1865 Cooper Harris

SIDE ONE

Sunday night.

I was quite disappointed last night in not seeing Sam & account for his detention in one of two ways either that he is sick or that Father & Mother were come with him tomorrow & want help hoping the latter is the true explanation. I presume I shall hear tomorrow morn.

This has been a much less oppressive day than yesterday or the day before & this eve it is very comfortable.

Went to hear Revd Mr Dubois this morn as I had a patient in the neighborhood of his Church — preached a very good, practical sermon from the text — "For I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content."

Dined at home, & being obliged to go to Jos Spence Sts after Church time, I came