SIDE TWO

of God. I fear I never thanked you for so kindly coming down here, and I hope you were no worse for your exertions. Perhaps when you have a leisure moment, you will let me hear from you while on your travels. May the Lord preserve the Lord accompany you thyours, and bring you safely back to your homes.

Everyour much attached friend.

J Bruntwoute