AGASSIZ ASSOCIATION ITS ARCADIAN HOME.

Natural History Organization Has Prominent Incorporators—Doing Great Work.

President David Starr Jordan, Leland Stanford Junior University, is one of the incorporators of the Agassiz Association, the certificate of incorporation of which has just been recorded at the office of the town clerk of Greenwich, Ct. Other names of incorporators are those of Hallan H. Ballard, the first president of the association; Dr. Leland O. Howard United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, and Dr. Edward J. Bigelow, the present president of the association.

The Agassiz Association founded in 1875 for the study and diffusion of natural history and scientific knowledge, has entered upon a still greater field of activity than in the past, and news of its expansion will be eagerly read by the many members of its hundreds of chapters in towns and cities throughout the United States and foreign countries

The association is one of the few in which the officials work for pure love of nature and for the diffusion of knowledge, without financial remuneration. This unselfish spirit has enlisted many of those persons in the association, who may be classed under the heading of real naturalists.

At Arcadia, Ct., there has been established the headquarters of the organization and facilities for summer-school work. These facilities include aquaria, vivaria and other departments for observation. Dr. Bigelow, the president in his report just made, dwells upon the demand for a moderate sized observatory at Arcadia. He also announces the increased circulation of the official magazine, the Guide to Nature, which embraces articles beautifully illustrated on personal natural history work by members of the Agassiz Association and other seekers after knowledge.

Those interested in natural history work and in forming a chapter of the association may receive full information by addressing Dr. Edward T. Bigelow, Arcadia, Sound Beach, Ct., or C. L. Wilhelm, state superintendent, American Building, Baltimore, Md.

"Kicked by the Elephant."

"Among Lincoln's circus stories," said a Cincinnati veteran, "was one about a Delaware tough.

"A circus," Lincoln's story ran, "visited Newcastle, and the town tough turned out the afternoon of its arrival to see what sort of a circus it was.

"A canvasman, making his usual round shouting, 'Off the guyropes, there! Off the guyropes!' came suddenly on the town tough who was leaning against the canvas tent wall in the sun, smoking a corn cob.

" 'Ye wuzn't talkin' to me, wuz ye, stranger? said the tough, hunching up his shoulders very wickedly.

" 'Oh, no, sir,' said the canvasman, frightened by the tough's size. 'I only just wanted to warn you, sir, that it's a little dangerous to lean against the tent that way, as the elephant might kick you, sir.'

"The tough snorted with contempt.

" 'Drat yer elephant,' he growled, 'I'll clean out the hull show, elephant an' all, if ye give me any of yer lip.'

"The canvasman slunk off humbly, and a few minutes later went inside and told the boss. The boss, who weighed over 200 and stood six feet six in his socks, chuckled and took up one of the enormous mallets used to drive in tent pegs.

" 'Show me where he's leaning,' was all he said.

"The canvasman led the boss to the place where the tough's form made a long, oval dent in the tent wall. The boss, chuckling again, fixed his eye on that spot, just below the tough's coattails, where the dent was deepest, and swinging the mallet twice round his head, he struck with all his might.

"There was a dull thud, a cry of pain and fear, and the tough leaped 10 feet, then made off down the road as fast as he could run.

" 'What's the matter, Pelez?' the inhabitants shouted as he tore through the town. " 'Been kicked by the elephant' he replied."—Detroit Free Press.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE.

Westminster People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease.

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so unmistakable that they leave no ground for doubt. Sick kidneys excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back aches constantly, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighed down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger of dropsy Bright's disease, or diabetes. Any one of these symptoms is warning enough to begin treating the kidney at once. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Westminster proof:

Jesse F. Stem, Pennsylvania Ave., Westminster, Md., says: "I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, as they have been of great benefit to me I am confident that other kidney sufferers will find them just as satisfactory. Three years ago I suffered from backache and lumbago and at times the pains in my lions were so persistant that for several days I was unable to work. A friend at length advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a supply at C. W. Moore's Drug Store. They gave me great relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. apr 29 2t
