SIDE ONE

To Dr. Caspar Morris.

I have already informed you my dear Sir of our inability to pay fifteen hundred a year for this property and we now offer to you $1400. under the condition that we can procure a large house for a less sum than offered, but we really are so much averse to moving, that we shall go to the utmost limit of our means so that we can but stay.

Very truly & respectfully Yours
Amelia S. Morris.
