Dr. C. Morris

My dear friend

We were very glad to have your thoughtful letter to my Father received before we left England for this place.

After having made a short but pleasant excursion to the Land's End, Falmouth and Plymouth we finally thought we could stay no longer & left on pleasant June 4th for Paris on the 28th of last month.

We are well satisfied that we remained there during the early winter months for although we had a considerable amount of sloppy or foggy weather, there
