Miss Romain Young and Miss Margaret Little are on the sick list.

Highlandview Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Buckingham entertained the following guests Sunday Feb. 13th.: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Barnes and Miss Ivy Mumford of Porters, and Mr. and Mrs. Resin Buckingham, Mr. Bowersox and Mr. Myers of Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. William Black visited Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Stambaugh on Monday Feb. 21st.

The Highlandview boys serenaded the new bride and groom Friday Feb. 18th.

Our neighbor, Mr. John Goodwin, has destroyed the crows' sleeping quarters by cutting down the pines. We hope Mr. Goodwin will be kind enough to provide for the silly crow. Maybe our game warden will give him instructions.

Mr. Raymond Goodwin has united with the P. O. S. of A., No. 15, at Winfield.

Our public school is progressing under the instructions of its teacher, Mr. W. W. Jenkins.

Our merchant, Mr. T. L. Condon, is doing a rushing business.

Mr. E. H. Jenkins who was on the sick list is able to be out again.

Mr. Geo. Mullinix is also improving.

Mr. S. M. Stambaugh is having lots of fun running his toy gasoline engine.

Mr. J. H. Hancock, Jr. is spending a few days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hancock, afterwards he will resume his regular work in Baltimore.

Uniontown Items.

Uniontown, March 3, 1910—Mrs. Clara Crabb of Hagerstown was a recent visitor at her father's Mr. Wm. Bausts.

Mr. Newton Gilbert of Annapolis spent from Sunday till Wednesday with his parents here.

Mr. David Stem of Baltimore, has been spending several days with relatives in and around town.

Several weeks ago some parties, supposed to be unknown, went on the property of Mrs. Hannah Dutterer, near Woodside creamery, and sawed one of her large well bearing apple trees down and dug out the roots. There is no excuse for such malicious deeds, even to satisfy the curiosity of those who might have heard the old time story that Judge Foutz, a former owner of the property, had placed a box of money under one of the trees while planting the orchard. The perpetrators of the act might have to pay the penalty for wilful trespassing.

On Wednesday Elder W. P. Englar accompanied Miss Margaret Harman to San Mar, the "Church of the Bretheren Home", where she will make her home for a while. Another of our former citizens, Miss Eliza Wilson, has been there since last fall and speaks highly of the home.

The young folks of the Lutheran church here are making arrangements to give an entertainment in the Mechanic's hall on the evening of the 17th of March. The exercises will consist of recitations, dialogues and a comedy. All are invited to come and enjoy the hour.

Word was received on Tuesday by Mr. Charles Sittig of the death of his only sister, Mrs. Louisa Morris of Oil City, Pa. She was well known here.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Narrows, W. Va., were at Mr. James Cover's over Sunday.

A company which exhibited moving pictures entertained an audience at Mechanics hall Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Mr. Frank Haines has taken a position as salesman in Mr. Edward Formwalt's store.

Mr. Harry Haines went to Philadelphia on Tuesday to secure employment.

Mr. Wm. Davis and son, Herbert, left for Waynesboro on Thursday.

Mr. Charles Clingan has gone to Washinton, D. C. to accept a position.

There are quite a number yet on the sick list. Mr. John Clingan has been confined to the house for more than a week.

Mr. Wm. Rodkey, who recently purchased the property his son Charles lives on from Mrs. Mary Cover, is adding a kitchen and otherwise improving the same.

Manchester Items.

Manchester, March 3rd, 1910—Miss Fannie G. Ross gave a taffy party to the members of her Sunday school class on Monday evening that was an enjoyable affair.

Rev. Bayer, a licentiate of the Gettysburg seminary, filled the pulpit for the Rev. H. H. Flick on Sunday last. Rev. F. has been closely confined to his room with grip for several weeks.

Rev. Lowe of Philadelphia will preach trial sermons in the Manchester charge on the 13th inst., at Snydersburg on Saturday afternoon, 12th inst.; at Bachman's on Sunday morning; Lineboro, Sunday afternoon and in Emanuel Lutheran church here at night.

An infant child of Mr. Calvin Kexel of Hampstead was laid away to rest in the Lutheran cemetery on Thursday last.

Mrs. Julia M. Motter is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Clarence Jones of Baltimore, spent several days here with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Snyder.

Mr. Fisher Hare sold his home, 1 mile east of town, and will leave with his family, in company with several other families, for Illinois about the 1st of April.

The days of this month are all booked for sales that are largely attended and stock, particularly hogs, are bringing fabulous prices.

Moderation has had quite a tussle with the ice and snow banks but where the fog came to the rescue they had to melt away and leave plenty of mud along our high ways.

This is the 9th week that they have been digging at the well of J. R. L. Wink on York St. They are blasting through a hard blue rock mixed with flint. At the depth of 63 feet they have found water.

A quiet wedding took place at the Reformed parsonage on Tuesday evening last. The contracting parties were Mr. Jacob Warehime and Miss Annie Lippy, eldest daughter of Allen R. Lippy, west of town on the Bachman's road, where a reception was given them during the evening. Kunkle played a prominent part in the celebration.

Warfieldsburg Items.

Warfieldsburg March 3rd, 1910.—At present the weather is very warm and rainy and the drifts that laid along the roads are moving away very fast. Blue birds and robins have made their appearance which makes us feel that spring is drawing near, which we are sure we will all be glad to see.

Mr. Keefer who has been on the sick list is very much improved.

Spring sales have started but will not be as numerous in our section this year as they generally are.

Mr. John Baile is still on the sick list.

Mr. H. M. Koontz and wife visited Mr. Keefer and family on Sunday evening last.

Movers will very soon be packing up and moving to their different homes. There will not be so many changes in our section this year.

Mr. H. R. Deardorff and wife visited Mr. H. E. Royer and family on Sunday last.

Preaching at the Bethel Church of God on Sunday at 3 P. M., by the pastor, Rev. V. K. Betts.

A company enjoyed a delightful time at a party given by Mrs. Vernon Barnes at her home, near this place, Wednesday the 23rd. It was called by courtesy, a quilting party, but went far beyond such an occasion in some of its features. A sumptuous dinner was served about noon. Those present were: Mesdames J. W. Zile, James Robertson, Elizabeth Owings, Nace Harris, Harry Summers, Wivie Cook, and George Phillips; Misses Blanche Owings and Iantha Barnes; Masters Walter Cook and Randolph Barnes.

Melrose Items.

Melrose, Md., March 3rd., 1910—Mr. Augustus Riffle had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse by sickness last week.

Your correspondent has seen many business signs, large and small, but none so strange as that in front of J. H. Markle's house in Pleasant Hill, York Co., Pa., Be sure you are sober when you pass there and then you will doubt yourself and wonder how the reading of the sign changes as you pass by.

Talk about freight traffic! On Saturday the B. V. engine was loaded to its utmost with boxes, barrels, &c., when it came back from Intersection. The brakeman was compelled to sit up on top of the engine to hold down some freight packages that could not find a place anywhere else on the train and the engineer had to hire someone at the throttle so that he could manage to keep the rest of the freight at its place. The whistle blew at every cross road to let people know they were coming. A man of the advanced age of 76 was the fireman. All worked together to get all the freight to its destination.

Melrose may be dull in some things but with the trolley coming and perhaps some manufacturers coming here and a church later on, we are not so far behind the majority of towns of this size. We have two telephone lines thus keeping us connected with the rest of the world.

Measles are prevalent in Krideler's school neighborhood.

Smallwood Items.

The Deer Park Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. John L. Shipley at Bird Hill on Friday, February, 25th. We were welcomed by our hostess with a joyful and smiling countenances and the pleasantness seemed contageous and prevailed throughout the afternoon. About two o'clock the members and guests all having arrived the meeting commenced in due form with our president Mrs. Elizabeth Wardenfelt in the chair. Among the other business that was transacted there was a committee of three appointed to write resolutions on our departed member, Mr. Joshua Lockard.

When the meeting adjourned you would have thought school let out, for each member had so much to say to one another until the whole round of friends were talking at once, or seemed to be. The members and visitors partaking all the while of the refreshments that were abundantly served by our hostess and her daughter. Among those present were: Mesdames Fannie Buckingham, Martha Bowers, Octavias Saddler, Gertrude G. Baker, Laura Wagner, Elizabeth Davis, Mollie Bollinger, Maggie Conaway, Julia Paynter, Maggie Beard, Elizabeth Wardenfelt Mary Hoffman, Fanny Davis, Mary C. Barker, Mary Holmes, Mamie Shipley and Daisy Gorsuch; Misses Lizzie Williams, Ella Barber, Amanda Williams, Sadie Bollinger, Mamie Shipley, Vergie Davis, Eva P. Barber, Stella Bowers, Alice Hoffman and Lily Lamden; Messrs. John L. Shipley, Chester Shipley, Harman Wardenfelt, Robert Baker, Mitchell Shipley, John Shipley.

An Enjoyable Party.

On Wednesday Feb. 23 the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas C. Wright, near Taylorsville, was the scene of a delightful party given in honor of Misses Zola N. Streaker and Amy Fleming. Bad roads and long distances proved but slight obstacles and the house was soon filled with merry young people intent upon enjoying themselves. The time was spent in plays, social conversation and various kinds of music notably among which were several choice selections rendered by the young vocalist of Woodbine to whose growing fame the admiring guests, with one accord, paid glowing tribute. After refreshments were served, but too soon the hour arrived for the guests to bid their young hostess good night and seek their homes and Morpheus well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Olie Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Fleming, Mrs. Julia Franklin; Misses Amy Fleming, Zola Steaker, Grace Condon, Nina Stambaugh, Georgia Gosnell, Mary Gosnell, Mary Buckman, Ethel Streaker, Lizzie Wolbert, Carrie Wolbert, Nola Jenkins, Sherman Buckingham, Bessie Franklin, Cora Franklin, Stella Duderer, Margie Waltz, Lelia Franklin, Elvie Dorsey, Margie Lowman, Nona Penn, Annie Davis, Mary Franklin; Messrs. Delightful Surprise.

A most delightful surprise was given to Mrs. Amanda Hering and Mr. Fenby L. Hering and family of Finksburg on Wednesday evening, March 2nd. About fifty persons gathered in order to express their appreciaton of the above named family. The evening was spent in charming social intercourse. All were abundantly served to ice cream, cake, home-made candy, oranges and lemonade.

Mr. and Mrs. Hering have sold their mill property and will move to Westminster in the near future. Sincere regret is felt in having to lose them from the neighborhood, but they have the best wishes of a host of friends for their success.

Those present were: Mrs. Amanda Hering, Mr. Fenby L. Hering and family, Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Cassen, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gist, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Marion Leister, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Shreeves, Mr. and Mrs. Bertron Blizzard, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bentz, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. CURE YOUR KIDNEYS

Do Not Endanger Life When a Westminster Citizen Shows You The Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney disease, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Brght's disease sets in. Read this Westminster testimony:

James F. Rinker, Esq., justice of the peace, Main St., Westminster, Md., writes: "This is to certify that I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with excellent results. I cheerfully endorse them as a reliable remedy for kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. mar 4 2t
