AMERICAN SENTINEL.

WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

JOS. D. BROOKS, Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, MAY 27, 1910.

The new city administration is to be congratulated upon its first work.

It is about time for the Republican party to take charge of affairs in Maryland.

With rows in New York, Tennessee and several other places the Democratic party will have about all it can do to attend to its own business.

The next Governor of Maryland will be a Republican. Better get on the wagon this year. You will feel more at home next.

The Republican party in Carroll County is united. It has no bosses and will present a solid front in the next campaign.

The Republican party is strong enough to stand an argument. At present we are having an example of its elasticity. In the fall every break in the ranks will be closed up. Watch things.

More graft investigations for poor old Baltimore. It will never cease, however, until the Democratic machine is smashed by the election of a full Republican ticket.

The Democratic Board of Public Works tried to sell $1,500,000 of 3½ per cent State stock but only sold $500,000, and that at considerably below par. It only shows what the business men think of the present Democratic administration.

With 50, 60 and 70 scholars in the lower grades of our High School and only 12 in the graduating class, there must be something wrong between the two extremes. What has become of the balance of the scholars? And why?

When it came to the test those "irreconcilable differences" in the Republican party, so loudly proclaimed by the Democratic press, failed to materialize. It is now up to the Democratic prophets to make another guess.

We want our boys and girls to have proper play grounds. They are like the shipwrecked sailors who were surrounded by water but could get none to quench their burning thirst.

Our children have land all around them but not an acre upon which they can quench their thirst for physical culture and pleasures. The matter should receive the immediate attention of the present city administration.

An ordinance of the town of Princeton, N. J., relating to vehicles and traffic generally contains the following words: "The word vehicle includes equestrians, led horses, and everything on wheels or runners except street cars." The authorities of the town are now wrestling with the following questions which have arisen under the ordinance: "Is a boy on roller skates a vehicle?" "Is a beautiful young lady gliding gracefully over the ice surface of Lake Carnegie a vehicle?" "Is a goat a horse?"

We are not prepared to make any suggestions on the subject except to say that in the hands of some people a horse is often a goat.

The Democratic party has for the last 50 years offered all sorts of panaceas for the real and imaginary ills which have afflicted the body politic. One of them, the notorious Wilson tariff law, was finally tried by the people, and it resulted in 46 cent wheat and a Coxey army of unemployed. Every other remedy has been repudiated by the people and the party.

The Democratic party has simply become one of opposition. It is opposed to everything that exists, save and except the offices, and is in favor of everything that does not exist. On the other hand the Republican party has been and is now a party of progress, under whose influence this country has become one of the greatest world powers. It is the party of the young and vigorous manhood of the country and will be forging to the front in the next election. The people have trusted it for 50 years and they are not now going to forsake it. They would rather bear whatever ills the Democratic party alleges we are suffering from than fly to the ones they know nothing about.

Primary Law Declared All-Inclusive.

Attorney-General Straus delivered an opinion on Monday to Chairman Murray Vandiver, of the Democratic State Central Committee, holding that under the Lee Primary Election law, passed by the last Legislature nominations for Congress as well as for all other offices must be made by direct primary.

The Republican State Central Committee, which recently selected dates for Congressional conventions, will probably be reassembled and an effort made to agree with the Democratic State Central Committee as to dates for joint primaries.

May Divide Maryland Classis.

The Maryland Classis, Potomac Synod, Reformed Church met in annual session in the Boonsboro Reformed Church, Rev. Charles D. Shaffer, pastor, on Wednesday evening and will be in session several days.

Rev. Dr. D. J. Wolf, of Taneytown, president of the classis, preached the opening sermon, which was followed by the election of officers.

Rev. L. E. Coblentz, pastor of St. Paul's Reformed Church, Baltimore, is stated clerk, and Rev. Dr. C. S. Slagle, of Westminster, is treasurer.

About 45 clerical and 35 lay delegates are present. The classis is made up of about 40 congregations with a communicant membership of about 12,000.

Last year the benevolent contributions amounted to $18,474, which was a gain of $2,560 over the preceding year. The congregational expenses amounted to $90,859, a gain of $19,779.

Maryland Classis, in point of membership, is the largest in the Potomac Synod, being nearly twice as large as the next largest, Juniata Classis. There are only three other classis in the United States that are larger—Lehigh, the largest; East Pennsylvania, and Reading.

The question of dividing the classis will probably come up again.

The territory of Maryland Classis embraces Baltimore city, Washington city, Carroll, Frederick and Washington counties, and one congregation on the Eastern Shore, at Ridgely. The Clearspring congregation is the most westerly in the classis.

If the classis is divided the churches of Baltimore city, Carroll county and the Eastern Shore will constitute one classis and the churches of Washington and Frederick counties and Washington city the other.

Sweet Air Items.

Our public school No. 9, closed last Friday with honor and we do confess that we feel somewhat cheerless owing to the fact that Old Glory ceases to wave in our midst. Our attentive and ever watchful teacher, Miss E. Pearl Mercier, saw to it that our beloved emblem was unfurled and hoisted to the breeze five days in each week during the last school term.

Sunday school and preaching at Bethel, the Church of God, Sunday next at the usual hour.

Mrs. Cora Brandenburg and son Emil, of Sykesville, spent last week with Mrs. B's. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rube Conaway.

Mr. "Gass" Rawlings of Porters spent some time last week with his old comrades in this vicinity.

Our enterprising farmer, Mr. Ambrose Streaker, has finished planting his lima bean crop which consists of nearly two thousand hills and consumed one bushel of seed.

Mr. Joseph Branendburg of Sykesville, an attendant at the Springfield Hospital, spent last week, while on his vacation, with his mother, Mrs. Martha Brandenburg, and friends in this vicinity.

Squire Glennan, Messrs. J. P. Miller, H. E. Pickett and Ambrose Streaker are having their next winter's wood sawed in stove lengths and we are not quite sure whether the late frost or Halley's comet brought about this advanced enterprise.

Union Mills Items

The Union Mills Lodge, I. O. M. has had its lodge room handsomely papered and carpeted.

Rev. S. Charles Hoover, pastor of St. Mary's Reformed Church, Silver Run, with Elder William Frock, as lay delegates, will attend the meeting of Maryland Classis which convenes at Boonsboro, Md., this week.

Mr. Weldon R. Nusbaum is erecting a large new stable on the property he recently purchased of Mrs. Barbara Zacharias.

Mr. Howard Rusher has gone to Baltimore to act as chaeffeur for a party who runs an automobile livery.

Our band has been engaged to play on Decoration Day at Littlestown, Pa. Five bands will be there and Littlestown expects to have a big time.

Last Saturday, Mrs. Leander Lookingbill made public sale of her personal property, and will now live with her stepson-in-law, Conrad D. Rusher.

Mr. Wm. R. Unger, who purchased the farm of John P. Myers on which he now resides, is moving his barn from the hill on which it formerly stood, to a location nearer and more convenient to the other farm buildings.

Mr. Bernard Lawyer, a student of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa., with several of his young friends, spent last Sunday with Mr. Lawyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira. G. Lawyer.

Mr. George W. Yeiser attended the World's Sunday School convention at Washington, D. C., this week, as the only delegate from Carroll county.

Melrose Items

Although the weather was threatening part of the day on Saturday last the day was all that could be desired for Melrose. At dinner the crowd began to gather and until seven o'clock in the evening there were fully 500 people here in town. The Carroll County Reed band discoursed excellent music, not only in the center of the town but at the business places and paraded the streets. The merry-go-round owned by Edw. Zepp, Jr., entertained the largest part of the crowd. The ice cream men, Miller and Sterner, did a good business. Altogether it was a day enjoyed by the masses. Everything was carried out according to program, and, so far as we saw good order prevailed.

Wentz's Union Sunday School now numbers 64 and is constantly increasing. The school will soon decide on a date for their annual picnic. Sunday School next Sunday afternoon at 2 P. M.

Irvin Fridinger, one of our moterman boys, spent Whit Monday in Manchester and spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. S. B. Fridinger. As they are kept busy it may be his last trip home this summer.

Lutheran Reunion July 21.

The twenty-fourth annual reunion of the Lutheran churches of Southern Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia and West Virginia will be held at Pen-Mar, Thursday July 21. The general reunion committee, of which Rev. Dr. A. R. Steck, of Baltimore, is chairman held a meeting at the Eagle Hotel, Gettysburg, several days ago and made arrangements for the gathering. The music will be of a special character and the railroads will provide special facilities for handling the large number of persons expected to attend.
