Esteemed Friend

I received thy kind letter yesterday, also Charlotts very interesting letters, for all of which I thank thee, I am pleased with thy intention of conferring such a favour upon our Children for it will certainly be a great comfort to them to find their House in nice order for their reception and home rest, after all the fatigue of travelling and weariness of a Sea voyage Will not the Third Story front Chamber require Papering as it is for their visitors – Paper is cheap; The change of the play room will be an improvement – if the Heat pen
