SIDE TWO

unavailable as the letter was only received last night & Mary whom I saw to day advised me to enclose it to you at once, & you would probably receive it as soon as the one sent by boat & before speaking to Prof^r Briggs. I shall send the carriage to the boat in case you prefer he will not wait, but if he does not come please, drop me a line giving me your advice on the subject after reading the enclosed letter — Dear Cousin I know I try your time & patience, but you are one of those who are willing to bear the burdens of God's people, & so fulfil the law of Christ, so I write apologyzing but submit my case in haste
