mean to tell this court you would hunt up a man to pay a bill instead of waiting for him to hunt you up?"

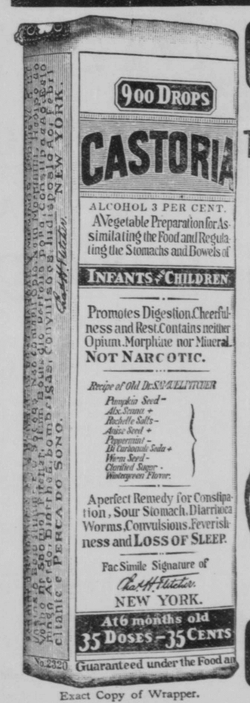

"Yes, your lordship."

"You are excused, I don't want any one on the jury who will lie like that."—Cassel's Journal.

Basket Ball.

Westminster, Jan. 26, 1910.—The basket ball season at the college began last Saturday, when the Seniors defeated the Freshmen 18 to 15, and the "Preps" fell down to the "Sophs" 61 to 21. The Freshmen showed themselves to be in the race by their skillful dodging and passing, but their lack of ability to "shoot" goals defeated them. Bowers and Weaver were undoubtedly the "stars" of the game. On the contrary the Seniors showed themselves to be very weak in passing and lacked "team" work. The Preps sprang a greater surprise even than the Freshmen. In the first half they outplayed the "Sophs," but the latter took a brace in the second half and clinched the game. For the "Sophs" Thomas was the leader with 41 points to his credit; Birdsall and Sprague also played a fine game, the latter "shining" with his good passing. For the "Preps" Capt. Turner played a fine game with his "dribbling" and good defensive work, while Brown was the best in "offense."

THE SCORE:

SENIORS	vs.	FRESHMEN
Wiley	R. G.	Cecil, Billingslea
Whealton, (Capt.)	L. G.	Weaver
Gill	C.	Cooper
Tipton	R. F.	Bowers, (Capt.)
Cover	L. F.	Regar

Goals, Whealton (1), Gill (3), Tipton (1), Cover (1), Cooper (2), Weaver (4); Fouls, Gill (6), Bowers (3).

PREPS.	vs.	SOPHS.
Dukes	R. G.	Thomas
Downes	L. G.	Devilbiss
Turner, (Capt.)	C.	Sprague
Price	R. F.	Roberts (Capt.)
Brown	L. F.	Birdsall

Goals, Thomas (19), Sprague (1), Roberts (2), Birdsall (7), Brown (5), Price (2), Downes (1), Turner (1); Fouls, Turner (3), Thomas (3).

WHAT HIS SIDE WANTED.

Samuel Untermeyer was being congratulated at the Manhattan Club on his recent successful conduct of a murder case. The distinguished corporation lawyer modestly evaded all these compliments by the narration of a number of anecdotes of criminal law.

"One case, in my native Lynchburg," he said, "implicated a planter of sinister repute. The planter's chief witness was a servant named Calhoun White. The prosecution belived that Calhoun White knew much about his master's shady side. It also believes that Calhoun, in his misplaced affection, would lie in the planter's behalf.

"When, on the stand, Calhoun was ready for cross-examination, the prosecuting counsel said to him sternly:

"'Now Calhoun, I want you to understand the importance of telling the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth in this case.'

"'Yas, sah,' said Calhoun.

"'You know what will happen, I suppose, if you don't tell the truth?'

"'Yas, sah,' said Calhoun, promptly, 'Our side'll win de case.'"—Louisville Times.

Famous Puzzles.

The puzzle corner of "The Philadelphia Press" is as interesting and popular as ever. It is a regular feature every Sunday, and the contest is open to everybody. One hundred American bunting flags are distributed every week to the successful contestants. Flags are 36 inches wide by 60 inches long. The stripes are sewed, not printed, in fast colors. The prize Jig Saw puzzles are interesting to grown-ups as well as to the little ones. They are a great fad and amuse for hours. Order "The Philadelphia Press" and solve the puzzles.

A FACT ABOUT THE "BLUES"

What is known as the "Blues" is seldom occasioned by actual existing external conditions, but in the great majority of cases by a disordered LIVER.

THIS IS A FACT which may be demonstrated by trying a course of

Tutt's Pills

They control and regulate the LIVER. They bring hope and bouyancy to the mind. They bring health and elasticity to the body.
