Dear Sir —

My publishers think we shall be able to make room for a memoir of Dr. James, provided it do not exceed ten or twelve printed pages. It will, therefore, afford me pleasure if you will prepare such a paper, handing it in at an early day.

In saying yesterday, that you might make your memoir of Dr. Mütter as long as you pleased, I take it for granted that you did not misapprehend my meaning. Some of the sketches are to extend 40 or 45 pages, while most of them will not exceed 25.

Yours, very respectfully, your friend,

S. D. Gross

Dr. C. Morris
