A Surprise Party.

Quite a lively time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Zile on Valentine night. Games were indulged in until a very late hour and all seemed to have a fine time. It was hard to tell youth and old age apart as the old turned young again and forgot their rheumatism others remarked that they had laughed until their sides hurt, so we think all enjoyed a good time. At a late hour all were invited to the dining room to refreshments which consisted of different kinds of cake, candies, nuts and lemonade. Those present were:

J. Wesley Zile, and wife, James Robertson and wife, Calvin Cook and wife, Claude Myerly and wife, Herbert Myerly and wife, Mrs. Tibitha Summers, Mrs. Elizabeth Owing, Mrs. Wivie Cook, Mrs. Harry Summers; Misses Mary Gladhill, Blanche Owings, Hazel Gladhill, Jenette Cook, Fern Summers, Beryl Summers, Florence Myerly; Messrs. Phenas Shipley, Archie Keefer, Howard Myerly, Wesley Cook, Alger Myerly, Walter Cook, and Herman Myerly.

A Pleasant Social.

In honor of Miss Elsie and Mr. Roy Wagner, on Feb. 9th inst. the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kanaugh, of near Flint Hill, was the scene of much joy and pleasure. At an early hour the invited guests began to arrive and were ushered by the honor bearers into a large and commodious new building properly decorated, well lighted and heated for the occasion. Every one present seemed to enjoy themselves hughly in social chat and party plays of various kinds until 11 p. m., when all were kindly invited to the dining room to partake of refreshments, which consisted of a full supply of various delicacies of the season. It would be useless to say that the new building was properly initiated and that the occasion was one long to be remembered by all present. At 12 p. m. the audience began to prepare to depart for their respective homes. They all, however, remembered the host and hotess and the honor bearers for their kindness and wished them many more happy returns for their kindness. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. John Kanaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wagner; Misses Nora Penn, Annie Davis, Mamie Farver, Emma Conaway, Ethel Barnes, Dessie Myrley, Elsie Easton, Rena Snyder, Virgie Murphy, Edith Smith, Blanche Smith, Clara Smith, Ada Glover, Dena Carr, Elsie Wagner, Glayds Shipley, Melvie Shipley, Mae Byers, MaryBloom, Bertha Williams, Gladys Williams, Grace Carr, Mazie Bowersox, Viola Shipley, Iva Kanaugh, Mamie Kanaugh, Alma Kanaugh, Mary Kanaugh; Messrs. Arthur Conaway, Raymond McQuay, Edward Barnes, Donald Miller, Clarence Glover, Walter Barnes, Clarence Conaway, Geo. Glover, Clifton Carr, Walter Haines, John Goodwin, Roy Snyder, Frank Davis, Earnest Haines, Thomas Bower, Roy Conoway, Gilbert Gibson, Roy Bowersox, Ablert Null, Riley Farver, Atlee Conaway, Harry Byers, Paul Easton, Albert Linton, Albert Magin, Harrison Shipley Truman Knaugh, Samuel Smith, Amon Shipley, Jesse Shipley, Ray Brown, Willie Blomm, Luther Myrley, Oscar Wills, Carroll Williams, John Wills, Reuben Williams, Arthur Wills, Reuben Pool and Roy Wagner.

A Carroll County Citizen.

"Some years ago, when I wanted to buy a good country home on which to pass my latter days, I made extensive quest in various parts of Virginia and Maryland, within easy ride of Washington and Baltimore," said Mr. V. W. Power, the noted horseman, at the Belvedere on Monday last.

"Finally, I decided that there was no more beautiful or desirable region anywhere than Carroll county, Maryland, and, accordingly, I purchased a very pretty and fertile farm of 350 acres near Westminster. I would not give my place, acre for acre, for any rural property in a dozen states. The advantage of owning a home in Carroll is the excellent railway service. I can get a train at almost any hour which will bring me to Baltimore, while I am reading my copy of The Baltimore American. In many parts of Virginia the development of the country districts is seriously hindered by the miserable railway service. The trains are few and far between, and this, by adding to the isolation of rural life, is a hindrance to settlement. In this rapid age a man must be able to get to town quick or else the country can never claim him."

Mr. Power has bred some famous running horses in his time. Veterans of the turf recall how one of his noted flyers, Gwyn, got first money at the amazing odds of 150 to 1, and how later Slidell did the trick at 50 to 1, the betting ring suffering in the first instance to the tune of $70,000, and in the second the bookmakers owning up to a $50,000 depletion of their rolls.

Melrose Items.

Since the creamery here is closed it seems dull. Your correspondent asked one of the watchmen why they continued to keep everything at a standstill. "You must go to higher authority," was the reply.

Truely this is an old time winter. On Friday evening it began to snow quite rapidly which with a solid foundation of ice bid fair to make good sleighing. On town was startled by the "chug chug" of an automobile. They passed through here all right but the automobile swore it wouldn't go up Dug Hill, and it didn't. Next morning the machine turned back to go to Hanover and amidst many spectators it was helped up the hill and soon was pushed over the hill and out of sight.

M. C. I. Notes.

Miss Helen Markel, who had been confined to her bed on account of an injured ankle, is about her work again.

For several weeks Miss Anna Snader of New Windsor, Md., who was ill of typhoid fever is improving.

The Farmer's Institute held here on the 11th and 12th, was a great success and was well attended. Besides the regular corps of lecturers, Mr. J. P. Weybright of Detour spoke concerning the value of silo. Mr. R. A. Nusbaum, (our "honey boy") gave a very interesting lecture on the subject of bee culture.

Prof. J. Walter Englar was unable to attend to his school work last week on account of sickness. He has not thoroughly recovered but is about his work this week.

Several of the teachers and students attended the lecture in Taneytown on the 15th, by Dr. Chase. They report a fine lecture on the subject; Big Bugs and Humbugs, and further say that Dr. Chase cannot be classed with either of these bug families.

On Wednesday evening, March 2nd, at 8 P. M., Mr. Phidelah Rice, a reader and impersonator, will give the fourth number of the lecture and entertainment course in the auditorium. Mr. Rice received his professional training at the famous Leland Powers school and comes very highly recommended.

STRAIN TOO GREAT.

Hundreds of Westminster Readers Find Daily Toil a Burden.

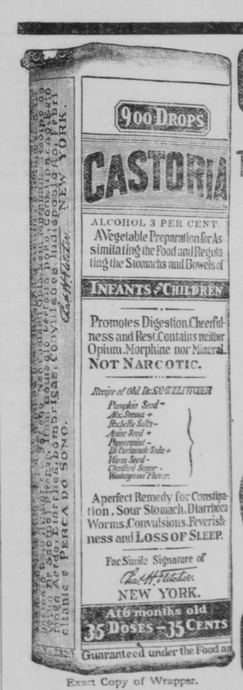

The hustle and worry of business men.
The hard work and stopping of workmen,
The woman's household cares,
Are too great a strain on the kidneys.
Backache, headache, sideache,
Kidney troubles, urinary troubles follow.
A Westminster citizen tells you how to cure them all.

A. L. Williams, Liberty St., Westminster, Md., says: "I consider Doan's Kidney Pills an efficient remedy for Kidney disorders. At the time I began their use, I was greatly troubled by a weakness in my back, became tired and was so languid that my work was a burden. I also suffered from attacks of dizziness and felt miserable in every way. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to try them and procured a box at C. W. Moore's Drug Store. I had taken them only a short time before there was a great improvement and I continued their use until all the difficulties were corrected. It gives me much pleasure to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills?

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.
