James Chestow
Anne Morris
Caspar Morris.
vs.
Samuel Chestow.
Galloway Chestow
Fanny H. Chestow &
Daniel Murray.

In Chancery
March Term 1844.

This cause standing ready for hearing, and being submitted and no exception having been taken to the return of the Commissioners appointed to make partition of the real estate mentioned in the proceedings as allowed by the rules of this Court, the proceedings were read and considered. It is thereupon this twenty fifth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty four by Theodorick Bland Chancellor and by the authority of this Court, and the assent of the parties hereto of record adjudged ordered and decreed that the return of the said Commissioners be and the same is hereby ratified and confirmed.

And it is further ordered adjudged and decreed that the Complainant James Chestow shall hold in severalty and not jointly, or in common with the other parties to this suit all that part of the land in the proceedings mentioned which is described in the aforesaid return of the aforesaid Commissioners and the plat accompanying the same as follows to wit.

All that part or parcel of ground contained within the metes and bounds courses & distances following. Beginning for the same on the East side of Holliday formerly Lemmon Street southwardly fifty feet from the southeast intersection of Holliday and Fayette Streets, and running thence southwardly bounding on Holliday Street eighty three feet four inches thence eastwardly parallel with Fayette Street thirty one feet ten inches to the Eastern boundary line of the whole ground conveyed by John R. Dall to Ann Chestow by deed dated the twenty seventh day of October Eighteen hundred and twenty four, then running and bounding on said out line Northwardly eighty three feet four inches and thence Westwardly to the place of beginning. Which said parcel of ground is designated on