[redacted] 1871 May-July Caspar Morris Writing from

Bassin St. Croix
June 8th 1871.

My dear Dr. Morris

A letter from you is always an occasion of pleasure to me and the last was peculiarly so, because it was a permission to be employed for you. I have made diligent inquiries for the accommodation of your friends, and now send the result. You mentioned that Miss Da Costa would also be applied to. Our connections are altogether removed from us, they being at the western end of the island, and we are at the east. You will therefore gain all the information that can be obtained upon the subject. Furnished houses for rent are rarely met with here, and furniture can neither be hired or purchased, and our domestic arrangements are so utterly dissimilar to those
