AMERICAN SENTINEL.

WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

JOS. D. BROOKS, Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 1910.

As the price of meat is high it is now up to the hens to get busy.

Dr. Wiley says chickens may be kept nine months. Would it not depend on the kind of neighborhood one lived in?

A California woman lost over a thousand dollars through a hole in her stocking. The moral is obvious.

The Democratic party is like Mr. Micawber; it is waiting for something to turn up.

For a city with without graft Baltimore seems to need considerable investigating. The Park Board is now in the limelight. What next?

At the present prices of meat and wool if Mary now had that little lamb she could sell it and buy two or three spring hats.

A Kansas editor in describing a speech made by a congressman said: "His celluloid cuffs rattled like a barn door in a high wind."

From the excuses that are being offered by Digges, Marbury and Machen we think they are very much like the fellow who said: "If I had'nt a did it I would'nt a did it."

If all the men who think about going back to the farm, should go, there would be a big surplus of farmers. In the olden days they used to say that no man was too ignorant to be a farmer, but now it is very, very different.

A gentleman was asked to review an article written by a friend on the subject of phrenology and among other things he wrote was this statement: "I find in the article somethings that are true and somethings that are new, but the things that are true are not new and the things that are new are not true."

The farmers of this county are now prosperous and he who imagines they are going to vote to remove the duty on wheat in order to make bread cheaper or the duty on cattle in order to make meat cheaper is going to be fooled. This is a rural county and the prosperity of the farmers means the prosperity of the citizens of its towns and villages. The people of the latter must not make the mistake of imagining that they can get goods cheaper by reducing the price of farm product. If the necessaries of life should become cheaper perhaps the where withal to purchase them will not be at hand.

We are still hopeful of seeing a good man come forward who is willing to assume the responsibilities of the Mayor's office for the ensuing term. We see no reason why one of our heavy tax payers should not do so, because the ones that pay the heavy tax bills are the ones most interested financially. If it were a corporation matter the heavy stockholders would not care to put a small stockholder in charge. So come on gentlemen and do your duty to the public. Some of you made your money in this community and we think it is only fair that you now give the public the benefit of your ripe judgment. This also applies to members of the Common Council.

Senator Rayner says the Democratic party can win this fall if it does right and does not make any mistakes. There is the rub. When was it the Democratic party did not make a mistake? It has been making them for the last 50 years and will continue making them for the next 50. How about nullification in Maryland and South Carolina? Did you ever hear of the Republican party nullifiying anything? Major Venable, a gallant Confederate soldier, says nullification means war; and he ought to know. When the Major helped in the effort to nullify the constitution he shouldered his gun because he knew that nullification meant war and that war meant hell. How many of the Democratic members of the present legislature were ready to shoulder a musket in defense of their act of nullification? We think most of them would have been found hiding in the pines of Southern Maryland. Democrats not making mistakes? Gwan.

The Democratic party has no remedy to offer for any real or imaginary ill with which the country is alleged to be suffering. It hopes the Republican party will make a mistake and thereby give it an opportunity to acquire a little temporary power. It has had a half dozen remedies, during the past twelve years, for all the ills then alleged to be prevailing, none of which the country accepted and all of which have been since repudiated by the party. Suppose the party does elect a majority of the next House of Representatives what will it benefit the country? The Republican party will still control the Senate and the Presidency. With the Democratic party in control of the next House the country will be at a stand still. No legislation of national importance could be enacted and the Democratic party would be the laughing stock of the country just as it was during the last term of Mr. Cleveland. The Northern Democrats will not submit to Southern dictation and the Western Democratics will not agree with either of them.

In recent years an impression has prevailed that the second Congressional district is hopelessly Democratic. We do not believe it. The present representative has been defeated and can be defeated again, provided the Republican party nominates a proper person. That the district does not desire the election of Mr. Robert Garrett, the recent Republican nominee, there seems to be no doubt. He has been twice nominated and as often defeated; the last time by a very pronounced majority. Mr. Garrett's friends may again urge his nomination but we hope they will not do so. He is a splendid citizen and would make a very creditable representative but we do not think he is the proper one to cope with the present representative. We need a candidate who can get down on a level with the people of the district and win their support. The present incumbent amounts to absolutely nothing and the district has been misrepresented for years. He is a good natured, hale fellow and has a very extensive following, some of whom like him for the enemies he has made and some for his genial personality. The Republican party cannot defeat him by abusing him. The fight this fall must be made upon principle.

For a number of years the Hon. J. C. F. Talbott was either defeated in the primaries or at the election. He became so incensed with the Democratic politicans of this county that he tried to have the State redistricted so that this county would become a part of the old 6th district, which at that time, as now, was heavily Republican. The Democratic politicians of this county were enabled to defeat his scheme and the war was kept up until a few years ago when all of them suddenly saw a great white light. A State office was about to become vacant; one of the leading politicians of this county wanted it; the Hon. J. F. C. T. had influence with a majority of the members of the board having the appointive power; the Hon. J. F. C. T. wanted to get back to Congress and get his name on the government pay roll; the politican of this county wanted his name on the State pay roll; the thing was easy; the deal was made and the Hon. J. F. C. T. now gets the five votes from this county in the nominating convention and the politician enjoys the emolaments of a state office. Since the deal was put through, and as a sequence to it, several other citizens have been and are now enjoying the pleasure of being on the State's payroll.

We have related the above, which can be substantiated at any time, not for the purpose of finding fault, but to show some of the anti-organization Democrats of this county, who have been consistently supporting Mr. Talbott while the organization men were as consistently defeating him in primaries and at general elections until they all saw the great white light, that when it became necessary for him to secure enough votes in a convention to insure his nomination he had to buy his political enemies with offices.

W. M. PROSPECTS BRIGHT.

The Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railroad Company is planning the construction of large freight yards at Dawsons Run, Pa., to accommodate the increased traffic alliance between the New York Central Railroad Company and the Western Maryland Railroad Company. The new yards will be used by both the Western Maryland and the Pittsburg and Lake Erie.

The latter company has already taken steps to acquire the necessary site upon which to build the freight yards, and it is said that negotiations have already been closed covering property valued at $100,000. The engineering department is understood to be preparing plans for the construction work. It is reported that a large roundhouse will also be built, which will furnish housing for 20 engines.

The traffic agreement between the Western Maryland and the New York Central will not become effective until the Western Maryland has completed the extension which it is now building from Cumberland, Md., to Connellsville, Pa. It is not anticipated that this work will be completed prior to October 1911. The benefits accruing to the Western Maryland from this alliance will be substantial. It will have all the advantages of the improvements outlined by the New York Central system, and a decided increase in the tonnage of the Western Maryland is looked for, once the traffic plan becomes operative. Additional facilites will be required to handle the increased business, but these the officials say, will be provided in due time.

Geo. S. Yingling, M. D., D. D. S.

An illustrated edition of The Seneca Advertiser of April 11th, 1910, published at Tiffin, Ohio, contains the following in regard to a native of this city:

"Dr. Geo. S. Yingling, Insurance Supt. of Agents, 88½ S. Washington street. Dr. Yinging is a native of Maryland; born in Westminster, Carroll County, December 31, 1839. He obtained his education in the public schools of his native town. He then entered the University of Maryland and graduated therefrom in 1862. In 1871 he graduated from the Washington College of Medicine, and in the same year from the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery. The Doctor practiced dentistry for one year after his graduation, and medicine for several years after his army service. In August, 1862, he was appointed assistant surgeon of the 101st O. V. I., and was afterwards appointed assistant surgeon of the 164th O. V. I., serving his time out with this regiment. He was commissioned assistant surgeon of the 27th U. S. A. C., also served as an examiner of drafted men under Captain Steiner during the war. Also a member of Military Order of Loyal Legion, Grand Army of the Republic, and Sons of American Revolution. For a number of years Dr. Yingling was engaged in the wholesale cigar business, during which time he introduced his famous non-nicotine cigars. For 15 years he devoted his time and energy to life insurance, being the very efficient and enterprising District Superintendent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, one of the best and largest insurance companies of the kind in the United States. He is now the efficient general agent for the Connecticut General Life Insurance Co. of Hartford, Conn. On January 9, 1866, the Doctor was married to Miss Emma C. Tomb (now deceased), having died but a few weeks ago, and to this union four children were born, viz.: Carrie, Jennie E., Lila A. and John G. The doctor is and has been for years a prominent member of the Baptist church of this city and is an honorable and upright citizen."

Dr. Yingling is a son of the late Joshua Yingling who was a prominent and wealthy merchant of this city, and a brother of Mrs. Jane Coon of Liberty street, this city.

The Demon of the Air

is the germ of LaGrippe, that breathed in, brings suffering to thousands. Its after-effects are weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranted by C. W. Moore.

Worse than Bullets.

Bullets have often caused less suffering to soldiers than the eczema L. W. Harriman, Burlington, Me., got in the army, and suffered with, forty years. IN MEMORIAM.

ALDRIDGE.—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband James A. Aldridge, who fell asleep one year ago, April 21st, 1909.

Dearest husband how I miss you,
Since from earth you passed away,
And my heart is aching sorely,
As I think of you each day.

I am lonely, sad and weary,
My troubled heart doth mourn,
That the world should seem so weary,
For I feel that I am all alone.

As death has robbed me of my husband,
And tears now often fill my eyes,
My life has changed my joy has fled,
As I life's path alone must tread.

By his loving Wife.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear son, James A. Aldridge, who died one year ago, April 21st, 1909.

"Loved in life and in death remembered."

How we watched his dear pale face,
How we watched to hear him call,
How we miss you dearest Jimmey,
No tongue but ours can tell,

My heart is sad and lonely,
My grief is deep to bear,
I'm going soon to see him
Where no grief nor pain to bear.

O, Father in Heaven, 'tis thy will,
My son with Thee will dwell,
Then give me strength my grief to bear.
My Jimmie, farewell!

By his loving Mother.

In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Hannah Costley, who departed this life one year ago, April 20th, 1909.

Each day your smile grew fainter and higher
Each day higher did the life flame heavenward climb,
Even so your spirit kept watch till summoned home to Heaven.

You passed through Glory's Golden Gate and awoke in Paradise.
Oh, dear mother, we are lonely and often long for thee.
How often we miss thy counsel since thou we cannot see,
We all are longing to meet thee but often go astray,
Dear mother, plead with Jesus to keep us in the right way.

By her two daughters, Marian and Mitche.

In commemoration of Margarette A. B. Shipley.

Just one year ago to-day, loved one,
God took from me the boon His love had given,
This life is transitory and full of aching sorrow,
And to you it has ceased to bring tomorrow.
But to me, tomorrows are only yesterdays
And present life is transitory, too.
So when my work is finished here, at last,
May I have treasures rich and true,
And come to Heaven and dwell with you?

By her husband, Grove J. Shipley.

Rev. Jesse Eckard, one of the oldest citizens of Uniontown district, quietly passed away Thursday, April 14th, 1910, at the residence of his son-in-law, John W. Duvall, near Dennings, aged 85 years, 11 months and 14 days.

"Gone but not forgotten."

Sleep dear husband and take your rest,
God took you home; He thought it best;
It was hard indeed to part from thee
But God's strong arm supported me.

By his loving Wife.

Farewell, dear father, a long farewell;
For us you have labored for many years;
You have always striven to do your best,
Now you have gone to take your rest.

Dear father thou art gone before us,
God would not permit you to stay,
When the form of death o'ercomes us;
Meet us father on the way.

By his Children.

IN RE.—The Estate of Mary E. Bachman, deceased.

At a hearing held in open Court on April 21st, A. D. 1910, the Court took evidence for the purpose of ascertaining whether the presumption of death of the said Mary E. Bachman is established; and after hearing evidence on the part of the petitioner, Noah Brown, the Court was satisfied that the presumption of the death of the said Mary E. Bachman has been established,—

It is therefore adjudged and ordered this 21st, day of April, A. D. 1910, by the Orphans' Court of Carroll County that the presumption of death of the said Mary E. Bachman has been established.

And it is further ordered that notice be given by inserting a copy of this order for two successive weeks in a newspaper published in Carroll county, Maryland; and that the said Mary E. Bachman, if alive, or any other person for her, shall produce to this Court within twelve weeks from the last insertion of said notice as above provided, evidence satisfactory to this Court of the continuance of life of the said Mary E. Bachman, and if such evidence shall not be produced as above required, Letters of Administration upon the estate of the said Mary E. Bachman, will be granted to the person entitled thereto.
